CASS COUNTY BANKERS MET LAST NIGHT

REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL BUT TWO BANKS HERE TO PERFECT ORGANIZATION.

ENJOYED A FINE BANQUET

Officers Selected and Fine Address by H. K. Frantz of Eagle Was Much Enjoyed.

From Friday's Daily. Last evening the representatives of the banking interests of Cass county met at the Hotel Wagner to perfect the organization of a county bankers' association to co-operate with the state organization in safeguarding the interests of the banks and their depositors in the unsettled condition that is prevailing throughout the nation and state. The meeting was held in the spacious dining room of the hotel, where the banquet table was spread and the splendid dinner served prior to the meeting of the association was one very much enjoyed and which placed the members of the party in trim for the work of the evening.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by H. K. Frantz, of Eagle, president of the state association, who pointed out to the bankers of the county the necessity of organization to protect themselves and the interests of their patrons from many of the dangers that now exist and particularly in the sale of worthless stocks to the bank depositors and the public which result in the loss of much money to the persons purchasing them, and also touched on the fact that many of these new and unknown stocks without any guarantee of their paying qualities are sold and exchanged to innocent persons in exchange for the valuable government securities that have been saved by the people of the country during the war times. The co-operation of the bankers of the state with the state authorities in the enforcement of the blue sky law was also urged by Mr. Frantz. The fostering of the spirit of thrift among the people of the state and county was also urged upon the assembled bankers by the state president.

The formation of the county association was completed by the election of officers and the following were chosen:

Chairman, H. A. Schneider, Plattsmouth.
Vice-Chairman, C. S. Aldrich, of Elmwood.
Secretary-Treasurer, C. E. Butler, of Weeping Water.

Advisory Committee, D. C. West, Nehawka and H. K. Frantz, Eagle.
A number of the bankers present gave a few remarks on the needs of the bankers for co-operation in their work for the interest of the patrons of the banks as well as their business interests, which proved very interesting and valuable to the members of the association.

Those attending the banquet and organization meeting represented all but two of the banks of the county and the representatives of these two banks were unable to be at the meeting owing to the fact that they were called out of the county. Those attending were R. F. Patterson, C. C. Parmele, H. N. Dovey, Geo. O. Dovey, F. E. Schlatter, T. M. Patterson, H. A. Schneider, J. M. Roberts, Plattsmouth; H. K. Frantz, A. M. Longman, E. L. Trumble, Merl V. Lanning, Eagle; C. E. Butler, F. P. Wolcott, Thomas Murtry, F. J. Domingo, Weeping Water; D. C. West, Nehawka; Dale Boyles, S. C. Boyles, Alvo; Henry A. Guthmann, Henry A. Tool, Murdock; Elmer Hallstrom, C. W. Fahnestock, H. J. Stutt, W. O. Barker, Avoca; W. G. Boedecker, Ludvig Hollis, Murray; C. S. Aldrich, Guy Clements and W. N. McLennon, Elmwood.

Mrs. Peter Perry and two daughters came in this morning from their home near Mynard for a short visit in the city looking after some business matters.

TAKEN TO OMAHA FOR TREATMENT

From Friday's Daily. This morning Mrs. Jennie Kinkead was taken to Omaha where she will be placed in one of the hospitals in that city for treatment in the hope of giving her relief from her suffering of the last two weeks. Mrs. Kinkead has been in very serious condition for some time and it is hoped that the treatment at the hospital may benefit her health. Mrs. Bertha Chrisman of Lincoln, daughter of Mrs. Kinkead, accompanied her to the metropolis.

WILD MAN FROM UNION IS JAILED

Strange Greek, Who Has Been Creating a Great Deal of Excitement in Vicinity of Union Now in Jail.

The county jail has within its walls a real wild man who in his appearance bears a resemblance not unlike Robinson Crusoe after his years of life on a desert isle. The man has only the remnants of what were once clothes and his personal appearance is disguised by an extensive coating of dirt as he has evidently steered clear of all bathing for many moons. The man is a Greek and can speak only very little English so that conversation with him was decidedly difficult and it was necessary to secure the services of George Conis to get any kind of an understanding from the man.

