WELCOME PASTOR FOR SECOND YEAR

Community Service Marks Return of Rev. L. Morrison to Pastorate of M. E. Church.

In appreciation of his co-worker, Rev. L. Morrison, of the Methodist church, Rev. J. B. Taylor of the Baptist church of this city instituted a move last week for extending a welcome to Mr. Morrison and family on the occasion of their return to the local pastorate to labor another year with us. The community service idea was grasped by the numerous friends of both pastors, and an excellent program was prepared for the reception, which was held Sunday evening at the Baptist church. It proved to be one of the most enjoyable as well as most beneficial services ever held in the city. The program was arranged to include a number of leading citizens of the town, but on account of some of them being out of the city they were unable to participate. The regular music was had, which was always par-addresses were made by Rev. L. Morrison, Rev. J. B. Taylor, Supt. McDonald of the city schools, Dr. Swab and Hon. W. B. Banning. The church auditorium was filled to the limit of its capacity and each of the speakers expressed appreciation of the good feeling which prompted the meeting, and of the good work which Rev. Morrison has done in the year just passed.

Tony Saddath, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Union for over Sunday, being a guest at the home of his sister.

Harry H. Baxter, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union last Monday, where he was looking after some business for a short time.

Earl Payton and wife have removed to Plattsmouth, where Mr. Payton has accepted a position, and they will make their home there.

Jay Austin has just got started in the restaurant on lower Main street, and he reports business coming along very satisfactorily and increasing every day.

Laney Potts and wife are expected to arrive in Union from their former home near Bolivar, Mo., in a few days and will make their home here in the future.

Clarence Mason and John McCrory were spending Sunday at their homes in Plattsmouth, returning to resume their work here on the midnight train Sunday night.

Edward Fullerton, the barber who has been working with Ira Clark, has accepted a position in a barber shop in the county seat and began work there a few days ago.

Mrs. R. D. Stinebaugh has been visiting at Jacksonville, Mo., for the past two weeks, a guest at the home of her uncle, John Goddard, is expected home the last of this week.

Miss Lydia Clark was a visitor with friends in Auburn for a few days last week, returning home last Sunday morning. She has been enjoying the occasion of her visit with old time friends greatly.

The Stottler brothers, Carey and Loren, are closing up their business here as rapidly as they can, and are making preparations for their departure for the west, where they will make their home in the future.

Farker Chriswiser, of Havelock, was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday, at the home of his brother, C. W. Chriswiser, who brought him to Union to catch the afternoon train for Plattsmouth, where he went to visit with their mother before returning to his home at Havelock.

Thomas McQuinn, who some time ago injured his hand so severely while placing a hay rack on a wagon reports the member as getting along nicely, and he is able to work again. He has had the Journal placed on his reading list, and it will pay him regular visits in the future.

Sickness at the home of John Hoback, Jr., is not coming single handed, as Mrs. Hoback has been seriously ill for some time, as has also been their little son, both being confined to their beds for several days. They were attended by Dr. Darrett, who had in consultation a physician from Nebraska City.

It is seldom that one complains of too much business, but W. O. Burbee told that if business kept increasing, he will have to have another building in which to place the cars upon which he and his brother, Herbert, are called to work. Here's to you Billie, we hope you will be kept busy.

Homer Campbell and wife, of Fairplay, Mo., arrived in Union last Sunday, and will make their home here in the future. They are coming to accept a position on a farm, where they will reside. They come here well recommended as being the best of citizens, and are stopping at the home of George Osborne for a short time.

We neglected to mention the trip of R. D. Stine to the Gulf coast of Texas, last week, where he was called on a matter of business and where he also went to look the country over. He reports that the south presents a beautiful appearance and seems prosperous. The reason we missed his return was that he got off on the wrong side of the train.

Conductor Perry, who has charge of the passenger train between Lincoln and Union on the Missouri Pacific, an who with his wife has been enjoying a trip to the east, where they spent a vacation, returned last Monday via Union, to their home in the capital city. Mr. Perry, who is a most excellent seaman, as well as an efficient railroad man, is again on the job punching the pasteboards between here and Lincoln.

