A box supper will be given by the Murray school Nov. 26. Everybody is invited.

Lester Chriswiser of Havelock, arrived in Murray, a few days since and is assisting in the picking of corn on the farm of his uncle C. W. Chriswiser.

Mrs. J. A. Walker is reported as not feeling very well, on account of a severe cold which she has recently contracted, but is making improvement.

Mr. W. A. Scott is getting some furs and pelts, though the trapping is far from good this fall. He has so far gotten about a half hundred hides, some forty muskrats, nine civit cats and one mink.

The Woman's missionary society will meet with Mrs. E. S. Tuttle, on next Friday afternoon, and all the ladies are invited to be in attendance, as a good time is assured, and much work is in hand to be done.

George Kearnes of Plattsmouth who has been assisting in the picking of corn on the farm of Frank Hodge, completed his task on last Tuesday and departed on the evening train of the Missouri Pacific, for his home in the county seat.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Gayer, living a few miles east of Murray, is suffering from a stomach trouble, which seems rather stubborn to handle. The little one is showing some improvement and it is hoped will soon be well again.

John Vantine and wife who have been stopping in Murray for the past few weeks, departed last Monday for their new home at Womont, where they recently purchased the home formerly owned by Carl West, and where they will live in the future.

Grover Hopkins, who lives on the Robert Young place west of Murray is reported as being on the sick list, and while still very sick is some improved from what he was a few days since.

A little daughter of Wyatt Hutchison is reported as being very sick at her home east of Murray. While she is receiving the best of care and medical attention, she still has not showed the improvement desired.

Mrs. Fred Hill who is sick at her home in Murray, and has been for some time past, still remains in a very serious condition, though it is hoped that she may show some improvement in the near future which will indicate her early recovery.

Dr. J. F. Brendel while making country calls during the severe weather, recently contracted a severe cold, and with the getting wet while out, which seemingly could not be avoided, was taken with a severe attack of tonsillitis, from which he is just now recovering.

The assurance is given that soon there will be began the stringing of the wires on the new electric, light and power lines running south from Murray to Union. A crew of men under foreman Luther Turner of Plattsmouth were attaching the cross arms and guying the poles for the beginning of the work, during the early days of this week.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vanhorn east of Murray, is reported as being very sick with appendicitis, and while it is hoped that she may be returned to health, by treatment alone, it is not certain but an operation will be required before a permanent cure can be assured. It is hoped that she may be returned to health quickly.

Mrs. M. Bartlett were in Omaha Saturday.

Mrs. Baumeister is spending the week in Murray sewing.

Mrs. D. A. Young is visiting with her sister over in Iowa this week.

Miss Clara Young came down Saturday evening to spend Sunday with home folks.

Miss Latta and Mr. Hiatt will furnish some vocal music at the community party Saturday evening.

If you know any old fashioned games, bring them with you and come Saturday evening and have a good time.

Roy Cole and Albert Cotner were in Murray the first of the week, doing some necessary work on the phone lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Vantine and Mrs. Wm. Brown closed the house and Mrs. Brown will spend the winter with Mrs. Tool.

A number met at the home of Miss Neva Latta last week and sewed for the bazaar. Miss Latta furnished the dinner.

Miss Gertrude Long was a visitor in Omaha with her sister Mrs. Robert Shrader for a few days the first portion of the week.

George Parks was a business visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday evening, going up on the afternoon Missouri Pacific train.

P. A. Hill and family spent the Sunday in Murray with relatives returning to their home northwest of town on Monday morning.

Mrs. Martha Baumeister of Plattsmouth arrived in Murray last Tuesday and is assisting with the sewing at the home of Mrs. Joseph Sans.

Charles Carroll was a visitor in Omaha last Monday where he was looking after some business matters and consulting with his physician.

Ludwig Hallas was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Wednesday evening where he was looking after some business matters and attending a play as well.

Miss Anna Wagener was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday where she was the guest of her two sisters, Misses Grace and Mary, who are attending the high school there this year.

Henry Heebner who operated the Duff elevator at Cedar Creek, and who visited at home for over Sunday was kept a little longer than he had intended on account of the extreme wet weather.

Albert Young has thrown down his saw and ax and grasped a shucking peg, donned some cotton flannel gloves, and broke for the corn field. He is assisting Nick Friedrich in getting his crop in the crib. Good boy.

Mrs. Ray Henry who has been confined to her bed for some time, with sickness, is reported as being considerably better just of late, and is accorded the privilege of sitting up for a short time last Wednesday.

This was greatly enjoyed by the patient, and the entire family after having been compelled to keep her bed for so long.

Next Saturday evening the library association will give a party in Puls hall. Each family in the community is invited. A small program will be given, each family will be expected to bring a dozen sandwiches and come and have a good time. The object of this evening is to have a good social time.

