

Rebuilt Overcoats

Why pay $75.00 to $100.00 for a new overcoat when I can rebuild your old one for a fraction of the price of a new one. After having it repaired, cleaned and pressed you've got practically a new coat at a nominal price. I am dyeing a great many army overcoats in navy blue, dark brown and black. They dye nicely. Look over your winter clothes now and have them put in shape to wear.

Leslie Hall, a Former Plattsmouth Boy Now Doing Duty with U. S. Army in France.

From Monday's Daily.
Chester Welshimer has just received a letter from his young friend, Leslie Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, formerly of this city, in which the young man informs him that he is now doing duty with the American troops in Europe, where they are engaged in closing up the interests of the American government there.

Leslie was stationed for a short time at Camp Meade, Maryland, at which point the replacement units were mobilized and sailed on October 22nd for France with a unit of 100 men. The trip occupied six days and they were landed at Brest, the chief American port of embarkation.

Leslie is a nephew of John S. Hall of Omaha and of Miss Anna Hall of this city and is well known to the young people, having been educated here in the public schools.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

From Tuesday's Daily.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Cotner was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on Sunday, when a number of their relatives and friends gave them a very pleasant surprise. About the noon hour some twenty guests invaded the Cotner home bringing with them many baskets, well laden with good things to eat, and which were made a feature of the noon-day meal.

During the afternoon that followed the pleasant dinner party there were musical numbers and songs, which served to pass the time pleasantly and the afternoon was gone almost before anyone had given heed to the fleeing hours.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cotner, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Cotner and children, Gladys and Arthur; Mrs. George Lloyd and son, Anderson, of south of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marled, also of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole and son, Thomas; Mr. Ed Cotner; Mrs. Lester Christensen, of Bent, Colorado; Walter Tower; Mrs. Cora Maple and daughter and son, of Halvey, Nebraska, the former being a daughter of Mrs. J. B. Cotner.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of publicly expressing our heartfelt appreciation of the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown to us during the time of the sickness and death of our beloved father and husband. Especially do we desire to thank Rev. Father Sussner for his comforting words, the choir of the Holy Rosary church and Mr. Cyril Janda for their services and the St. James lodge for their attendance at the home and the church during the funeral services. We also wish to thank all those who so kindly remembered our loved one with the beautiful floral tributes.—Mrs. John Nashel and Children.

RECEIVES A FINE PRESENT

From Tuesday's Daily.
Yesterday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Short were very agreeably surprised by receiving a wedding present consisting of a purse of $34 which was presented to the newly weds by L. C. Sharp and the associates of Mr. Short in the Sharp factory in this city and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short, parents of the groom.

When Mr. Short arrived at work yesterday morning he was informed of the fact that the parents and the employees of the factory as well as the proprietor wished to see that the young people received some suitable remembrance of the happy occasion that had befallen them on Saturday and accordingly presented him with the little token.

ANNOUNCES DAUGHTER'S MARRIAGE ON SATURDAY

From Tuesday's Daily.
Friends in this city have received announcements from County Commissioner and Mr. H. J. Miller of Alvo, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Leah Frances, to Rev. Earl M. Bowman. The wedding occurred on Saturday, November 22nd at McPherson, Kansas, and is the outcome of a school romance as the bride has been a student at the University of Kansas since her graduation from the Alvo high school, and while there met Mr. Bowman, who was also attending school.

The young people will make their future home at Lawrence, Kansas. The bride has been one of the popular young ladies of Alvo and her many friends there will learn with much pleasure of the new found happiness that has befallen her and trust that the years before her may be filled with the happiness that she so well deserves.

REDISTRICTING BOARD MEETS.

From Tuesday's Daily.
The redistricting board of the county, which is looking after the redistricting of the county school districts, was in session today at the office of County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson. The other members of the board are John J. Gustin, of Murdock, and James M. Teegarden, of Weeping Water, and the members of the board spent the day looking over the plans as outlined for a careful readjustment of the school boundaries.

DEATH AT GREENWOOD.

From Tuesday's Daily.
County Clerk George R. Sayles departed this morning for Greenwood to attend the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Ollie Sayles, but was delayed by the train and being unable to reach Greenwood in time for the funeral was compelled to return to this city on No. 4. Mrs. Sayles died at her home in Greenwood Saturday night after an illness of some time and the services were held this morning from her home in that place.

TO RETURN HOME

From Tuesday's Daily.
Mrs. P. A. McCrary, yesterday received a message from her son, John McCrary, at Phoenix, Arizona, announcing that he expected to start for home in a few days and would soon be back in Nebraska. John left this city several weeks ago in company with Theodore Lister, but states that he and his partner had separated at El Paso, Texas, where Ted remained for a time and now John has decided that he will once more seek the old home state.

PLEASANT FAMILY PARTY

From Monday's Daily.
Yesterday was the seventy-third birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. W. Johnson and in honor of the event, the children of this estimable lady arranged a very pleasant birthday dinner and one which was enjoyed to the utmost by members of the party.

The dining room and table were very pleasantly arranged with the fall flowers and here the members of the family partook of the very pleasing repast that had been prepared for them.

Those who gathered with Mrs. Johnson to celebrate the day were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Johnson, St. Joseph, Missouri; Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Johnson, Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gillispie and Mrs. Joseph Adams, of this city.

AN ADDITION TO FAMILY.

From Monday's Daily.
The pleasant news has been received in this city of the arrival of a fine little daughter on last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones at Utica, Nebraska. The mother and little one are both doing nicely and the occasion has brot untold joy to the proud father, as well as to the relatives in this city. The many friends join in wishing the little one a long and happy future.

TO COMPLETE STRUCTURE

From Monday's Daily.
At the time the First Methodist church building was erected a few years ago it was left unfinished in one detail, that of the bell tower on the southeast corner of the building, and has since stood in this incomplete state, exposing the bell to the elements and detracting from the general appearance of the otherwise handsome structure.

This, however, is to be changed, as the members of the official board at their meeting last week decided that in the future the unsightly tower would no longer reflect discredit on the building and ordered the work on the tower to be com-
