LEWIS SILENT ON PROSPECT OF THE STRIKE

ACTING HEAD OF MINERS SAYS ONLY THAT SITUATION IS UNCHANGED.

LAYS BLAME ON OPERATORS

Defends Moral Right of the Men to Walk Out—Says They've Offered Mediation.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 26.—Replying to the statement of President Wilson that the proposed strike of soft coal miners, scheduled for November 1st, is "unjustifiable and unlawful," John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, on his arrival here tonight from Washington, D. C., declared "the status quo" prevailed. Asked whether the president's declaration would act to suspend the strike call, Mr. Lewis said he had nothing to say on this subject tonight.

Mr. Lewis went to his home in this city, shut himself off from communication with the outside world, and left orders not to be bothered before 11 a. m. tomorrow. He refused to comment on whether further negotiations are possible.

Refuses to Define Attitude. Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 26.—John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, tonight declined to state specifically the attitude of the United Mine Workers toward the statement of President Wilson yesterday regarding the proposed strike of the bituminous coal miners of the nation.

In regard to this Mr. Lewis would only say: "I am an American, free born, with all the pride of my heritage. I love my country with its institutions and traditions. With Abraham Lincoln, I thank God that we have a country where men may strike. May the power of my government never be used to throttle and crush the efforts of the toilers to improve their material welfare and elevate the standard of their citizenship."

No Word from Washington. Mr. Lewis said that he had not received any message from Washington, that he had been traveling all day. He left Washington at 6 o'clock Saturday evening to return to his home at Springfield, which he left October 6. He added that he had yesterday morning at 10 o'clock called a meeting of the national executive board of the United Mine Workers to convene at Indianapolis at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. He explained that the meeting was called before President Wilson's statement was made public. The gathering had been called primarily to formulate details of the strike.

When asked to make a statement on the right of the miners to strike November 1, in the face of the critical conditions, he said: "The coal operators have not offered a single constructive suggestion designed to avert this catastrophe. All through the negotiations at Buffalo, later at Philadelphia and still later at Washington, the miners waited in vain for any counter proposal to be submitted by the operators. During the conference with Secretary Wilson at Washington, we said many times that we were willing to re-enter negotiations with coal operators without reservations to conclude the making of an agreement with them. "The offer that we made was repeatedly declined. The responsibility for the stoppage of work in the bituminous coal districts must necessarily lie with the coal operators."

"What right have you to ask so large an increase in wages as 60 per cent," he was asked. "Subject to Negotiations." "Well, now we are willing to stand on the merit of our proposal," he replied. "This 60 per cent increase is subject to negotiations, as are other demands of the United Coal Miners, but they will not even negotiate."

"During the past twelve months the miners of the United States have averaged only $75 a month, or $800 for the entire period. The men have worked on an average of less than three days a week since the armistice was signed. Men with families cannot live on this amount. Children in mining camps are undernourished. This is a matter of life and death to the women and children of the miners' families as well as it is to the public. Charity begins at home."

AN ACCIDENTAL SHOT KILLS.

Kearney, Neb., Oct. 23.—Art Meyers was accidentally shot and instantly killed this morning. Meyers entered his place of business, a pump shop under the influence of liquor, it is alleged. He procured a gun and it is asserted threatened to kill someone. J. W. Lawhead and Ed Wolford, in the place at the time, remonstrated with him and when threatened proceeded to relieve him of his gun. During the scuffle the weapon was discharged, the bullet entering Meyers' body under the right arm, striking a rib and being deflected ended in the heart. At the coroner's inquest both men were exonerated from any blame for the killing. On Meyers' person was found a bottle partly filled with banana extract. He had been drinking various extracts heavily for weeks past and when under their influence frequently procured a gun and threatened to kill someone.

RETIRE FROM BUSINESS.

Herman Diers, of Gresham, brother of our townsman, W. F. Diers, has sold his business to C. A. Lindstrom, a former clerk, who has been living on a farm the past two years. Mr. Diers is well known in Louisville, having visited here frequently and the news of his retirement from the mercantile business will come as a surprise to his acquaintances here.

