10 INDICTED BY AN OMAHA GRAND JURY

FIRST DEGREE MURDER CHARGE AGAINST JAMES SHIELDS AND HARRY JENKINS.

OTHERS HELD FOR ASSAULT

William Francis, "The Boy On Horseback." Released When Father Gives $1,500 Bond.

Omaha, Oct. 22.—George Sutej, 25 years old, living at 3109 South Fourth street, and William Francis, 16 years old, 2603 So. Thirteenth street, indicted by the grand jury in connection with the rioting in Omaha September 28, were released on bonds yesterday afternoon following their arraignment before Judge Redick in district court. These two, with James Sutej, twin brother of George Sutej, were the first persons to be arraigned for alleged complicity in the disorders which resulted in the lynching of Will Brown, negro, death of two others from wounds received in the rioting, and the firing of the court house. All entered pleas of "not guilty."

Sutej was released on two charges on bonds aggregating $2,250. On the charge of unlawful assemblage and rioting a $1,500 bond was exacted, while $750 was posted for his appearance to answer to charge of assault and battery on Robert P. Samardick, a policeman. Roy A. Ralph of the Ralph Printing Co., is his bondsman.

Young Francis, the boy, who is said to have played such a conspicuous part in the mob that erupted about the court house when he appeared several times in his midst, mounted on a white horse, is named jointly with the Sutej brothers in an indictment alleging unlawful assemblage and rioting. His bond also was fixed at $1,500, furnished by his father.

One Is Not Named.

The bondsman who appeared for James Sutej could not qualify, and he was held. The brothers are both pressmen.

In all, ten persons were indicted by the grand jury yesterday. Shortly after noon seven indictments were returned, and just before the night adjournment four more were given out. Only two of the last ones were alleged complicity in the mob violence, so far as is known now. A third was for grand larceny, while the fourth was not made public, the person named not being held in jail yet.

The most serious charge contained in any of the indictments is that of first degree murder against James Shields and Harry Jenkins, 22 years old, (alias Burton Perry Jenkins), the latter being a machinist of Savannah, Ga. They are charged on three counts with having contributed to the murder of Will Brown, the negro. In the first they are alleged to have murdered with revolver shots; the second charges them with having placed the rope about the negro's neck and hanged him while the third count charges that they gave the colored man mortal wounds upon his "head, body, stomach, breast, back and sides," causing his death.

Held as Conspirators.

Shields and Jenkins with Sam Novak, 1914 Grace street, are also charged with conspiracy to commit murder. They, with others, are alleged to have armed themselves with "guns, revolvers, clubs, stones, ropes and other weapons" and that they did "besiege, attack, set fire to and break and enter" the court house "to forcibly get possession" of the negro. The indictment also alleges that they induced others to do same acts.

Two were indicted for firing the court house building, the specific charge being arson. They are Shields, who lives at 3021 South Twenty-third street, and Henry Louis Weaver, 1527 North Seventeenth street.

For unlawful assemblage and rioting four persons are named, William Francis, George Sutej, and James Sutej are jointly included in one indictment, while Eli Snyder, a 16-year-old boy living at 3027 Valley street is charged with the same crime in a separate indictment.

Two persons are charged with carrying concealed weapons during the rioting. One of these is Lester Price, a 16-year-old orphan boy, making his home at 2226 Seward street. The other is Leonard Weber, an artist, living at 3250 South Nineteenth street. Weber is married and 23 years old.

HAS AUTOMOBILE MIX UP.

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon Fred G. Egenberger, the real estate dealer, had a very serious automobile accident on Chicago avenue and as a result his car will be out of commission for several days. Mr. Egenberger was traveling south along the avenue and when near the intersection of Tenth street and the avenue he approached the oil truck operated by Jack Darrell. As Mr. Egenberger came up behind the truck he thought that the truck was slowing down for a stop and he started to pull out to one side to pass and as he did so the driver of the truck also started to turn out and the result was that a collision was inevitable and Mr. Egenberger ran his car up onto the curb in the hope of being able to avoid a smash up but a portion of his car crashed into the oil truck with the result that the radiator and the front fenders of the car of Mr. Egenberger were badly mashed up and will require some time before they can be put in proper shape.

