VERY QUIET SUNDAY.

From Monday's Daily.

With the fuel restrictions in effect and the snowy weather prevailing Sunday was very much of a day of quietude in Plattsmouth and especially in the business section of the city during the day and last evening and only a very few of the residents ventured down to the main part of the city, preferring the warmth and cheeriness of the home fires to the uncertain warmth of the few business houses that were open. A few of the sportsmen of the city could be seen going out after the elusive rabbit and a number made some very creditable showings in their game bag on the return trip but the greater part were disappointed in the fact that the rabbits kept close to their holes during the day. The fact that the churches and theaters were dark last evening made the Sunday evening one that was most favorable for an early retiring.

CHRISTMAS SHOP AT SAMPLE ROOM

From Wednesday's Daily.

The ladies of the St. Mary's guild who have been planning for their big Christmas shop for several months will hold the shop this week at the sample room in the Hotel Wagner building instead of at the Red Cross rooms as had at first been announced. The rooms will be pleasantly arranged and here the results of the many months of work on the dainty needlework will be offered for the inspection of the Christmas shopper. The prices will be in reach of any purse and the line shown will be complete in every way. When you are looking for a dainty gift do not fail to visit the Christmas shop of the St. Mary's guild.

A BIG NIGHT IN LOCAL B. P. O. E. CIRCLES

PLATTSMOUTH LODGE TAKES IN 11 NEW MEMBERS AT SESSION LAST NIGHT.

OYSTER SUPPER WAS SERVED

Following the Initiation That Proves Big Hit With Members—New Brothers Are Greeted.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening was one of the most notable events in local Elksdom when 11 new members were initiated into the mysteries of the order and the attendance at the lodge was the largest for some time. The initiatory work of the order was administered by the officers of the lodge in an impressive manner, bringing to the new members a fitting appreciation of the lofty principles upon which this great order of brotherly love is established.

The work of the lodge occupied several hours and it was quite late when the work of initiation was completed and the members invited to partake of the fine oyster supper with all the suitable trimmings which had been prepared for the hungry Elks and it is needless to say that every member of the order did full justice to the repast provided for them. The oyster supper was looked after by Brothers E. G. Shellenberger, W. H. Krecklow, Guy White and Carl Wohlfarth and they saw that nothing was omitted from the menu that might add to the pleasure of the evening.

The class recited into the order last evening consisted of W. H. Hesselberg, Cedar Creek, Harley G. Wiles, Wallace Warner, Eugene Lister, George Krivanek, Albert Miller, August Bach, Fred Lugsch, A. A. Stillger, John Wichman, Charles Dovey.

The Plattsmouth lodge of Elks has in the past year gained a large number of new members which now makes it one of the leading orders of city in number and influence and in their beautiful home members of the order find a great pleasure in the fraternal gatherings such as are found only in the places where the Elks abide.

GOLDEST WEATHER OF THE WINTER

Last Night Scores Record for Cold and Mercury Reaches 24 Below Early This Morning.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The warnings sent as to the approaching cold wave yesterday made good when by nightfall the temperature took a sudden drop and the mercury began to show the inhabitants that it was to be the coldest night of the winter so far and was practically as cold as it usually gets at any time of the winter. The shortage of fuel added a tragic like touch to the cold spell as it was necessary to use more of the rapidly diminishing coal supply that lies between the people of the community and freezing. The extreme cold extends from the Rocky mountains to the lake region and the temperatures range from 40 to 35 below to 20 and 25 in the eastern portion of the storm swept areas.

The clearing skies give promise of some slight relief from the extreme cold but it will require several days before the full effect of the storm period passes.

FIRE IN NORTH PART OF CITY.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening shortly after 8 o'clock a small frame shed at the home of Mrs. J. C. Ptak on North Sixth street was discovered by a number of the neighbors to be in flames and a few minutes later the shed was burning merrily. The fire alarm was sounded as soon as the discovery of the blaze and D. C. Morgan, June Marshall, Ben Windham and Frank E. Schlater, residing in the neighborhood responded to the call and by the use of snow succeeded in preventing the blaze spreading to a number of small frame buildings adjacent. The fire department was handicapped somewhat by the deep snow in reaching the scene but on their arrival soon had the flames extinguished. The loss to Mrs. Ptak will be in neighborhood of $200 which is partially covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is not known as there was only a small amount of fuel in the shed at the time and a case of combustion seems unlikely.

POLLARD ON COMMITTEES.

From Wednesday's Daily. Hon. Ernest M. Pollard, Cass county representative in the Nebraska constitutional convention, has been assigned to work on two of the most important committees of the convention that will frame the fundamental laws of the state. Mr. Pollard will serve on the committee on private corporations and associations and also on that of revenue and taxation. His long experience in the legislature as well as in congress will be of much value to the committee in formulating the measures relating to the raising of revenue for the state.

CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT OF THE SHOP

R. J. Erehart Leases Tonsorial Parlor of A. J. Trilety on South Side of Main Street.

From Wednesday's Daily.

A few days ago R. J. Erehart consummated a deal for the lease of the A. J. Trilety barber shop on the south side of Main street and is now in charge of the business. Mr. Erehart plans to conduct the place as a two chair shop and has secured the services of E. G. Shellenberger, who recently conducted the Wagner hotel shop.

Electric hair clippers and other improved appliances are on the way, and as soon as they arrive will be installed by Mr. Erehart, to the end that he may best serve his patrons.

In an ad found elsewhere in today's issue of the Journal, Mr. Erehart extends an invitation to former customers of the shop and new ones as well to drop in and get acquainted, with an assurance of courteous treatment and painstaking work.