The following persons have added to the library funds: Meier Drug Co., $5.00, Mrs. Chas. Spangler $5, Mrs. Louie Puls, $5, Mr. and Mrs. Searl Davis $15.00. We are still wanting more $5.00.

Next Lecture Course Number

The next Lyceum course number, which is scheduled for Thanksgiving evening, at the Puls hall, is one that should appeal to all regardless of their so-called "literary" tastes, and will, we are sure, prove interesting to old and young alike. The number is a musical one, and includes the appearance of "The War Players and Singers," composed of a male quartette of exceptional ability—all soldiers of the late war, and men well qualified to give a most interesting entertainment.

These Yankee soldiers bring to us at first hand the great world war in music. Not all of the war was tragedy. Much of it was fun, and so in their program these soldier lads bring out the fun as well as the thrills and tragedy of modern warfare.

Of special interest in their program is a dramatic sketch of trench life, a story specially written by Olive Kackley, which is the most truthful characterization of the American soldier, which the Lyceum and Chautauqua platforms have yet seen.

Every member of this quartet has seen service overseas.

Will Give Excellent Program

The Presbyterian Sunday school, of which Miss Neva Latta is the superintendent, have prepared to give an excellent program at their meeting next Sunday, and which was to be given before but for the weather being so severe, that the attendance was small. It is hoped the weather will be good the coming Sunday. All are invited to the excellent program which will be given. The following will be the program: Song, "Keep the Battle Raging." Invocation.

Responsive scripture. Responsive service. Reading—Charles Boedeker. Reading, "Not a battle but a world wide war"—Frieda Lisle, Violet Vallery, Elsie Puls, Helen Gilmore. Song, World Wide Prohibition.

Reading, My Country is the World Gladys Lisle.

Solo and chorus, Our Country is the World—Dorothy Todd.

Incidents in General Lee's life—Margaret Spangler.

Incidents in Lincoln's life—Grace Long.

Murray Public School Notes

The notes herewith are furnished by the schools, who have reporters and an editor, and for which this paper wishes to express their thanks for the interest the schools are taking in furnishing the news.

Charles Sporer was absent last Tuesday on account of sickness.

The first quarter's work was completed last week and examinations were held Tuesday and Wednesday.

The little folks enjoyed a three days vacation last week.

The pupils attending school every day last month were: Ruth Homan, Florence Bartlett, Margaret Mrasek, Ada Campbell, Percy Minkner, Hubert LaRue, Josephine Bouten, Charles Morgan, Dorothy LaTne, Emma Eppings, Joe Dieth, Lyle Lawton, Richard Friedrich, William Mrasek, Norman Davis, Ernest Eppings, Anna Morgan, Madge Homan, Clell Gansemer, Albert Griffin.

Edith Ferris was absent the greater part of last week on account of sickness.

The primary and grammar rooms took quarterly examinations last week.

Goldie Smith is absent from school on account of sickness.

The Murray school will give a box supper Nov. 26. Everybody invited.

Harry Puls is in school again after being absent for the past two weeks.

The grammar room has just finished their first quarter's examinations and the papers are a good proof of the faithful work that has been done here.

The Murray school was closed on Thursday and Friday while the teachers attended the Nebraska State Teachers' Association. They found this meeting very beneficial to them in their work.

DEATH OF MRS. ERNEST RICHTER

Estimable Lady Residing Near Murray Passes Away Sunday After Illness of Some Two Years.

Sunday afternoon at the family home near Murray occurred the death of Mrs. Ernest Richter, long a resident of that community and one held in the highest esteem by a large circle of warm friends. Mrs. Richter has been a resident of near Murray and Cass county for the past thirty-seven years and is a lady who by her loving traits of character had endeared herself very much to the friends and neighbors.

The departed lady was born in Germany July 26, 1859, and was reared to womanhood in that country where on October 17, 1880 she was united in marriage to Ernest Richter, and the following year Mr. and Mrs. Richter removed from the old country to make their future home in America and finally located in Cass county, Nebraska, in the fall of 1881 settling on the farm where they have since made their home. To bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. Richter six children were born, one of whom preceeding the mother in death twenty years ago, and by whose side the mother will be laid to rest in the Lewiston cemetery near Murray.

The husband and five children are left to mourn the death of this good woman, namely, Mrs. Anna Marsek, Mrs. Ida Reed, Mrs. Nettie Macy, Paul Richter and Herman Richter, all of who reside near the family home west of Murray.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the Lewiston church and will be conducted by Rev. Robert Kunzendorf of the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church.

A male quartet will give an entertainment in the Puls hall Thanksgiving night. This is the third number of the Lyceum course.
