AFTER THREE YEARS

Plattsmouth Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Plattsmouth story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Jonathan Hatt, general store-keeper, 414 Main St., Plattsmouth, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I consider them a most effective medicine for backache and other kidney ailments. Doan's have proven their value to me for such trouble."

Over three years later Mr. Hatt said: "Doan's Kidney Pills are surely all right and what I said in my former endorsement holds good. When my kidneys cause me any trouble, Doan's soon put me right." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't

HARRY PALMER
WRITES HOME

Omaha Attorney and Former Resident of Louisville, Writes to Brother from China.

From Friday's Daily. Major Harry Palmer, well known throughout Cass county, where he made his home for a number of years, but who abandoning his law practice took up his duties as a soldier in the army, writes a very interesting letter from China to his brother, Arthur Palmer, also a member of the firm of Palmer, Taylor & Palmer, of Omaha. Major Palmer is serving as judge advocate of the China expedition of the American forces. The letter is as follows:

"In some 20,000 miles of journeying through the orient, visiting Hawaii, eastern Siberia, Japan, North China, Formosa, the Philippines and our other island possessions of the Pacific, I came frequently across Omahans or the trail left by Omahans and Nebraskans who had been there before me. When I left San Francisco last spring for Vladivostok, it was Grant I. Graham, army field clerk, formerly of Omaha, who arranged my passage.

"On board the transport Sheridan, I found Lieutenant Wayne Wells of West Point bound for Siberia, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Gerald Marsh, of Omaha, en route to China to join the Fifteenth infantry. Colonel William Morrow was in command of the troops aboard the transport. Colonel Morrow lived in Omaha years ago and he delighted in recounting to me the tales of his experiences as a freight hustler at the Union station and later as a clerk in the Nebraska National bank.

"Colonel Charles T. Smart, who was in command before Colonel Morrow arrived, was not an Omahian, but he had done the next best thing and had married an Omaha girl, Miss May Sullivan. The quartermaster of the China expedition was Captain Morton, formerly of Omaha, whose father was well known in the old army days at Omaha. As judge of the United States court for China, Judge Lobinger has for a long time kept Omaha a familiar name in official circles in China.

"In Vladivostok the name of Omaha was not unknown. Commander Patterson, of the United States navy, a former Omahian, as commander of the Siberian naval station, had left a fine impression, and I found that his sister, Miss Eugenie Patterson, had as a Red Cross nurse done fine work among the soldiers. Captain Adam Koenigsmacher, of the medical corps, had been on duty in Siberia for some time before I got there. He comes from Council Bluffs.

"In Japan I found frequently the trace of Senator Millard's seven-league boots.

"In the Philippines, Nebraska and Omaha in particular, is well represented. The best informed man on the affairs of the wild tribes is Frank Carpenter of Omaha, at present governor of Minanao, and the southern islands.

"In Manila I met my old French teacher, to whom I acted as assistant back in 1907-8 at Nebraska Wesleyan university when she was dean of women there. She is now dean of women in the Philippine normal school.

"In Manila I met Ensign Stoddard of Auburn, who had just completed a long cruise on a Dutch ship which touched at most of the important ports of call in the orient.

"I called at Fort McKinley before leaving the Philippines and met there Colonel E. A. Root, post commander, who had charge of receiving applications for the first training camp at Fort Snelling. It was he, you will remember, who told me when I made application that with an eye like my right one, I would be best fitted for trench digging, because if I kept the bad eye toward the enemy I wouldn't be disturbed by seeing their activity. We had a big laugh about this when I called on him as a major. After leaving Nagasaki I met two snappy young fellows from Nebraska among the enlisted men. One was Master Gunner Smith of Omaha and the other Chief Yeoman Mapps of York, both of whom had seen much service in the orient."

MRS. BAUGHMAN
GAINS 23 POUNDS

Cedar Rapids Woman Feels Like A New Person Since Taking Tanlac.

"Besides getting relief from my awful suffering I have actually gained twenty-three pounds in weight and you may know by that what I think of Tanlac," said Mrs. Sadie Baughman, residing at 1252 F street, East Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in an interview, recently. Mrs. Baughman is the wife of Harry C. Baughman, a valued employee of the Quaker Oats Company. Her statement while, indeed, remarkable, is by no means unusual as many thousands throughout the United States and Canada have testified to having used the master medicine with the same wonderful results.

"It has been something less than three months now," continued Mrs. Baughman, "since I began taking Tanlac and if anyone could feel like a new person I do, I had been suffering from stomach trouble, rheumatism and extreme nervousness for five years. My liver was also in a very bad condition as my skin was as yellow as a pumpkin. My food would sour on my stomach causing gas, pains and spells of palpitation of the heart when it just seemed like my breath would stop. It seemed that I was right on the verge of nervous prostration and my lower limbs ached so with rheumatism that I could hardly stand it. I could neither rest myself or let anyone else in the house rest, I was so nervous and miserable. These troubles had reduced my weight until I was almost a living skeleton and was so run down and felt so badly I could not attend to my household affairs.

"I had used everything in the way of medicines and had been told a number of times that an operation was my only hope of recovery, but I have gotten rid of it all by taking a few bottles of Tanlac. My husband had been trying to get me to try Tanlac for some time, but I refused to do so because I thought it was like other things I had taken and would do me no good. But I kept on suffering and getting worse until one day he brought home a bottle and insisted so that I began taking it. Well, it wasn't long until I found Tanlac was altogether different from any other medicine I had ever used, for soon after starting on my second bottle there was a wonderful change in my feelings. I am now eating just anything I want and am never troubled the least bit with gas on my stomach, palpitation of the heart or any uncomfortable feeling afterwards. My complexion has cleared up until it is like new. The rheumatic pain has disappeared from my limbs and my nerves have quieted down until I can sleep just like a baby. I am really and truly feeling like a new person and owe it all to Tanlac."

You're tired—and so are we, of reading ads that tell us prices are going up. Even the undertaker says "don't wait." But we're obliged to tell you the same thing about clothes. We dislike to say it as much as you dislike to hear it. However, it's the truth and we're obliged to face it. We have just been buying clothing for next spring and the prices about "took our breath." We can safely say the prices we are selling clothing at now will look cheap, mighty cheap, to you next spring. When the suits we are selling from $25 to $55 are gone, we cannot replace their equal for less than $40 to $75. So we advise you not to wait for lower prices. They're not in sight yet. We
