ANNUNCEMENT

We wish to announce to the hog raisers of this vicinity that the hogs we will offer at our sale at Bartlett, lowa, on Wednesday, October 22nd, 1919, are sired by the most famous Sires in the Poland-China world and the Dames are the same quality.

We are featuring a litter of Big Bone Leader, the boar that was placed above the Grand Champion at the 1918 Swine Show by many competent judges and their judgment has been upheld by his wonderful litters.

We are also presenting a litter by Long Model Bob, a son of Big Bob, a son of the famous Boar that Fred Seivers sold to Wm. Scar, and after he developed so wonderfully, Seivers tried to buy him back, but was able to buy only a half interest in him and featuring him in his fall sale.

This litter is out of a Smooth Jones Gilt that has developed into a wonderful animal.

The other Boars and Gilts are out of justly famous sires and dams and meet with your approval.

THE WORLDS NEED-WORK

In the enforced absence of President Wilson, it fell to Secretary of cluding women, children, the Labor Wilson to make the keynote address to the national labor conference which met at Washington on which it brings about .--- World-Her-Monday. The secretary stood on ald. sound ground in advocating increased production and more direct distribution as the means to a restoration of a reasonable cost of living, and in that, regardless of detailed issues of the relations of capital and labor, he should have the support of every delegate to the conference. Secretary Wilson said:

"The more productive we are, the nificance_of the reservation is be sooner we will replace the wastage of war, return to normal price levels and abolish the opportunity for profiteering.
