BYRON ARRIES IS HOME FOR GOOD

Receives Discharge from Marines and Returns to Plattsmouth—Had Long Service

From Thursday's Daily.

This afternoon, Byron Arries returned home to this city, having received his discharge from the service of the United States as a member of the Marine corps. This terminates a service of over two years for Byron, and during which time he has had some very exciting experiences, being a member of the 2nd division marines which operated with the infantry regiments in the battles of Chateau Thierry and during the heavy fighting of last August and September in the various fronts in the Champagne and Lorraine sectors.

Byron was wounded on two separate occasions and recovering from the first injuries received in June was in the fighting in October in which he received a very severe wound that kept him from further participation in the war. Returning home in July of this year, Byron enjoyed a furlough until the 1st of September when he was ordered to report at the Marine base hospital at Hampton Roads, Virginia, where it was expected to operate on the injured leg of the young man, which had been broken by a machine gun bullet, but on examination it was decided that this would not be necessary as the young man has recovered the full use of the injured member.

On his discharge Byron enjoyed a short stay in Cincinnati, where he took in several of the world series ball games and visited with a few of the old "buddies."

CARNAHAN GAINS TWENTY POUNDS

Although 69 Years of Age He Works Like He Did Thirty Years Ago—Tanlac Builds Him Up.

"If I had not found Tanlac I don't believe I would be alive today," said J. W. Carnahan of 1414 Third street, South, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in relating his remarkable experience with the medicine, recently.

"Last October," he continued, "I went to Nitro, West Virginia, to work in the ammunition plant and as they were paying extra good wages I got greedy, overworked myself and broke down. Until that time I had never suffered from any serious illness, but now my stomach was all out of order and I was so run down that I couldn't work without just playing out completely. I never wanted anything to eat and what little I did force down gave me trouble.

"I have never had much faith in medicines, especially the advertised kinds, and never took two dollars worth in all my life. But after reading what others said Tanlac had done for them I got a bottle and it certainly is wonderful how quickly the right medicine will get a person to feeling right again. I had not taken but a few doses of Tanlac until that knotty feeling left my stomach and I began to straighten right up. The medicine has put me in shape to where I have actually gained twenty pounds in weight, and, although I am sixty-nine years old I can do as much work as I could thirty years ago.

"Today I shoveled dirt over a nine foot wall for five hours, unloaded cement for two hours, then started unloading lumber, and came home feeling all O. K. I can eat just anything I want and lots of it and then get hungry between meals, and nothing I eat gives me the least trouble. I want to emphasize the fact that I have not had an ache nor a pain since right soon after I commenced taking Tanlac. I simply feel like years have been added to my life. I expect to always keep a bottle of Tanlac on hand. It beats anything in the way of medicine I have ever seen or heard of and I recommend it to all my friends when I hear them complaining of not feeling well."

Here is another instance of the remarkable reconstructive powers of Tanlac. Mr. Carnahan is only one of many thousands who have taken it with the same wonderful results. Tanlac proved of great benefit to him because it contains certain medicinal properties which enrich the blood and promote a healthy appetite for nourishing food. Tanlac has been very successful in overcoming nervousness and sleeplessness, not from a quieting effect on the nerves, for it has no such effect, but by strengthening the nerves and bringing back the normal state of health through its effect on the appetite and nutrition of the body.

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke & Co., in Alvo by Alvo Drug Co., in Avoca by O. E. Copes, in South Bend by E. Sturzenegger, in Greenwood by E. F. Smith, in Weeping Water by Meier Drug Co., in Elmwood by L. A. Tyson, in Murdock by H. V. McDonald, in Louisville by Blake's Pharmacy, in Eagle by F. W. Bloemenkamp, in Union by E. W. Keedy, in Nehawka by D. D. Adams and in Murray by Meier Drug Co.

ONE OF ELMWOOD'S FIRST CITIZENS DEAD

Died in California on Thursday of Last Week—Burial to be at Elmwood on Tuesday.

From Friday's Daily.

Word reached this city the first of the week by Henry Clapp, Sr., announcing the death of his brother, C. D. Clapp, which occurred at Los Angeles, California, on Thursday of last week. Mr. Clapp had been in ill health for some time but not seriously until a week or so ago when his son, Willard was sent for and who went immediately to be with his father in his sickness, but it seems that his condition became gradually worse until the end came on last Thursday.

It seems as though he had been suffering from a carbuncle on the back of his neck which was very severe and caused him much suffering and pain. Everything was done for him that could be done but to no avail. He was past 73 years of age and seemed to have a number of years before him until he became afflicted with the trouble that caused his death.

Mr. Clapp is one of the best known men in Cass county and in fact is well known throughout the entire state. He is the foremost citizen of Elmwood, having been allied with the business interests as well as in politics and in a public way so that he has done much in helping to frame the history of the town.

