Murray

Walter Tower, the mechanic at the L. H. Puls garage, was a visitor with friends in Kearney a couple of days this week, having departed for that place last Saturday evening, and returned to his work here Tuesday night.

Mrs. J. W. Berger, who has been at Lincoln for some time past visiting with her daughter and resting, returned home a few days ago, and will in a short time open the hotel for business again. Mrs. Charles Carroll who has been serving meals since the closing of the hotel will also continue to serve meals.

Returns from the West

Theodore Bouten, who has been in the west for some time, where he has just completed a seven room house for a farmer, returned to Murray on last Sunday evening, and will work here during the winter, returning to the west again in the spring.

Prepare for Thanksgiving

There will be a meeting at the Lewiston church on Monday, November 24th, for a general clean-up and preparation for the big Thanksgiving dinner. Everybody expected to be out. We want every preparation made for the biggest event ever given.

Had a Good Hunting Trip

Messrs. H. W. Barrows, Serber, N. C. Allen and E. C. Blondell, all of Omaha, came down on the midnight train a few days ago and were taken to the river east of Murray, for the enjoyment of an excellent hunt. The gentlemen bagged a large number of ducks and had many to take home to show their friends. On the trip over to the river they were conveyed by Pilot Ben Noell.

Accepts a Good Position

Mrs. Eliza Young, who is an excellent nurse, and who has been nursing at Clarinda, Iowa, for several weeks, was a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Cook, for a week, and last Saturday in company with Mr. and Mrs. Cook and daughter, Nita, went to Council Bluffs, where she has accepted a position as nurse in the Christian home of that place. Fortunate was that institution in securing the services of such an excellent nurse and fine a lady as Mrs. Young. Mrs. Cook and daughter returned home last Saturday on the late train.

Visited Relatives Here

Last Sunday W. A. Cook and family, of near Elmwood and George Cook, of Alvo, drove from their home in the car of Mr. W. E. Cook, and spent the day visiting at the home of W. D. Wheeler and wife east of Murray. Mrs. Wheeler is a sister of the Cook boys and the visit was one of much pleasure for all the families concerned, and one which was greatly enjoyed.

Why Not Men's Community Club?

The ladies have been demonstrating that they can make a success of whatever they undertake in the way of getting together for the benefit of the city, and why not the men the same. In the ad of the Meier Drug company in this issue, will be found expression of the sentiment which should dominate the citizens of every town. Try it once and see how it works.

Died in the North

Word has been received of the death of a former citizen of Murray, who has been making her home at Coleridge, for some time. This lady is Mrs. Peter Smith and was formerly Miss Edith Nix. Mrs. Smith, with her husband and family removed from near Murray several years ago, and leaves besides her husband to mourn her death, six children, the youngest some fourteen months of age. The funeral was held and burial made at Bloomfield, Nebraska, in the northern part of the state last Tuesday. John L. Smith and Thomas D. Smith were in attendance at the funeral services and returned to their homes here the middle of the week.

Many Young Americans Arrive

Friends were present to extend a very warm welcome to nearly half a dozen lusty young Americans, who arrived in Murray and vicinity during the past few days. Chester Mannier and wife welcomed a son to their home south of Murray. Also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creamer there arrived a son on last Friday, which brought pleasure to the fond parents as well as to the grandparents on both sides. There was a pleased and happy household at the home of Lloyd Woods and wife over the arrival of their son, who came last Saturday to lighten the home and brighten the smiles of the happy parents. A wee blue-eyed baby girl came to the home of Louis Shumaker and wife, announcing she would make her home with the pleased parents. All are doing nicely and happiness reigns supreme in the various homes that have been visited by the stork. A pretty good week, we would say, for old staid Murray, and the continued laughter and prattle of merry children is assured.

Community Party Saturday

The Community party at the hall Saturday evening was well attended, over three hundred being present and all seemed to have a good time.

The songs by Miss Latta and Mr. Hiatt were certainly enjoyed. Mr. McCracken furnished an Edison and that together with the songs constituted the entertainment part of the program.

Sandwiches and coffee were served and all are looking forward to the next one.

Murray Christian Church

We have decided to begin our Evangelistic meetings a week early so next Lord's day, November 23rd, will be the opening day of the big meetings. Bro. Scott, pastor of the Plattsmouth church, will conduct the meetings and his wife will lead the singing. They come to us at a personal sacrifice and highly recommended, so that with the membership working as it is, we are sure of a crowning success. Begin the first day and attend throughout, for you cannot afford to miss a single service. The collection basket will be passed on Sunday morning in the usual quiet way; no special offering to be taken, since the finance of the big event is nearly all taken care of now.

Come to the Bible school party on Saturday night at the church, at 8 o'clock and then come to our flourishing Bible school at 9:45 Sunday morning. You are cordially invited and urged to attend the services each time.

C. E. HANNAN, Minister.

Notice to Journal Readers

Owing to the fact that we are operating but one linotype pending such time as we are able to secure another operator, and due to the crowded condition of our columns in today's issue, we are forced to hold over for publication in Monday's paper the school notes column and an interesting letter received by Miss Pauline Oldham from Mamie Boeck Shellenberg, a former scholar in the Murray schools. Look for these in Monday's paper.

GOLD MUST BE TRIED BY FIRE

Gold is tried by fire, and a remedy is tried in the fires of critical health conditions. Last winter with its enormous death rate was a real ordeal by fire. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine stood the test victoriously and won many new friends. By keeping the intestines clean, this remedy beats the bacteria out of the field, there is not the remotest chance of their nesting in the intestinal tract, and so your body is able to defy diseases. And Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic is another excellent remedy. Mr. Ant. Klemm says in his letter dated Addy, Wash., Nov. 1, 1919: "Your remedies, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic, work miracles. Two bottles have saved my daughter, and when I gave it to my neighbor who had been sick for years, he came after two days full of joy that he slept better and that his appetite had improved, and asked me to write at once for the remedy to Spokane." You will get these remedies at your druggist's.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-43 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Methodist Church Notes

Last Sunday was a splendid day for the church at Alvo. To start with the Sunday school reached the highest point in attendance for years, 131 being the number. We confidently expect 150 next Sunday. We invite the reader of these notes to come and swell the number and let the benefit as well. This is a good place for men, as well as just women and children and we are very pleased to see so many of the men in attendance.

Audiences that filled the house were present at both preaching services, especially in the evening, when all the available space in both the main audience room and the League room was filled. The sermon on "Life's Unrest" seemed to grip the audience, judging by the splendid attention.

The fifteen minutes War Review pictures just before the sermon were much enjoyed.

Our first motion picture entertainment on Friday night was a great success. The house was packed with spectators and Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen" seemed to be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The next entertainment will be given next Saturday evening at 7:30 and the feature will be "The Thing We Love." A great war drama by Wallace Reid.

Next Sunday morning the second in the series of sermons on "The Parable of the Soil," will be given. In the evening the talk will be "The Divine Recipe for a Life." The talk will be preceded by fifteen minutes of pictures.

ERNEST A. KNIGHT,