The stranger has for several days been lurking in the country east of Union where the wooded sections and the bluffs along the Missouri river were his favorite haunts and here he has been staying, coming forth once in a while to try and secure something to eat from the neighboring farm houses. The man came to a number of the places along the stretch of country near the river and his appearance created a great scare among the women residing in that locality as the man could not make himself understood and his general tattered appearance gave him a decidedly poor impression with the natives of east Liberty. At several places where he attempted to secure food he was told to go away and this seemed to anger him as he kicked and beat on the doors of a number of the farm houses and thereby frightened the women at the houses he visited. A searching party was organized and scoured the woods and hills of the eastern portion of Liberty precinct and the man was finally rounded up near the Clarence farm. He was brought on into Plattsmouth and turned over to the county to be cared for.

The man is apparently harmless but his general appearance is enough to frighten most anyone if they met him alone. He states that he has been in this country only a short time and was for several weeks employed in the western part of the state and disliking the place quit and started out to travel and picked out Union as a good place to light but apparently made a bad choice as he has been having great difficulty in securing even enough to eat.

The stranger is resting at the county jail and will be given suitable clothes and a general delousing process before his case is given any definite action.

ENJOYS BIG TIME.

From Friday's Daily. Last evening some twelve of the young ladies of the city enjoyed a real delightful treat in a picnic party at the Wiles farm west of the city and the occasion proved one that they will long very pleasantly remember. The members of the party spent the late afternoon in preparing a sumptuous "feed" with roasted vealies as the chief feature and topped off with a number of appetizing dishes that the ladies had thoughtfully brought with them. After completing the enjoyment of the feast the party came into the city and spent a short time in taking in the movies at the Parmele and to complete the evening of wild hilarity enjoyed some of the dainty and toothsome refreshments served by the Morgan sweet shop.

RETURNS HOME FROM G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

HON. R. B. WINDHAM, ACCOMPANIED BY DAUGHTER, ARRIVED YESTERDAY

REPRESENTED THE LOCAL POST

And Enjoyed a Delightful Visit in the East—People Very Hospitable They Say.

From Thursday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon Hon. R. B. Windham and daughter, Miss Herma, returned to their home in this city after a visit of several weeks in the east, during which time they attended the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic held at Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. Windham represented the local G. A. R. post. They state that the city of Columbus was turned over to the old veterans of the blue and that the patriotic citizens left nothing undone to make the stay of the old soldiers very pleasant. Mr. Windham has attended a large number of the national encampments but never before was there anything to equal the gathering held this year and it far exceeded the former encampment held in Columbus in 1888, although since that time thousands of the old veterans have answered the last roll call.

The attendance was the largest for years and embraced members of the Grand Army from all sections of the United States. The city held something like 125,000 visitors for the time of the encampment, and the homes of Columbus were thrown open to the veterans and their families by the hospitable Ohio people. The parades and demonstrations were tremendous Mr. Windham says and despite the advanced age of the old soldiers they marched in line for hours, while the long parade was passing in review before the officers of the Grand Army and Governor Cox as well as the city officials of Columbus.

After the close of the Grand Army encampment Mr. Windham and his daughter enjoyed a short visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Kathryn Riddle and family at Xenia, Ohio. Mr. Riddle is the city manager of this splendid city of 10,000 people and has been very successful in his work of conducting the business affairs of the city. After the visit at the Riddle home Mr. and Miss Windham spent several days visiting at points in Michigan and also at Chicago before returning home.

FUNERAL OF MRS. H. K. DUNBAR

Held at Home of Her Daughter at Ashland on Tuesday Afternoon—Interment in That City.

From Thursday's Daily. The funeral services of the late Mrs. H. K. Dunbar were held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Hugo Wiggenhorn, in Ashland, where Mrs. Dunbar had been making her home for some time. The services were simple and beautiful, there being a large number of the relatives and friends of the well loved lady present to pay their last token of love to her that had been taken from the home circle. The impressive funeral service of the Presbyterian church was read by Rev. Reezes, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Ashland, and following the service at home, the body was borne to the Ashland cemetery where it was laid to rest beside that of the husband. Pall bearers were George Scott, John Scott, Gifford Rallsback, Carl Harnsberger, George Shedd, Edwin A. Fricke. The beautiful floral remembrances spoke silently of the high esteem in which the departed lady had been held by a large circle of friends and the profound sense of grief and sorrow that her passing had brought to the community where she had for so many years been a resident.