Mr. Clapp was a man of industry and perseverance and had accumulated a snug fortune, becoming the owner of many acres of Cass county's best land. The land which he owned just east of town he chose for his home and improved and beautified it in many ways until it was one of the finest in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Clapp have been spending their winters in California in recent years and for the past year and a half have been making their home at 653 South Burlington Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.

The deceased leaves his wife, son Willard and other relatives and many friends to mourn his demise.

The remains will be brought to Elmwood for burial.

A telegram received on Wednesday stated that the remains of Mr. Clapp would arrive here on Monday of next week and that funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon.

The services will be held from the Christian church at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in the Elmwood cemetery.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL AUCTIONEER

Col. W. R. Young, of Murray, Although a Young Man, Has Acquired Envyable Success

From Friday's Daily.

This morning Rex Young returned home from a trip out in the state, where he has been looking after a number of sales in different localities and has had a very successful trip as his sales have been large and the stock offered brought a fine price which was very gratifying both to Mr. Young and the owner of the stock.

At Brunswick, Nebraska, Mr. Young was auctioneer at a large sale of Duroc hogs, seventy-six head being offered for sale and the buying was keen among the hog raisers present. The hogs brought on an average of $90 per head and all were disposed of through the efforts of Mr. Young. He also conducted a stock sale at Venango, Nebraska, at which 282 head of cattle and fifty-two head of horses were placed on sale, some of the animals bringing over $100 each on the block. The successful handling of the sale by Mr. Young was largely responsible for the excellent price secured and the owners who have secured Mr. Young for service as auctioneer are well pleased.

This young and able auctioneer has been in the business for a number of years and his success has been continuous since the time he first took up this line of work and his ability is constantly increasing in the methods of handling the different classes of sales which he is called upon to conduct. He has a number of hog and stock sales in this section of the state in the near future.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY MET

From Thursday's Daily.

The Presbyterian Ladies Auxiliary met Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors with Mesdames Monte Streight, F. G. Morgan and Dickson as hostesses. The ladies had spent much time and labor in decorating the church with a profusion of most beautiful Autumn leaves and flowers. That their efforts were appreciated, was attested by the exclamations of pleasure heard on every side.

After an interesting business session, in which plans were completed for the rummage sale to be held November 12th, the ladies enjoyed a pleasant hour in sewing and conversation.

At a suitable hour the hostesses served delicious refreshments and the ladies departed declaring their hostesses splendid entertainers.

CAR STOLEN AT AUBURN

From Saturday's Daily.

Sheriff C. D. Quinton received a message this morning from Sheriff Davis of Nemaha county announcing that a Ford touring car had been stolen yesterday afternoon at Auburn and asking that the sheriff seek the missing car in this locality.

The stealing of the car was a very bold piece of work, as it was left standing on the street for just a few minutes when someone grabbed it off and disappeared with it.

The Nemaha county officials are of the opinion that the car was taken to Omaha for disposal in that city, which has become a sort of port of missing automobiles, and where they are stripped of all identification and disposed of.

BEAUTIFYING OF SHOP AVENUE PROPOSED

COMMERCIAL CLUB DISCUSSING MATTER—HOPE TO MAKE IT PRETTY DRIVE.

MAY BE PAVED BEFORE LONG

Nearness to Burlington Shops Makes Desirable the Erection of New Homes Along Street.

From Thursday's Daily.

One of the topics which is being discussed by the Commercial club of the city as a part of the plan to improve the appearance of Platts-mouth, has to deal with the beautifying of Lincoln avenue from its junction with Third street out to the end of the avenue.

This street is one that has a great deal of travel and it certainly has not kept pace with the other avenues of the city in the last few years and there is little reason for this seeming neglect, especially as this artery of travel is the closest to the Burlington shops and where residences of employes of the shops would certainly be very handy for the men.

In years past the property along the avenue has been allowed to become run down as the owners of a large number of the places have not kept their residence property in shape so that it presents the attractive appearance it should.

It is only a question of a very short time until the paving of this avenue will be taken up and then it will be one of the most desirable streets in the city. The nearness of the shops makes it a handy place for a home for the employes of the Burlington and if a system of uniform and trim dwelling houses was erected along the street it would be a very profitable investment as well as add much to the general appearance of that portion of the city. The residents of that section of town should make it a point of pride that Lincoln avenue becomes one of the prettiest driveways in the city during the coming season and that the unsightly appearances should be avoided in the property and surroundings. Cultivate lawns, plant

Glen Perry came up this afternoon from his home near Murray and left on the afternoon train for Omaha, where he will accompany his little daughter, Helene, home from the St. Joseph hospital, where she has been for the past ten days. The little daughter was taken to Omaha suffering with a severe case of appendicitis and was operated on with the best of results and is now able to return home feeling greatly improved again.

Rebuilt Overcoats

Why pay $75.00 to $100.00 for a new overcoat when I can rebuild your old one for a fraction of the price of a new one. After having it repaired, cleaned and pressed you've got practically a new coat at a nominal price. I am dyeing a great many army overcoats in navy blue, dark brown and black. They dye nicely. Look over your winter clothes now and have them put in shape to wear.
