NOTICE—Miss Mae Loughridge, teacher of voice. Opening for summer term.

Roy Cole and Albert Cotner, of Plattsmouth, were in the city last Tuesday looking after some telephone work.

Mr. Roy Youker, of Plattsmouth, is visiting at the home of her parents for a few days, having arrived here Tuesday morning.

Robert Shrader, of east of town, was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Shrader and they drove as far as Plattsmouth in their car, taking the train from there.

W. A. Lewis, who has been visiting in this vicinity for several days past, and also receiving medical treatment at Council Bluffs, departed Monday evening for his home at Coleridge, Nebraska.

Robert S. McCleary, of Weeping Water, and a crew of workmen were in the village last Tuesday after a load of steel for re-inforcing some bridges being built on the government aid road.

Bert Jamison, living some six miles west of Murray, was in town last Tuesday, coming after a load of woven wire fencing for use on his farm, as he is engaged in fencing the place hog tight.

Ernest Contryman, of Weeping Water, the father of Wilber Contryman, living a few miles from Murray, is reported as being very ill, and is not expected to recover. He is 78 years of age and is very feeble.

John Schwartz, of Nehawka, is working at the home of Gust Hallenberg, southwest of town, and will redecorate the home, painting the house both inside and out, as well as doing some other painting about the premises.

Jas. Campbell and wife were visiting with friends and looking after some business at the county seat last Tuesday.

County Commissioner J. A. Fitz was a business visitor in Murray on last Tuesday, having been looking after some business matters over the county as well as in this vicinity.

Warren Tyman, of DeWitt, was a visitor in Murray last Sunday, coming for the two small sons of Mrs. Bertha Cauley, who is his sister. He took the children home with him.

County Surveyor Fred Patterson was working on the public road just east of Murray during the fore part of the work, getting the grades established in order that the graders who are working on the federal aid road may continue their work.

Messrs. E. S. Tutt and I. M. Davis were in Plattsmouth last Monday evening, going to attend the Masonic lodge session there. Mr. Tutt was raised to the degree of a Master Mason at the special meeting held that day, and Mr. Davis, also a member of the Plattsmouth lodge went along to assist in the work.

Mrs. F. H. Ramge who was injured when the tire came off the wheel of her car while coming from Omaha, just north of Plattsmouth some two weeks ago, and who was very badly bruised, is reported as getting along as well as could be expected and is almost entirely over the injuries received.

Misses Hazel and Claire Dovey, of Plattsmouth, were visitors in Murray last Tuesday, coming down on the morning train to spend the day with their friend, Miss Margery Walker. They had a most pleasant time while here. Miss Claire Dovey returned home in the evening, while Miss Hazel remained until Wednesday morning.

REMEMBER THE LYCEUM COURSE

Is a Power for Good in the Community—Buy a Season Ticket and Join the Boosters.

If the citizens would only see the idea of the Lyceum course we cannot believe any one would hesitate to buy season tickets even if there was a chance of their not being able to attend every number.

The Lyceum is the only chance of bringing real wholesome entertainment to a small place like Murray, and parents who want their children to have the opportunity of attending worth while entertainments cannot profitably withhold their support from the Lyceum. Yet some have to be fairly begged to support the Lyceum course and hesitate to buy a season ticket for fear of not being able to attend every session and thereby losing 50 cents or so.

When we can see the real motive of the Lyceum for the small town, then, and only then will the few not have to beg the many to buy a season ticket.

Mrs. Henry C. Long spent the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Shrader, in Omaha.

Henry Thelle, of Nehawka, and wife who have been visiting in Omaha and Plattsmouth, spent a short time in Murray while on their way home.

Dr. B. F. Brendel and Bert Lloyd were visiting at Omaha on Wednesday, going up on the early morning train.

James Tigner, who has been laid up with an abscess on one of his knees, is reported as making some progress toward recovery.

Wm. Seyboldt made a trip to Nehawka last Sunday morning, where he was looking after some business matters for a few hours.

Mrs. E. S. Tutt was a visitor with friends in Omaha last Wednesday, having gone up on the Missouri Pacific train Tuesday afternoon.

Jesse Chambers, who has been working at Union for the past few days, where he had some houses to paint, returned home Tuesday evening.

Charles Creamer, who has been on the sick list for some time past, is now reported as showing some improvement, which will be good news to his many friends.

Virgil Urish, who has been sick for the past two weeks, and has been confined to his bed, is reported as being somewhat improved and is able to be around again.