Mrs. H. K. Dunbar was born in Brecksville, Ohio, September 3, 1839, and was united in marriage to H. K. Dunbar January 28, 1864, and for several years the family made their home in the east coming to Neb. in 1882 and have since made their home in this state. The husband and father passed away in 1909 and since that time Mrs. Dunbar has been making her home with her children. To mourn her death there remains three children: Mrs. Anna Kessler, Oakland, California; Mrs. Hugo Wiggenhorn, Ashland, and Frank H. Dunbar, Plattsmouth. The out of town friends present at the funeral of this estimable lady were Mrs. J. S. Livingston, Miss Dora Fricke, Edwin A. Fricke, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Allensworth, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pann-coast, Omaha and Mrs. Allen Jones, Omaha.

RETURNS HOME FROM THE NAVY

Arthur White, Former Plattsmouth Boy Pays Visit to Old Home and With His Many Friends Here.

From Thursday's Daily. Lieutenant Arthur White, U. S. N. arrived in the city yesterday afternoon for a visit here with his old school friends and associates, having just been discharged from the United States navy. Mr. White entered the navy shortly after the declaration of the war with Germany and has been on active duty since that time on the high seas, the greater part of the service being spent in foreign service. This splendid young man was advanced to the rank of first lieutenant, junior grade, for his services and retires on that rank. "Art" is best known to the host of friends here, has just returned from a cruise from Brest, France, to the West Indies and made port at New Orleans, from which city he was discharged and sent home. The visit of the young man has been a source of much pleasure to the friends here who are delighted to see him once more back in civilian life safe and sound after the experience of the two years of service.

CANNOT PARTICIPATE IN THE TOURNAMENT

From Thursday's Daily. The Red Sox base ball team of this city which was entered in the Greenwood base ball tournament which opens in that city tomorrow morning, will not be able to fill the date as the members of the team employed in the Burlington shops are unable to get away from their duties to play ball on the three days of the tournament. This has been a great disappointment to the members of the Sox team as well as to the Greenwood fans who had expected to have the Sox with them on this date and will make necessary the substitution of some other team in the tournament. The Red Sox have arranged a game here Sunday with the Louisville team in view of the fact that they will not be able to play in the tournament and will therefore give an exhibition of the national pastime here for the Plattsmouth fans.

OMAHA COUPLE MARRIED.

From Thursday's Daily. While Plattsmouth and Cass county people journey to Omaha to have the matrimonial knot tied, the residents of the big city prefer to seek the quiet and peacefulness of the Cass county seat, and yesterday afternoon George P. Duermeier and Miss Laura Brown, came down from the metropolis and applied at the office of the county judge for the necessary permit to allow them to become man and wife. The young people were united in marriage at the home of Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the Presbyterian church and returned last evening to their home in the big city.

THE ATHLETIC CARNIVAL A BIG ATTRACTION

OF HOMECOMING—COMPLETED DETAILS SHOW A RARE TREAT IN STORE.

SPORTS THE SOLDIERS LIKE

Boxing, Wrestling, Base Ball and Other Training Camp Favorites Among the Boys.

From Thursday's Daily. The arrangements for the athletic features of the big homecoming have been completed by the committee in charge and show that these will be among the big attractions of the celebration that cannot be surpassed in the state. They embrace the general sports of a nature that are highly pleasing to the ex-service men and include boxing exhibitions, wrestling, base ball, etc.

One of the events will be a wrestling match between Tom Ray, of Omaha, one of the best mat artists of that city and "Bull" Sorenson, of Salt Lake City, both service men and the best in their class.

As a preliminary boxing exhibition Eddie Gillen, of Omaha and Jimmy Drexel, of South Omaha, will mix in a six round go and both of these ex-soldiers will give the boxing fans a treat as they are among the best of the lightweight glove artists of the up-river town.

The main feature of the program is to be the six round exhibition boxing match between Seaman Andy Schmardeker, of Louisville, champion heavyweight of the U. S. navy and Harry Williams, former soldier and acknowledged champion of the heavyweights of Omaha, as well as catcher for the Murphy-Did-Its. Both of these boys are looking forward to training for a match with Jack Dempsey and their clever work in boxing will be a big feature of the athletic program and one well worth seeing.

The former soldiers of the county who have had baseball experience will be asked to join in a base ball game with the former sailors and for which the committee will give suitable prizes to the members of the winning team. The ball game is to occupy the opening portion of the morning program.

"Kid" Graves, sports editor of the Omaha Bee, and former welterweight champion of the world, will be here for the athletic carnival and will officiate as umpire of the ball game as well as referee in the wrestling match and in the preliminary boxing match. For the big boxing match Kid Graves has asked that other arrangements be made for refereeing, as he is interested in the management of Mr. Williams, and the committee in charge is arranging to have "Cy" Sherman, of the Lincoln Star, who, like Kid Graves, is a former Plattsmouth man, be here homecoming day to referee the Schmardeker-Williams match.

