POSTMASTERS OF NATION SEEK RAISE

With Increasing Amount of Work and High Cost of Living a Salary Increase Urged

From Friday's Daily. The second class postmasters of the state gathered at Lincoln yesterday for the purpose of organizing to present to the special congressional committee the need of the postmasters for an increase in salary that would enable them to keep within sight of the increasing cost of living and especially as their duties are being enlarged constantly while the salary remains the same.

Postmaster D. C. Morgan of this city was at the meeting and was drafted together with Postmaster Lodi of Wahoo and Postmaster Grosvenor, of Aurora, to prepare a brief setting forth the claims of the postmasters and their grounds for seeking an increase in salary.

at which time the brief of the Nebraska postmasters will be presented to the commission for action.

DOCTORS AGREE WILSON BETTER

Washington, Oct. 12.—While President Wilson is believed by his physicians to be on the road to recovery, the process will be slow and tedious. The president, it was reiterated today at the white house, must resign himself to strict observance of the physicians' orders to put aside all thought of his office while convalescing and remain in bed until danger of a relapse has passed.

L. F. Terryberry departed this afternoon for Omaha where he goes to visit with Mrs. Terryberry, who is at the Immanuel hospital awaiting to be operated upon.

OVER THE COUNTY

NEHAWKA News

Alfred Anderson, one of the two Nehawka boys yet with Uncle Sam's army forces, arrived in New York September 20th. He is expected home the latter part of this month.

Rev. Jacobson, pastor of the Nehawka U. B. church, was in attendance at the U. B. conference held at Geneva last week. His friends will be glad to know the conference re-assigned him to this charge.

Rev. Krom and family expect to move the coming week to Marquette, Nebraska, where he will be pastor of the U. B. church the coming year. There are numerous friends here who will regret this family's departure.

Mrs. Fern McBride-Holmes, who has been visiting relatives in Omaha, came down to Nehawka Sunday in company with Hugh Warden and family and the Misses Kate and Fannie Warden, who drove up that day for a short visit with John McBride. Mrs. Holmes until recently, has lived at Mitchell, S. D., but she and her husband are soon to locate permanently at Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Holmes has accepted a salary of $5000.00 per year as sales-manager for the Oliver Plow Co.

A Nehawka man has made another touchdown, thereby keeping Nehawka prominently in the mind of the world as the place of big men and their accomplishments.

The man who made the touchdown is playing the game as a breeder of the world's best Hampshires, and of course, is none other than our unassuming citizen, R. C. Pollard. Mr. Pollard has had a wonderful sale of Hampshires this spring and summer, and the touchdown consists of having shipped his Hampshires to buyers in twenty-seven states since the first of January, 1919. But the sad part of it all is the fact that the average hog raiser in this community can't see the difference or won't admit there is a difference between the class of hogs he raises than those of Mr. Pollard or any other reliable breeder.

LOUISVILLE Courier

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Osenkop in the country has been saddened by the birth of a little daughter, who arrived last Sunday, October 1, 1919.

J. M. Hoover brought an elk's horn to the Courier office last week, which had been dug out while digging a ditch to straighten Mill creek south of town. It is in a perfect state of preservation and no doubt has laid buried there since elk, buffalo and deer roamed at will over this part of the "Great American Desert."

Mrs. Mary Ragoss, had planned to leave this week for a visit with her son, Julius and family, in Oklahoma, but on account of the illness of her brother, Henry Ahl, she has postponed her trip indefinitely. Mr. Ahl has been a great sufferer from rheumatism but we are pleased to report that he is improving considerably at present.

The many friends of Ernest Myers will be pleased to learn that he is to be discharged from the military service in the near future. He is now in a military hospital in Fort Bayard, New Mexico, because of a weakness of the lungs contracted while in service overseas, but his condition is so much better that he will be able to return home.

W. J. Rau, cashier of the Manley State Bank, was in town Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Rau returned last week from a three weeks' outing at Colorado Springs, where Mr. Rau went to recuperate and to get rid of a severe case of hay fever. He is looking fine and says he was much benefited by the change of climate.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

Elder D. A. Youtsey left on Wednesday for Cincinnati, Ohio, where he will make a short visit.

The Paul Bornemeier family returned last week from an auto trip to Julesburg, Kansas, and other points.

