AUTO SMASH UP LEADS TO SUIT

Car Belonging to J. M. Calkins, of Lincoln, Crashes Into that of John H. Ruhmann.

From Saturday's Daily.
There was filed this morning in the county court an action in which John H. Ruhmann, a resident of near Elmwood, is the plaintiff and J. M. Calkins, of Lincoln, the defendant, asking for the sum of $86.80 as the result of a collision yesterday afternoon on the O street road near Elmwood and seven miles east of Eagle.

The plaintiff alleges in his petition filed in court that he was traveling along the highway and seeing the car of the defendant coming, turned to the right as far as possible in order to permit the approaching car to pass him, but that the driver of the car belonging to Mr. Calkins drove in a negligent manner and allowed his machine to crash into that of Mr. Ruhmann, resulting in the breaking of one of the front wheels, bending the right axle and badly damaging the right front fender of the car.

The car of Mr. Calkins was being driven by his driver, a colored man, and also was somewhat damaged by the head on collision that will make some repairs necessary.

Mr. Ruhmann was in the city today and secured the services of Attorney C. A. Rawls to look after his interests in the case. Mr. Calkins, the defendant, is a former resident of Cass county who has been making his home in Lincoln for a number of years and he was enroute back to Lincoln from a visit at his farm near Alvo when the accident occurred.

WHAT I STAND FOR

Plattsmouth, Neb., Oct. 31, 1919. Editor Journal:

Owing to the fact that a number of false stories have been circulated as to what, it is said, I stand for, a number have asked me to state my position. I therefore beg your indulgence for a brief space.

I said I knew of one farm in the farming district of a sister state of 8,000 acres, and that I was opposed to such landed estates. There could be but three such farms in a precinct like Plattsmouth precinct or any other precinct of 25 sections. If three men owned all of Plattsmouth precinct or any other precinct, what would the other farmers do?

It has been falsely reported that I favored an eight hour day on the farm. When I worked on the farm, I know it was impossible during the cropping season to raise a crop and harvest same on an eight hour day. I do not favor any schedule of hours per day, nor any schedule of wages, because I do not know what is right. But I was opposed to the daylight saving law, especially in peace time.

I do favor the farmers organizing associations or unions or leagues. Then I do favor the farmers' unions and labor unions getting together and eliminating all of the middlemen's waste that is possible. I am also in favor of the farmers and laboring men formulating the best possible public policy agreeable to both. I am, Very truly, A. L. TIDD.

PIONEER RESIDENT A VISITOR IN CITY

Thomas W. Evans of St. Joseph, Mo., an Old Time Business Man and Banker Here.

Yesterday Thomas K. Evans, of St. Joseph, Missouri, was in the city enjoying a visit at the home of Charles C. Parmele, and meeting with his old time friends in the city with whom he was associated in the long ago when the new state of Nebraska was but a frontier post of the settled portion of the United States.

Mr. Evans has for many years been connected with the First National bank of St. Joseph, Missouri, and his influence there has led to the upbuilding of the city. Some fifty years ago he was a resident of this city and for some time served as cashier of the First National Bank of Plattsmouth, prior to going to St. Joseph to engage in the banking business.

While in Plattsmouth he was connected with the pioneer firm of Tootle, Hanna & Clark, all of whom later moved to St. Joseph to establish business interest there and have been vital factors in the progress of the Missouri city.

Each year Mr. Evans finds opportunity of visiting the old home here and spending a short time among the old friends who are growing fewer in numbers each year with the passing of time and these occasions are very pleasant ones for the old friends.

The old residents of the period of Mr. Evans' residency in Plattsmouth have to a great extent either removed from the city or been called to their last rest and among those who were then active in the life of the city but few remain.