Mr. Diers is a pioneer merchant of Gresham, having been in business there for the past thirty years. He has been very successful, conservative in his methods, but always standing for everything progressive and for the betterment of his home community, and the people of Gresham will regret losing him as a business man of the town. The new proprietor will take possession of the store on November 1st.—Louisville Courier.

OPERATORS BLAMED FOR COAL STRIKE

MINERS' OFFICIAL ANNOUNCES WALKOUT WILL OCCUR.

NOVEMBER 1ST SET FOR DATE

Unless Managers Relent 500,000 Men Will Quit the Soft Coal Fields, as Orders Are Still in Effect.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 27.—Ready to leave Springfield early tomorrow morning for Indianapolis to assume active charge of the threatened strike of soft coal miners, beginning Friday at midnight, John L. Lewis, acting president of the united mine workers of America, declared tonight the strike order was still in effect and that the 500,000 miners in the bituminous field would walk out to a man, unless the operators made concessions.

"The statement of President Wilson opposing the strike has thus far had no results so far as we are concerned," Lewis said. No word reached him, he stated, from government sources during the day. Lewis expects to reach Indianapolis at 2:40 p. m. where he will make preparations for the meeting Wednesday of the international executive board. He said tonight he expected no developments prior to this conference.

Stories of Large Pay Abroad.

Branding statements that coal miners were earning $10 or $15 a day as "absurd," Mr. Lewis said the average pay of miners in the bituminous field for the year 1918, which he declared was the best twelve months in mine workers' annals, was $1,228 a year. He declined to make a statement as to what the maximum earnings of a miner under favorable circumstances might be, but said the earnings of "day men" amounted to between $4.25 and $5 a day. These include track layers, drivers, mechanics and laborers. Coal diggers, he admitted can make more money than that. He explained, however, that wages for miners were curtailed by the fact that mines operate on the average of only three or four days a week. This condition, he said, made necessary a short day and week in order to furnish continuous employment as embraced in wage demands suggested by miners early in the conferences. Other demands included 60 per cent increases in wages, time and a half for overtime, and elimination of the strike penalty clause.

In a statement issued tonight, he said, to clear up popular misapprehensions about exactly what took place in the joint conferences, Mr. Lewis again placed responsibility for the strike on the operators.

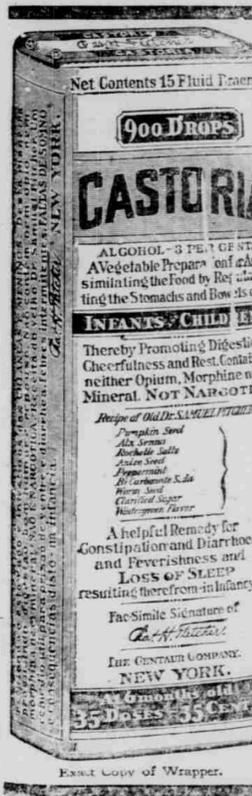

The statement follows: "At the biennial convention of the United Mine Workers of America at Cleveland, September 9 to 23, attended by 2,044 delegates a wage program and policy was outlined and scale committees were selected who were instructed to present demands to the operators."

"On September 25 at Buffalo, the miners and operators met in joint committee. The miners presented their demands and were met by a statement that the Washington agreement had not expired because the war was not ended and peace had not been promulgated by the president."

"No counter proposals were submitted by the operators, who seemingly were determined avoiding making a new agreement. This committee adjourned for a week and reconvened in Philadelphia on October 9, where the same circumstances obtained and sine die adjournment took place on October 11. "The miners insisted at all times that they were ready to consider demands from the standpoint of merit alone. But consideration on this basis was denied by the operators. "The government in conferences with operators and miners last week in Washington, endeavored to secure a re-opening of negotiations. The miners consented without reservation. The operators declined except under conditions which rendered negotiations impossible."