SURPRISE FRIEND ON HIS BIRTHDAY

Friends of Ed (Whittie) Shaw Make Merry on Occasion of Passing of His 48th Milestone.

Last Saturday evening at the home of Edward Shaw and C. H. Fuller, who reside together in Mr. Shaw's house, the many friends of Mr. Shaw gathered for a surprise upon this jovial and genial citizen of Union, it being the occasion of his 48th birthday. The number of those in attendance almost equaled the number of years he has lived on this mundane sphere of existence and the evening was spent in listening to piano and gramophone music, while conversation continued, the topic of discussion including almost every conceivable matter in the minds of the public at the present time. The friends fittingly celebrated the important event in the life of Mr. Shaw by presenting him with a gold ring to signify their appreciation of his friendship and sterling manhood. Mr. Shaw has resided in Union for the past few years and during this time he has made many friends. He was born at Bedford, Iowa, and has during the years of his majority been engaged most of the time as an advertising or advance agent for traveling entertainments.

Made Trip to North Part of State. George Eaton and wife, with their daughter, Mrs. Lena Thacker, were visiting in the northern part of the state during the past week and a portion of this. They drove up in the car of Mr. Eaton and enjoyed the trip greatly, visiting with Lon Crawford at Hartington while there.

Have Organized Basket Ball Team. The young men of the Union schools have organized a basket ball team and will be ready in a short time to take on contests with the other schools of the county or outside of it, for honors. The personnel of the team as now constituted includes Herbert Larue and Hilton Banning, forwards; William Pearley, center; Duke and Harry Garrison, guards and Clifford Garrison and Harold Frans, substitutes. They have not as yet elected their officers.

More About Lost Silver Mine. George Eaton received a letter addressed to Gabe Austin last Monday in which Miss Magnolia Manning, the daughter of one of his partners, who is working on the mine near Sour Mile, Kentucky, states that they have the dirt sufficiently removed to show the opening of the mine, and that they have ceased further operations until Mr. Eaton shall arrive. He does not care to go, however, until they have entered the old shaft and ascertained if there are silver deposits of sufficient quantity to be valuable from a mining standpoint. He expects an abundance of silver, but thinks all the coined metal has probably disappeared.

Will Make Home at Nehawka. Hobart Blake of Muck Port, Indiana, who has but recently returned from overseas, where he was in service for several months, arrived here last Monday and was met by his brother, James Blake, of Nehawka, they continuing on to Nehawka, where Hobart will make his home, having accepted a position in the plant of the Sheldon Manufacturing company. The young men had not seen each other since they were children until their meeting last Monday.

Prof. E. A. Ward spent last Sunday at the home of his parents at Plattsmouth and returned on Sunday evening to take up his work here again.

Miss Alice Crozier, of the Union schools was a visitor over the week end at the home of her parents in Weeping Water.

Miss Grace Bogenrief, of the Union schools spent last Sunday at her home in Elmwood, returning to resume her teaching work her Monday morning.

John Armstrong is one of the new readers of the Journal, and will receive the paper twice a week in the future.

RETURN FROM PENDER. From Wednesday's Daily. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. John Cory returned home from Pender, Nebraska, where they have been for the past few days visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edward Brantner and family. They were called to Pender by the serious illness of their great grandson, Nathan Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chase and report the little lad as being slightly improved when they left but still in a serious condition. The mother of the little lad is a grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cory, having formerly been Miss Janet Brantner.

HAS ARM BROKEN. From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon while Fred McCauley was engaged in cranking the truck that is used for delivery of ice from the plant here, he was unfortunate enough to have the right forearm broken at the wrist. The engine had failed to respond to the attempts to start it and Mr. McCauley was spinning it over to try and get it started when it backfired and the crank struck his wrist inflicting a very severe fracture. The injured man was at once hurried to

Will Add Domestic Science. The Union schools will have in addition to the subjects heretofore taught, two other branches. They are domestic science and manual training. With this addition there will be another instructor added to the present able corps of teachers. Just who will be selected to teach the additional work has not been made definitely known.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO PLATTSMOUTH. Saturday, October 4th, when Homecoming Affair will be Staged—Many from Here Going.

