KNOWLEDGE COMPETITION

Following will be found a number of brief paragraphs, each bringing out a few of the distinctive features and characteristics of the city's business institutions or professional men. There is a query or two in each paragraph. To the person who first answers them correctly in detail will be given choice of the prizes noted above. The next nearest correct answer will be given next choice.

Names must not be abbreviated, but given in the usual styles of the firm's advertising. All answers must be neat and legible. There is no guessing about these; there is a clue in every one of which the identity may be confirmed.

Any firm sketched here is privileged to answer questions, except to tell that they are "It."

Answers may be sent by mail or brought to this office any time before Saturday noon. The sequel to this feature will be published one week from today, at which time the prize winners will be announced and they will then be entitled to call and get prizes.

The competition is open to everyone except employees of this paper and other relatives.

Address, "BING," Journal Office.

1 A store of quality, progress and service. This refers to a large implement, harness and vehicle establishment, where they are able to supply your every want in farm machinery, wagons, autos and tractors. If there is any tool that makes the farmer's work easier you will find it here—that is if it has been invented. They handle the I. H. C. tractors and grain drills, Titan and Huber tractors. Just now they are featuring portable grain elevators, inside cup elevators and scoop boards—all useful articles this fall. Also sell Dodge and Chandler cars. This business has grown from a small beginning many years ago and is today the largest of its kind in the entire county? What is the name?

2 "Values, like water, seek their level; the hat accents your beauty 'treble.'" A fine gown does not complete a woman's attire. She must have correct millinery accompaniments. We mention here a popular hat shop which lays a good deal of stress on quality goods. This store has gained a reputation for carrying the most dependable merchandise in the way of millinery and hat trimmings. The new fall and winter offerings are now on display for the inspection of the ladies of Plattsmouth and vicinity. The store that sells "Fisk" hats. What is the name?

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Advice of This Plattsmouth Woman is of Certain Value.

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains. Ofttimes 'tis the kidneys' fault. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective. Many Plattsmouth women know this.

Ask your neighbor! Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. Hettie Cummings, Chicago Ave., Plattsmouth, says: "I suffered so severely from my back at times, I could hardly get about. When I got down, I had to take hold of something before I could straighten. Sharp pains often caught me across my kidneys and for a minute I couldn't move, the pains were so severe. I couldn't rest well, my back ached so badly. I tried different remedies, but nothing did me any good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Three boxes overcame that awful misery in my back and made me feel like a different person."

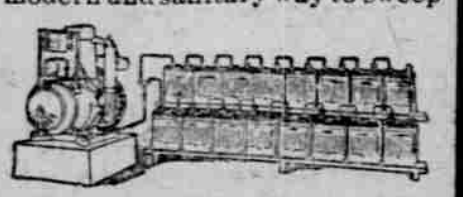

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cummings had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

CAPTAIN DUNN IN CITY.

L. C. Dunn of Omaha, formerly a prominent resident of Glenwood, and captain of Co. I, 168th infantry, a part of the famous Rainbow division, was in the city yesterday for the day looking after some business affairs. Captain Dunn has dropped back into the civilian life and is engaged in selling a special moving picture machine for use in the public schools. The captain has had a notable experience in the great war as his company was constantly in service from the time of its arrival in France in the winter of 1917 until the return home in the last part of April this year. There were a number of young men from this city enlisted in the personnel of Co. I, and served under Captain Dunn.

EVERYTHING COMING FINE

From Friday's Daily. The writer met C. A. Rawls last evening and observed a more-than-busy appearance about his movements. Inquiring how the homecoming celebration arrangements are progressing we learned that things are moving along fine. Mr. Rawls had a bundle of letters, one of which is being sent to each ex-service man in the county—personal invitations to attend the gala-da event in this city next Saturday. Of course, as is always the case, there will be a few soldiers within the confines of the county whose addresses are not in the hands of the mailing committee, and who therefore will not receive one of these letters, but that is no sign they will not be as welcome as the rest. The affair is being arranged for all ex-service men and women and it is hoped everyone will participate in the good time provided for them.
