Mr. and Mrs. John Sam Doty are the proud parents of an 8-pound girl born Tuesday of this week.

Word came to Mrs. T. R. Adams recently of the sudden death at Des Moines, Iowa, of her cousin, Mrs. Elizabeth Clark. Several of our people met Mrs. Clark when she visited here a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Frantz went to Omaha last Monday evening for a brief visit and from there Mrs. Frantz went to Des Moines to visit her friend, Miss Lucile Mettelle. Mr. Frantz returned to Eagle Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wetenkamp returned from Rochester, Minn., Friday. Mr. Wetenkamp underwent a very serious operation while at Rochester and, while still very weak she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Last Friday evening Misses Mabel Francke and Maybell Snoke entertained the Sophomore class in honor of the two Mabel's sixteenth birthday. The evening was spent in playing various games and music. At a suitable hour a dainty two course luncheon was served which was enjoyed by everyone. The girls received many pretty and useful gifts. At a late hour the guests departed, declaring they had a most enjoyable time and wishing Mabel and Maybell many more happy birthdays.

Wm. Deles Dernier, of this place, and Frank Litch adjusted on Thursday of last week a loss of 500 bushels of oats for Fred Schaefer southeast of town.

Wm. Stege has made arrangements to have the old house on the John McCabe place which he purchased some time ago torn down and will erect a fine modern bungalow, 28x28. This will make a nice improvement and a nice home for the Stege family.

Last week Mr. Sheafbinder of Montana shipped 500 sheep here. These sheep were taken to the Wm. Kunz farm where they will be kept for a while. It was a big bunch of them and the most that have been around here for a while.

A number of our local hunters took advantage of the cold snap on Monday morning and left for the lakes near Schickley to hunt ducks. The party was composed of E. T. Comer, Chas. Hart, Harry Williams, Guy Clements and B. I. Clements. We expect to see them return with some big duck stories.

Erven Carroll won two straight falls last Saturday from Conrad of Thayer, Iowa, the Iowa champion. He beat him in less time than Breedlove did a short time ago, the world champion in his class. The first fall in 21 minutes with a scissors and arm strangle, the same hold with which he threw Jack Tolliver of Omaha. The second fall in 15 minutes and 30 seconds and wrist lock. He will wrestle Hester of Lincoln, November 18, 1919.

Walter Stohlman moved his family this week from the rooms over the hardware store into their home on Cherry street recently purchased of Dr. E. H. Worthman.

From a French paper we learn of the marriage of Miss Ida Youngblad, of Lincoln, to Hal P. Stines, of Fairmont. The bride is a trained nurse and is the daughter of Charles Youngblad of Lincoln, former Louisville people, where they are well known and have many friends who extend best wishes and congratulations.

Postmaster F. H. Ossenkop received notice from the postoffice department at Washington that his salary as postmaster had been increased $200 per year beginning July 1, 1919. This will make the salary of the Louisville postmaster $1,400 per annum. While the increase is not in accordance with the advance of wages in other lines yet Postmaster Ossenkop is grateful for the increase at this time when the cost of living is daily soaring skyward.

Rev. A. F. Ploetz went to Vale, Iowa, Saturday morning to fill the pulpit in the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

Ern Young had the misfortune to get the fore finger of his left hand broken Monday while working a buzz saw at the carpenter shop. The board that he was sawing broke and a piece flew striking the finger with such force as to break it.

Misses Jeanette Teegarden and Dorothy Dunn who were in charge of the soliciting for the 1920 Red Cross membership drive report $408 raised. The young ladies have made a mighty good record and are deserving of great praise for their untiring efforts.

Tuesday morning the new engine at the light plant was started up and from the way it is performing, everyone is feeling pretty good about the prospects for improved service. It is a modern semi-diesel type engine and has a very business-like sound to it with the distinctive throbbing "put, put, put" of its exhaust.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carey arrived Monday morning from Rush Center, Kansas, for an extended visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Robert Mickle, south of town. Mr. and Mrs. Carey are old timers of this community. Mr. Carey's parents were among the first settlers of Weeping Water.

Ed Olander, the last of the three boys in this family, who were in the service, has returned home this week. He landed in Omaha from overseas the 11th. Armistice day. We understand that mail conditions have been such that he had not heard from home since July. He entered the service in July, 1918, and spent considerable of his time serving as a cook.

The sad news was received this week of the death of Chris Hansen's brother in Russia. Chris' brother was in that part of Denmark which made him a German soldier. He was taken prisoner and spent three months in Siberia, but was on his way home in company with thirty-five other prisoners and was seized by Russians bolsheviks and all taken out and shot. While this sad affair happened in August, 1918, the word has only just reached the relatives here.

But, if you live more carefully and help your kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, you can stop the pains you have and avoid future danger as well.