All of these features will be free to the soldiers, sailors, marines and Red Cross nurses and everyone in the county is invited to be present and take in the big show as it has been arranged for them by the citizens of Plattsmouth and Cass county. As is the case with other free features to the ex-service men, the uniform will be their ticket of admission and by wearing it they will save much delay in establishing their identity and gaining early admission to the attractions.

BUYS LAND IN PERKINS CO.

From Friday's Daily. Ira Bates of this place has purchased a new farm in Perkins county, through the land agency of Geo. M. Hild, instead of securing the land in Chase county as stated a few days ago in the Journal. Mr. Bates is well pleased with the new farm and feels confident that it is a fine piece of land as can be found in that portion of the west.

RETURNS FROM THE WEST.

From Friday's Daily. Frank Vallery of Murray came in this morning from a trip out in Perkins county, and will spend two days at home and will then head another party out in the western portion of the state. Frank is a sure getter and had several successful sales of land on his trip this week, disposing of a few tracts in the vicinity of Grant. The interest in the land in that portion of the state is on the increase and it is constantly increasing in price as the influx of the landseekers continues.

ADDS ANOTHER CHAIR TO SHOP

E. G. Shellenberger Secures Barber to Hold Down Third Chair—Is Improving Shop.

From Friday's Daily. Ed Fullerton, of Buffalo, Mo., a first class tonsorial artist began work today holding down a new chair—the third one—in the Wagner hotel barber shop operated by E. G. Shellenberger. With the installation of the new chair Shelley is otherwise improving the place, by the addition of another section of plate glass mirror and providing conveniences for the public. Mr. Shellenberger has worked up a good business and does not mean to let any of it get away through long waits due to a shortage of competent workmen if he can possibly help it. And with the conveniences of electrically operated hair clippers and other labor saving devices he is able to turn out a good quality of work in the minimum length of time.

ESTHEREDGE CASE GOES TO TRIAL

Injunction Brought Against the Burlington by F. W. Etheredge of Greenwood, Is Heard.

From Friday's Daily. This morning in district court the hearing was held by District Judge James T. Begley on the temporary restraining order secured by Frederick W. Etheredge of Greenwood against the C. B. & Q. railroad. The plaintiff secured the order to restrain the railroad company and its employes from removing a number of trees that were located on a small tract of land that Mr. Etheredge claims title to and which is also claimed as part of the railroad right of way. The property in dispute is located at Greenwood. The interests of the Burlington are represented by Judge Jesse L. Root of Omaha and Attorney W. A. Robertson of this city while the plaintiff's case is in charge of Attorney A. L. Tidd of this city.

YOUNG PEOPLE WED YESTERDAY IN OMAHA

JOHN WEST AND MISS HENRIETTA CREAMER STEAL MARCH ON THEIR FRIENDS.

TO RESIDE WEST OF MURRAY

Both are Well Known and Popular Young People of Cass County and Have Many Friends

From Thursday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon at Omaha occurred the marriage of two of the popular young people of this part of Cass county, Mr. John West and Miss Henrietta Creamer, both of Murray. The young people decided to steal a march on their friends and repaired to the metropolis where the ceremony that made them as one was performed and the newly weds returned home last evening to receive the congratulations of their friends and relatives on their new found happiness.

Both the bride and groom have been reared from childhood in this county and are known to a large circle of warm friends through this section of the county. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Creamer and a young lady who has made a large circle of friends by her pleasant personality, who will learn with much pleasure of her new happiness. The groom is one of the enterprising and industrious young farmers of near Murray and possesses the respect and esteem of all those with whom he has come in touch.

Mr. and Mrs. West will make their future home on the farm of the groom nine miles west of Murray, where the home is all ready awaiting the coming of the new mistress of the household and here the young people will be at home to their host of friends. The Journal joins with the many other friends of the newly weds in wishing them a long and happy journey through the coming years.

INSTALLS ELECTRIC APPLIANCE

From Friday's Daily. The Perkins Hotel has just added to the equipment of the dining room a large modern electric coffee urn that will be ample to care for the needs of the hotel. The coffee is heated by electricity and kept at a steady temperature all the time and aids greatly in the serving of the patrons. Mr. Cory, the owner of the hotel in adding the new urn has certainly secured a great labor saving device.
