Back From the South.

C. H. Boedecker, who has been in the south for the past week and where he found the weather nice and warm enough so that he went in swimming in the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico, returned home last Sunday evening, after having had an excellent time in the south. Mr. Boedecker had many pictures illustrating the beauties of the country down that way, they being mostly views of Galveston, but one especially nice one of Pinar, Texas, where a home was shown with the tropical trees and fruits gracing the trees in the foreground. Mr. Boedecker thinks the south one of the best places for the winter imaginable.

Forgot Murray Was on the Map.

The Missouri Pacific, which makes regular stops with the midnight train going south at Murray, last Sunday forgot that there was such a place as Murray, and with fifteen passengers for this place, flew past this town as if there was nothing of the kind in existence. They did not stop until they had arrived at Union and while some hired conveyances and returned to Murray immediately the most of them remained at Union until the morning train north and came home on it. This incident has not in any way increased the admiration of the Murray people for the Missouri Pacific railway.

Are Visiting Daughter in South.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wiles and son Everett departed last Wednesday for the south, going to Phoenix, Arizona, where they go to visit a daughter, Mrs. John Beckman, who with her family went there several weeks ago and where they are making their home at present. The move was made in the hopes that the change of climate would be beneficial to the health of Mrs. Beckman, who is in delicate health anyway with some lung trouble. Mr. Wiles and wife and son go to visit with the daughter and sister and the remainder of the family. Mr. Beckman is working in the cotton fields at this time and likes the country very well.

Had Birthday Reception.

Last Monday evening Harley Puls, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Puls, extended a birthday reception to ten of his little friends in Murray at which time they played games and gave prizes to the winners, and were served with an excellent luncheon by Mrs. Puls. The young fellows had an excellent time and on departing declared Master Harley and his mother the best entertainers. Master Harley was the recipient of many presents, tokens of the friendship of his fellows who were there as sisting Master Harley enjoy the occasion, the following young Americans: Will Minford, Everett Larue, Lester Long, Lester, Clell and Leon Gansemer, Harry Puls, Henry Hill, Dick March and Charles Barrows.

James Dellesdernier Very Sick

James Dellesdernier, who has been feeling far from well during all of the past summer, was suddenly taken worse a few days since and on last Sunday, was taken to Omaha where he entered the Methodist hospital and on Monday underwent an operation for the removal of gall stones. The case was an acute one, and should have been attended to before. Mr. Dellesdernier has not shown the slightest improvement since the operation, and the family were requested to come to his bedside the fore part of the week. On Tuesday he was reported as just holding his own.

Col. W. E. Jenkins was called to Omaha last Monday to look after some business matters, making the trip in his new Universal car.

Miss Laura Puls was a visitor at the home of her father, William Puls, last Sunday and returned to her work in Omaha on Monday morning on the early train.

Misses Vera and Marjory Moore were visiting with friends in Plattsmouth the early portion of the week, going to that place on the evening train last Tuesday.

George Jenkins, who is attending a business college in Omaha, was a visitor at the home of his mother in that city for over Sunday returning to his studies last Monday.

W. H. Puls, William Puls, Sr., and Fred Hill and families were in attendance last Sunday at the funeral of Charles C. Hennings, which occurred at the Glendale church just east of Louisville.

REVIVAL MEETINGS ARE PROVING SUCCESSFUL

Good Attendance and Much Interest Manifested at the Beginning of Series.

There was marked interest shown at the initial service of Rev. Levi W. Scott at the beginning of the revival which he is holding at the Christian church at Murray, and a good attendance and during the fore part of the week. Many people are not through with the peking of their corn, and it is not expected the attendance would be as large until after the completion of the corn harvest. Those in charge of the meetings are well pleased with the interest thus far shown, and are encouraged to believe that much good will result from the series of meetings which have been inaugurated.

Murray Christian Church.

This week is the first of a series of revival meetings at the Christian church. Brother Scott, the Plattsmouth pastor, is conducting the meeting and his wife is leading the singing. The finances of the meeting are cared for in advance, so feel perfectly free to come and enjoy the service and work with us. Brother Scott preaches seven nights each week at 7:30 and Sunday morning at 11. A cordial invitation is extended to you all.

Remember our growing Bible school. Short story at 9:45. Opening exercises at 10. A class for everyone.

C. E. HANNAN, Minister.

Were Attending School Meeting.

Last Tuesday the members of the Murray school board, consisting of L. D. Hiatt, W. G. Boedecker, and G. M. Minford, accompanied by C. D. Spangler, were visiting in Plattsmouth where they were attending the meeting of the ones who had in hand the redistricting of the county for the purpose of making the districts larger, that they might be entitled to larger schools. The gentlemen were in attendance at the meeting and were offering reasons why the Murray district could not have a district extending to the Missouri river as the roads are very bad, and the country and the distance great. What will be done in the matter was not definitely settled at the time of the return of the Murray board of education.

Visited With Friends Here.

Last Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, the former the brother of Mrs. J. W. Berger of Murray, arrived from Lincoln where they have been visiting for some time, and are visiting at the Berger home for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have been making their home near Hinton, Oklahoma, but have just sold their place there and will, after having visited their many friends and relatives, depart for the west and will make California their home in the future.

Goes to Hospital for Treatment.

Sherman Rainey, who sometime during the month of September received a kick on one of his legs from a horse, has been suffering lately with much pain in his knee, and accompanied by great swelling. Upon the advice of his physician, Dr. Brendel, departed for Omaha last Tuesday morning for consultation with a specialist.

Returned From Visit in Lincoln.

Early last week A. L. Baker, who has been in Lincoln for some time, returned home, after having been at the bed side of his brother-in-law, E. A. Burton, who was stricken with paralysis of the nerves, and who after several days of sickness, died at his home in that city. After remaining for the funeral Mr. Baker returned home. Mr. Burton will be remembered as having lived in Murray for many years. The family will make their home in Lincoln for the present.

Cows Sold Well Last Week.

The cows which were sold at Murray for dairy purposes last week brought good prices. While they were brought to Murray and offered for sale with nothing but a short time for examination, the 22 head which were offered for sale, brought $2,400, or on an average of $109.09 each. The highest bringing $151, while the lowest was considerably under a hundred, this being for a cow that needed no guardian, she being of mature age. Only two sold for less than a hundred dollars. Col. W. R. Young conducted the sale.

CO-OPERATION

According to Webster is "working together for the same end."

Why can't this be applied to our community? If the town and business institutions of Murray are an asset to the community, the better they are the more service they can give, and the more value to the community and to each individual. A prosperous town is but the reflection of prosperous surroundings. You will never find a prosperous town in a dead community, for the simple reason it is the bonding together of individuals that make a community, and as the people are so is the community. Our town cannot prosper at the expense of the farmer or the farmer at the expense of the town—at least no lasting prosperity can be assured in this way. But by proper co-operation in working together, things can be accomplished that will not only build up our own and add value to surrounding property, but will make this the best community in the world in which to live. When we begin to realize that by helping one another we are only helping ourselves, there will be less knocking and more boosting.
