ENTERTANS FOR THE BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Wm. A. Robertson Hostess at Charming 6 O'Clock Dinner in Honor of Miss Dovey.

From Monday's Daily. Among the social entertainments of the week-end one of the most delightful was that given by Mrs. William A. Robertson at her beautiful home on North Sixth street in honor of Miss Claire Jane Dovey, whose marriage to Mr. Jay Brown of Cleveland, Ohio, is to be solemnized on Wednesday, October 1st.

The occasion was a very charming 6 o'clock dinner, covers being laid for eight. The handsome dining room was very cleverly arranged in a unique decorative scheme, the decorations partaking of the business interests of the groom to be, that of traffic manager of the telephone lines of Cleveland. To fully carry out this clever idea the center piece of the elaborately arranged table was a miniature telephone pole with its warning signs of "post no bills" and giving a very realistic touch to the scene. From the pole to the sides of the room tiny telephone wires strewn with hearts were suspended, while from the center piece a wire was placed to each of the guests' places and these were also covered with the tiny crimson hearts. At each place miniature telephones of glass filled with candy were placed as favors of the dinner while beneath each telephone was found a message to the bride-elect. The guests were requested to find their places by the consulting of a miniature telephone directory in which each of the guests had been assigned a number. The dinner was most delightful in every way and the guests felt that time was indeed fast flying while in the enjoyment of the very pleasant occasion.

At the close of the evening of rare pleasure it was expressed to the guests of honor the feeling of the friends for the enjoyment of the years before her in the new home she is to soon become mistress of.

PASSES SEVENTY-FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Thomas Wiles Honored on Occasion of 74th Birthday by Grand Army and the W. R. C. Ladies.

From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday was the seventy-fourth birthday anniversary of Thomas Wiles, one of the old and highly respected citizens of the community and in honor of the occasion Mrs. Wiles invited the members of the Grand Army and the Woman's Relief Corps to the Wiles home to assist the guest of honor in suitably observing the happy event. The members of these two patriotic organizations joined in the presentation to Mr. Wiles of a beautiful silk emblem of the greatest country on earth, which he had so splendidly served under the days of 61-65 and which he can long treasure as a token of the dear friends of the two organizations. One of the delightful features of the party was the birthday cake prepared by Mrs. H. C. Leopold, which was very artistic as well as delicious. The cake bore on it the seventy-four candles in token of the occasion and these candles were formed in the shape of the stripes and stars of the national flag in red, white and blue and made a most beautiful picture. During the afternoon a short and most enjoyable program was given. Mrs. L. L. Pickett furnishing a number of readings of a patriotic nature while the ladies of the relief corps sang the songs that were the favorites of the guest of honor. Mrs. L. W. Scott serving as the accompanist for the vocal numbers. At a suitable hour Mrs. Wiles assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ted Wiles served very dainty refreshments which were much enjoyed and it was the general expression of the guests that they might be given the privilege of many more such happy gatherings with Mr. Wiles in the future.

ANDY SCHMARDER HAS NAVY BELTS

Trophys of His Career as a Boxer in the U. S. Navy Exhibited at the Store of Jess F. Warga.

From Tuesday's Daily. That Andrew Schmarder of Louisville is the unchallenged heavyweight champion of the United States navy is verified in the fact that this husky young Cass county sailor lad has the goods with him in the shape of the belts which he has been awarded for his work in the squared area. The belts are now on exhibition in the window of the store of J. F. Warga and are most priceless to the holder of the heavyweight champion. One of the belts is a beautiful gold belt presented to Mr. Schmarder as the champion heavyweight of the United States Atlantic fleet while the other is presented by "Our Navy" magazine to the young scrapper as the heavyweight champion of the United States navy. Andy is to be with us on Home Coming day and will demonstrate his skill in boxing in his match with Harry Williams of Omaha and the lovers of the art of manly defense will be given a clever exhibition of this sport.

TO ESTABLISH GREER CAMP.

From Tuesday's Daily. The Burlington management are arranging for the opening of a "Greer Camp" in this city and for the purpose of rooming and boarding extra men who are brought in here for work in the shops and particularly in the store department. The residence property near the shop gate will be used for this purpose and here the men will be fed and boarded during their stay. These camps are operated by the Greer company of Kansas City who have a string of over 100 on the Burlington system caring for the men employed at different points on the lines of this railroad.

FRANK BLOTZER IMPROVING.

Frank Blotzer, Jr., was in the city today and for the first time in two weeks as he has been confined to his home suffering from a very severe cold and also from an attack of pleurisy. The many friends of this estimable young man were much pleased to see him back on the job and to learn that he was feeling much improved.

INCREASE OF RATES GRANTED.

From Tuesday's Daily. An increase of rates for the Farmers Mutual Telephone company of Avoca has been granted by the state railway commission. This company does only a switching business and has been charging 50c a month to subscribers in town and 25c to those in the country. It is desired to charge twenty-five cents additional to both classes. This request is granted by the state commission. The telephone company had a net profit of $16.82 in 1918. With the increased expenses already arranged for, not allowing anything for an increase in material and certain classes of labor the estimated deficit is more than $600 a year. The new rates and toll charges will bring an additional revenue of $2,024.

PACIFIC JUNCTION PHYSICIAN LEAVES HOME BAREFOOTED

From Monday's Daily. Omaha police were last night urged to help locate Dr. L. B. Bacon 57 years old, of Pacific Junction, Ia., who disappeared partially clad from his home on the night of September 12.

Willis W. Boyle, cashier of a bank in Pacific Junction, came to central police station and left a description of Dr. Bacon.

"Dr. Bacon was barefooted when he took a train for Omaha," Boyle said. "He had no hat nor coat. We imagined then that some homemade wine he had been drinking went to his head and that he would turn up at home again in a day or so. He has not been heard of since. He has been the leading physician in Pacific Junction for more than 30 years. The whole town is concerned about his disappearance."

Dr. Bacon is 5 feet 10 inches tall. He weighs 150 pounds and wears a moustache.—Omaha Bee.