Charles Tucker is having some improvements made at his farm home including some alterations about the house, together with the building of some new cribs and a cattle shed.

Messdames E. F. Brandel and B. A. Root and Mrs. Carlson, of Omaha, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Brendel, together with Dr. J. F. Brendel, were all visiting in Plattsmouth Tuesday evening.

Frank Reed, who was in the hospital at Omaha for a time, having undergone an operation, returned Wednesday morning for consultation and examination at the hands of the specialist who had his case.

There is some joy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins on account of the arrival of a fine baby, a son of the boy who made his appearance last Sunday, the 21st. All concerned are doing nicely and everyone is exceedingly happy.

James Kuykendall, of the Plattsmouth Gas and Electric company, accompanied by H. W. Goucheur, one of his ice makers, was in Murray looking after business Tuesday forenoon. They drove down in Mr. Kuykendall's car.

G. W. McCracken, manager of the Meier Drug company's store here, departed Tuesday morning on the early morning train for Creston, Iowa, where he expected to remain several days while he looked after some business matters claiming his attention there.

T. J. Brendel is very busy engaged these days looking after his insurance business and keeps going most of the time either in his car or on the train, and is making good success at the business, even if he does have to travel until late. Jeff is a rustling insurance writer, and is getting a lot of business for his company.

Nicholas Friedrich, living just at the south edge of town, has received some fine Poland China hogs, which are indeed some fine porkers. Mr. Friedrich is putting them on his farm with the intention of raising nothing but the best, a hobby, if you choose to call it that, which is proving profitable to more than one hog raiser in this part of the state.

A few days ago B. C. Dance, of Chicago, who is a traveling salesman for the Halter Shoe company, of Cincinnati, engaged in making this western country, came down from Omaha for a short visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. B. A. Root. He was only able to spend a few hours with his mother, and then hastened back to Omaha to resume his work for the company.

The Bank of Murray is having some excavating done at the north end of the building for the purpose of installing a furnace under the bank. Heretofore heat has been supplied during the winter months by means of stoves, but Mr. Boedeker, being progressive and up-to-date, thinks it better to have a heating plant installed.

W. H. Puls has the contract for installing the new furnace.

Meets with Accident in West

Theodore Bouton, who has just returned from the west tells of the turning over of the automobile of Mrs. Archie Sprecker, of near Grant, who formerly lived near Nehawka, injuring Mrs. Sprecker severely. She was hurriedly taken to a physician, where it was found her arm had been broken in two places. Just as she was having her wounds dressed, she received a message from Asher-ville, W. Va., telling of the dying condition of her father, Mrs. Sprecker and three other sisters living near Grant departed immediately for the east to be present at the bed side of their aged parent.

Has Elegant Herd of Hogs

Miss Pauline Oldham, who is a raiser of and dealer in fine Duroc Jersey hogs, is well equipped to raise the best strain of fine porkers, and she now has a herd of 150 of the finest of the species. A representative of the Journal visited the yards where the herd is kept and we certainly found a lot of fine hogs, ranging in sizes from light weight shoats to the heavier porkers. Miss Oldham knows hogs from A to Z, and gives them the best of care, being rewarded by the pleasures that come from possession of a nice herd of thoroughbreds and by the good shipping business she has developed, as the Oldham farm ships hogs to all parts of the country.

Mrs. Lucy Lyle New Manager

On account of the resignation of Mrs. Bertha Cauley, former manager of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company's Murray exchange, Mrs. Lucy Lyle has succeeded to the position. Mrs. Lyle comes from Weeping Water and is accompanied by her two daughters, Misses Gladys and Freda and also by her son, Stewart, who will make their home at Murray. Another daughter is engaged in teaching school out in the state.

Murray Couple United in Marriage

Mrs. Bertha Cauley, who has been manager of the Murray telephone exchange for some time, and who had been away for a few days, returned the first of the week to look after turning over the business of the office to her successor, as she reports the marriage of herself and Mr. Harry H. Baxter. It has not been learned where they will make their home as yet. Mr. Baxter is a salesman for the T. H. Pollock Auto company and with his bride are well known in Murray and the surrounding country. At present they are stopping in Plattsmouth at the Wagner hotel. The Journal, along with their many friends, is pleased to extend congratulations and hopes that their lives may be happy and prosperous.