NEED OF CENSUS TAKERS.

From Wednesday's Daily. Fred Hellier of Nebraska City, supervisor of the census for the first district of Nebraska, was in the city yesterday for a few hours looking over the local situation and endeavoring to get in touch with parties who might be interested in taking up the work of gathering the census in Cass county. The responses to the call for census enumerators has not been as satisfactory as had been hoped for by Mr. Hellier and he is very desirous of having the county well covered by competent persons who will see that the right kind of a canvass is made of the different precincts. Mr. Hellier is a live wire and will see that the first district census is taken in the proper manner and it will be the first time that a really correct return has been secured. Plattsmouth has had an unfortunate experience with the census takers and it is hoped that this coming census will be taken in a manner that will give the correct number of people residing in the city. Supervisor Hellier will gladly supply all information and blanks to parties interested in taking up the work by writing him at Nebraska City.

REPORT LINCOLN MAYOR WOULD BE GOVERNOR

Lincoln, Oct. 21.—Current rumor in Lincoln has it that J. E. Miller, mayor of Lincoln, is strongly considering the matter of entering the democratic primaries to contest for the democratic nomination for governor.

Everett Lloyd, writer for the National Magazine of Boston, was in Lincoln today and said that his magazine will soon carry a story of the private and official life of Mayor Miller.

This publicity is probably a part of the inception of Mayor Miller's candidacy. Miller is also said to have the promised support of a Lincoln newspaper.

ONLY ONE BOARD AT THE ELECTION

From Wednesday's Daily. Clerk of the District Court James M. Robertson has sent out to the different papers of the county, notice of the fact that at the special election on Tuesday, November 4, 1919, there will be only the receiving board, and the counting board will not be required to serve under the provisions of chapter 196, section 17, laws of 1919. This notice is given that all members of the counting board may not be compelled to report on election day for duty.

ADVANCE IN MASONIC RANK.

From Wednesday's Daily. At the meeting of the supreme council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons of the United States, several of the leading members of the Masonic order in the state of Nebraska were advanced in rank to membership in the highest degrees of the order and among these are two of the prominent Masons of Cass county. Searl S. Davis of Murray and Ralph J. Haynie of Plattsmouth were elected to receive the thirty-third degree and become K. C. C. H. Both Mr. Davis and Mr. Haynie are well known throughout the county and their advancement will be learned of with much pleasure by their brother members in the great Masonic fraternity.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9TH AMERICAN LEGION SUNDAY

Churches of the Nation Will Assist the Advancement of This Society of Men by Special Services.

From Wednesday's Daily. The national organization of the American Legion has sent forth a request to the clergymen of the nation irrespective of creed asking them to unite with the American Legion in making Sunday, November 9th, American Legion Sunday. On this date the clergymen of the nation will touch on the ideals for which the American Legion stands and the ideals for which it is striving to make a living and vital part of the national life—that of sturdy self-reliant Americanism.

This organization of former service men has stepped into a position in the life of the nation that gives a promise of what the future holds for it as one of the vital factors in the moulding of the national spirit and the ringing declarations of principals made by the society point to its uncompromising American spirit representing the men who have served the nation with personal service and whose monument to their fallen comrades will be that of a one way Americanism that has no room for any hyphenated allegiance.

The pastors of the Plattsmouth churches have expressed a willingness to do their part in the observance of the day and in whatever church you worship you can find a message filled with the spirit of Americanism that is represented in the nation through the members and organization of the American Legion.

TO REMOVE BUCK SHOT.

Frey Byam, alias James King, one of the Louisville burglars, who is at the Methodist hospital in Omaha is scheduled today to undergo the painful ordeal of having the large quantity of buck shot that he is carrying around in his system removed. The patient at first was decidedly hostile to the idea of having the surgeons work on him and for a few days was quite unruly but when told that he would have to submit to the ordeal of having the shot picked out he quieted down and seemed very docile and willing to have the surgical work done.