J. P. Rouse and daughter, Mrs. O. D. Quilhorst, of Alvo, were Elmwood visitors Tuesday, the former to attend to some insurance business, and the latter for a short visit with Mrs. George Blessing.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Neely and Edwin Jeary, of Lincoln, were Elmwood visitors on Tuesday. Mr. Jeary made this office a very pleasant visit. Mr. Jeary and wife are contemplating a trip to Florida this winter. They have sold their fine residence in Lincoln and are making their home at the Windsor hotel now.

One day the latter part of last week Frank Daugherty and family motored to Omaha in their Ford car and left it, and upon their return the car was gone. An effort was made to locate it but without result. The conclusion is that the car was stolen. The car was a practically new Ford. Up to the present time the car has not been located. The car was insured against theft.

On Wednesday morning, William Hayes, Henry Hayes, Wm. Cook and Wm. Mendenhall all returned from a visit to Grant, Nebraska, where they looked over the country. They saw Henry and Frank Stege and say they like it there. They also saw Albert Alford. Albert is up to his chin in work and they say he did the cooking for 52 the day they saw him. They like the country and say that those there are well satisfied.

Charles S. Stone, president of the bank of Steamboat Springs this week purchased the L. W. McFadden ranch four miles northwest of Steamboat, in the Slate creek neighborhood. The ranch is a splendid producer of hay and grain.—Steamboat Springs (Colorado) Pilot. Charley is right up in the banking business and is reaching out some. We are glad to see him moving along in such fine shape.

WEEPING WATER Republican

John Jones was home from Camp Dodge Friday. John expected to get his discharge Monday and leave for Minnesota and the Dakotas on a five months' tour with an Army Glee club filling dates for the Redpath Lyceum Bureau.

Charley Bill went to Omaha Wednesday and brought home Mrs. Bill, who has been at a hospital the last three weeks and underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Bill was glad to get home. She is not well yet but it is hoped she will speedily improve.

I. W. Teegarden sold his home last week to Mark E. Wiles of near Manley. Mr. Wiles has rented his farm and with his wife and daughter will take possession of the new home after March 1st, 1920. The selling of this home probably means that Weeping Water will lose the Teegardens, although I. W. says no definite plans are made, but the family has symptoms of California fever at times.

A. Anderson sold his stock business and the property consisting of the house and stock yards to George Mark Monday. Mr. Anderson has been doing a good business and handling a lot of stock, but found the work was too much considering his other work. Mr. Mark, who takes over the business the 15th of this month, is an old hand with stock and is well known and has a host of friends and we predict he'll make a success of the business. The present employes, John Wade and Jim Stoner, will continue with their line of work.

The 18th annual session of the Cass county W. C. T. U., which was held here last Thursday was one of the best ever held. All of the numbers on the program were excellent, but the one in which perhaps the most interest was centered, was the address on "What Prohibition Has Accomplished in Nebraska," delivered by Mr. H. H. Antles, former chief of police in Lincoln. Mr. Gus Hyers was also to have been here but was detained in Omaha on account of the riot disturbance there. County officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. Koop, Nehawka; Vice President, Mrs. Banning, Union; Secretary, Mrs. Mary A. K. Harmon, Avoca; Treasurer, Mrs. McFall, of Eagle.

AMERICANIZATION DAY.

The progress that our country has made as a nation has been greatest during those periods when the people made the least departure from the true principles of Americanism. And today I think the greatest danger lies in a tendency on the part of some to confuse the problems of the republic with those of other less desirable forms of government.

EAGLE Beacon

Mrs. Minerva Trimble has put in a cement walk from her front porch to the street, displacing a board walk and improving appearances.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hoffmeister, of Norton, Kansas, are here visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Anna Earl. They will return in about another week.

Dr. and Mrs. Longacre and Mrs. F. W. Bloomenkamp motored to Lincoln Tuesday. The doctor returned in the afternoon, and the ladies remained for the evening show, coming out on the train.

As reported in the last issue of the Beacon, Edward Wenzel died on October 2nd, after a short illness. The funeral was held last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Theo. Norden, of the St.

Rebuilt Overcoats

Why pay $75.00 to $100.00 for a new overcoat when I can rebuild your old one for a fraction of the price of a new one. After having it repaired, cleaned and pressed you've got practically a new coat at a nominal price. I am dyeing a great many army overcoats in navy blue, dark brown and black. They dye nicely. Look over your winter clothes now and have them put in shape to wear.