Was a Damp Greeting

At the old fashioned dance given at the hall here about a week ago, some one with more of a desire for rough sport than for propriety, or with a spirit of revenge, awaited the opportunity of pouring a pail of water down the skylight while the dance was in progress, thoroughly soaking Arthur Baker as he was dancing. Mr. Baker, like a true sport, took the scaldy trick in good nature, and while the people paused to wonder at the sudden influx of water the culprits made good their get-away.

Received Severe Injury to Hand

While unloading a car of hard coal at the Missouri Pacific station, Lee Nickels met with a misfortune that will keep him from his daily labors, as well as cause him considerable pain for a good while. He was attempting to stop a refractory pair of mules, which became frightened at the train, when his hand was drawn into contact with a nail by the lines cutting a gash of considerable length on the back thereof. The injury was mended by Dr. G. H. Gilmore, who was compelled to take four stitches in the hand to close the gapping wound. This was very painful and the dressing of the injured member was attended with plenty of suffering.

WILL YOU BOOM YOUR OWN TOWN

Then Attend the Lecture of the Noted Speaker, Ernest J. Powell on October Second.

The road to Mr. Powell's present position in the Lyceum has been a rough one; he is a graduate of the University of Hard Knocks. This statement is not intended to cast any reflection upon his excellent academic attainments, but to endorse him as a man to whom has come a deeper knowledge and broader vision than that acquired in the halls of learning.

This is one of the reasons he has been picked to deliver the opening number of the Lyceum course in Murray on October 2nd, at which time he will talk on booming your own home town.

As a farm hand, earning money to complete his college education, as a rural teacher, as a railway Y. M. C. A. secretary, as County Supt. of Public Schools, and as an editor of a weekly newspaper, his work was characterized by great industry and he acquired that tactful manner, resiliency of spirit and philosophical turn of mind that crowned with conspicuous success his efforts as a Chautauqua business and platform manager.

He recently completed a tour of one of the great Chautauqua circuits, delivering seventy lectures in towns in the Mississippi valley, appearing on programs with some of the most noted orators of America and throughout the season his lectures created unusual interest and numerous requests have been made for return dates. Mr. Powell is very effective in his dramatic inspirational addresses, and his practical and business-like town boosting talks are of inestimable value to any community. No one having the interest of our town at heart will want to miss this opening lecture of the Lyceum course.

RETURNS FROM A TRIP THRU WEST

L. D. Hiatt Well Pleased with Conditions in Perkins County, Where He Has Land.

Last Tuesday morning L. D. Hiatt, who has been in the western part of the state for a number of days, arrived home, being joined in Plattsmouth by Mrs. Hiatt, who had been visiting there during her husband's absence. Mr. Hiatt reports much activity in land transfers in the west just now and says that the enterprising firm of Vallery & Cromwell is getting its share of the business, largely on account of the good treatment accorded its patrons. He mentioned the fact of much wheat being piled on the ground awaiting cars in which to ship it to the market. Mr. Hiatt has some land in Perkins county, as has also his partner, Mr. E. S. Tutt, who is having part of his holding seeded to winter wheat.

Plattsmouth Homecoming

Returned soldiers and sailors from this vicinity, together with their friends are planning on attending the Cass county homecoming celebration at Plattsmouth on Saturday, October 4th, in large numbers. Enterprising business men and patriotic citizens of Plattsmouth, and Plattsmouth precinct have provided a fund of nearly $3,000 to be spent in showing the Cass county boys a good time and a royal welcome is extended to every soldier and sailor in the county to attend. One of the principal features will be an athletic program.

a merchant in order to merit patronage should first carry sufficient stock to care for any reasonable demands made upon it. Second, it should be priced correctly. Too large a profit is robbery, and too small, bankruptcy—and neither benefits a community.

Our aim is to carry a complete line of Drugs and Drug Sundries—so priced that we can live, and yet supply any goods in our line at reasonable prices.

COFFEE!

The market on Coffee is very firm from all the information which merchants are able to get hold of, and to look for lower prices soon seems to be out of the question. We know that the prices we are giving the public, at this store, are much below what others are asking. Try us and see:—

Fancy Santos Peaberry, very uniform, others ask five cents per pound more, our price per pound . . . 45c

Fancy Bogata, the kind others ask 10c per lb. more. The difference is all in the price. Per pound . . . 50c

YUBAN, the Arbuckle Guest Coffee, very high-grade, equal to the best to be bought. Special price per lb. 55c

Morning Cup, another mild coffee, comes in 1-pound Tins. Steel cut and a mighty good drink. Per lb. 50c