All roads lead to Plattsmouth Saturday when the big homecoming celebration for soldiers, sailors, marines and Red Cross nurses will be staged at the county seat. Gigantic preparations are being made to accommodate the crowds and everything will be free to the soldiers, including meals. The big athletic carnival will be a feature of the entertainment worth while. The main six round bout will be between Seaman Andy Schwarder, of Louisville, champion pugilist of the U. S. navy, and Harry Williams, of Omaha, a well known fighter of the middle west and ex-soldier. A large dance platform, 70x70—the biggest ever erected in Cass county will occupy an intersection on the main street, and a sixteen piece orchestra will take up to the land of jazz. Free outdoor attractions, free moving picture shows, and an abundance of music will be provided throughout the day and evening. One of the bands to be present will be the 20th Infantry band, from Fort Crook, known as "Fershing's Band." The city will be ablaze with decorations and everybody is going in for one grand big time. The closing of the Ak-Sar-Ben will leave many anxious for the bit of amusement thus denied them, and there will never be a better place or time to indulge in it than at Plattsmouth Saturday, October 4th.

Notice. There will be a meeting of the East Union Cemetery Association at Becker's hall, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Everyone interested should be present.

Reception For Soldiers. A reception was given on Friday evening, September 25th by the members of the Epworth League in honor of the returned soldiers of the league. A party of forty young people assembled at the M. E. church where an interesting program was given, consisting of instrumental and vocal solos, speeches and readings. At an appointed hour the guests were ushered to Miss Elsie Taylor's home where a very pleasant evening was spent in games and in having a good time in general. Later a very delicious course was served after which we were again led out into the night to the home of Miss Jessie Todd. Here we were again served to a very pretty course of good things to eat and delightfully entertained by Victrola music. At a late hour the guests departed having had a most delightful time.

Frank Boggs has his up-town restaurant in running order and is doing a fine business, as he is also doing in the lunch room on lower Main street, opposite the depot. He has recently placed a new sign over the lunch counter that looms up big. Frank is a progressive fellow and is always on the lookout to devise means of increasing his trade.

Robert Willis has just placed an order for a large number of Fisk tires, his choice brand, and he is now ready for any rush which may come his way.

Wm. Fenton, warden of the Nebraska state penitentiary, at Lincoln, together with his family were visitors in Union for a short time last Monday, while on their way home from a visit at Falls City, where they had been spending a few days at their former place of residence. They did not find the roads in the best of condition as a result of the heavy rain Saturday night, and Mr. Fenton placed the family on the train here, bound for Lincoln, while he continued on his way with the car himself.

Standing the Test of Time

—The continued earning power of a corporation over a long period of years is the factor of utmost importance to the wise investor.

—The Fairmont Creamery Company has been in successful and continuous operation since 1884 and has grown to be the second largest creamery company in the world. During the past five years, this company has added to its surplus out of net earnings, over $800,000.00, which proves its conservative management. It has stood the "test of time," having paid sixty-seven consecutive dividends on its preferred stock and having at all times earned these dividends by a large margin.

—We own and offer with our unqualified endorsement, $500,000.00 of this "time tested" preferred stock at 100 and accrued dividends to yield

SURE SOME DANCE PLATFORM—80X80

The Largest Open Air Platform for Dancing Ever Erected in Cass County—Good Music.

The committee in charge of the big dance for homecoming day has completed the plans for the erection of the big platform which will be eighty feet square and furnish room for two hundred couples to step during the hours of the big celebration. The platform will be erected at the intersection of Main and Fifth streets and its size will make it necessary to overlap the corners of the sidewalks. The big orchestra will be stationed in the center of the platform and will discourse the snappy, jazzy music for the dancers. The service men and their ladies will dance to their heart's content, and without any charge whatever as it is part of the big free entertainment to the boys.