ST. MARY'S GUILD IS ENTERTAINED

Beautiful Home of Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Cummins Scene of Very Pleasant Gathering.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of St. Mary's guild were entertained in one of the most pleasing meetings of the year at the home of Mrs. F. L. Cummins on Pearl street and despite the inclement weather a very pleasing attendance of the membership was present to enjoy the afternoon. Mrs. Cummins was assisted in entertaining by Miss Kittie Cummins and Mrs. Earl R. Travis. The beautiful home of the Cummins family made a fitting setting for the pleasant event and here the ladies spent several hours in completing the work that is to be placed on sale at the Christmas shop on Friday and Saturday which the guild is to give and which time all the dainty things which the ladies have been preparing for several months will be offered for sale. During the afternoon dainty and enjoyable refreshments were served. Mrs. C. G. Fricke assisted in serving.

SHOWING VERY GOOD PROGRESS

Stanley Kuhns, Who Was Injured Very Badly Some Time Ago Showing Improvement.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The many friends of the J. H. Kuhns family will be pleased to learn that Stanley Kuhns, who was badly injured some weeks ago at Los Angeles by a fall from one of the new buildings being erected there and on which Stanley was employed as a workman, is showing improvement. The injured man has been in the hospital since the time of the accident and advices from that city state that the attending physicians who have had charge of his case have decided that it will not be necessary to amputate one of the lower limbs of the young man as was at first feared would be necessary. It seems that in the fall Stanley hit on his feet from a fall of sixty feet and the muscles and bones of both feet were badly broken and for a time it was thought that the amputation of at least one of the feet and possibly both would be necessary to save the young man but fortunately this phase of the case has improved. It will however be necessary to have an operation performed to give the young man the full use of his feet again.

DEATH OF ADAM KAFFENBERGER, SR.

ONE OF PLATTSMOUTH'S ESTEEMED RESIDENTS PASSES AWAY LAST EVENING.

A PIONEER OF CASS COUNTY

Came to Cass County in 1870. Made Home on Farm Until Four Years Ago Then Came to City.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Death has once more visited our community and taken away one of old settlers whose best years of life has been spent in the community of which he was such a valuable and worthy member. Adam Kaffenberger, Sr., passed away at his home in the west part of the city after a long period of very poor health, and while he had been feeling poorly for a long time death came suddenly to him and brought painlessly the sleep and rest that the long and earnest life of the kind friend and neighbor had earned in his long years of life.

Adam Kaffenberger was a native of Hessen-Darmstadt, Germany, where he was born on January 26, 1848, and was at the time of his death 71 years and 10 months of age. He spent his early boyhood in the native province of Germany but heeding the call of fortune he came to the United States in 1865 when a lad of 17 years to seek his fortune in the vast farming country of the new world. For four years he resided in Illinois, in the settlement where so many of his countrymen had located and came in 1870 to Cass county, Nebraska, where he spent a long period of years in the pursuit of farming. On February 12, 1877, he was united in marriage with Miss Wilhelmina Nolting at Plattsmouth and since that time this worthy couple have assisted in the progress and growth of the community in which they have made their home. To bless this union 10 children were born, one of whom died in infancy and nine of whom with the wife and mother remain to mourn their loved one. The children are Mrs. Julie Helflicker, Cullom; Mrs. George Stoehr, Cedar Creek; John Kaffenberger, Cedar Creek; Adam Kaffenberger, Jr., of Manila, South Dakota; Fred Kaffenberger and Mrs. Clarence Meisinger of near Cedar Creek; Michael and August Kaffenberger, residing near Plattsmouth, and Miss Mable Kaffenberger, residing at the parental home. Two brothers, John Kaffenberger, Sr., and George A. Kaffenberger of Lincoln are left to mourn the death of the brother as well as three sisters all of whom reside near the old home in Germany.

MAKES CONDITIONS MUCH BETTER HERE

Citizens Who Show Regard for Fellow Man by Cleaning Off Sidewalks After Storm.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Public spirited citizens who disregarding their personal comfort after the snow storms and cleaned off the sidewalks and opened the way to travel along the streets of the city are certainly entitled to a vote of thanks from the community for the interest shown in the well being and comfort of their fellow citizens. The city council in their unsolicited recognition of several of these parties showed the proper spirit in giving them a slight acknowledgment of the services they had performed. A number of our people have each year gotten out and cleaning off the walks leading to the schools and churches on Sunday that proved a great help to the women and children who were compelled to travel these walks while other have come out with snow plows and teams and opened up the streets to travel. Surely such acts of kindness will be appreciated by the people of the community.

TAKING A REST.

W. T. Milburn, one of the section men of the Burlington, is taking an enforced layoff as the result of a badly sprained wrist that is keeping him from his usual labors. Mrs. Milburn was coming down hill on East Granite street Monday morning and walking on the ice coated sidewalk slipped and started to fall and to save a bad fall threw out his right arm and twisted the wrist in such a manner as to cause a severe sprain.

AUTO ROADS

—TO—

OMAHA

For the benefit of the Automobile Traveling Public who are continually calling us to inquire "How are the Auto Roads to Omaha."

We will state that very few people who drive automobiles realize the fact that a snow road well broken and packed is better than the average summer roads, which are usually either too dusty or too muddy for comfortable traveling.

For the past few weeks our snow roads have been splendid and until Monday night of this week there has been a large amount of automobile travel thru Plattsmouth.

Since the snow fall of Monday the roads have been opened up again and travel has again been resumed between Plattsmouth and Omaha and surrounding towns.

Another day or so will make the roads ideal for automobile traveling.

Get out your Sedan, Coupe or your Touring car with its side curtains up and convince yourselves that automobile driving over the snow roads is perfectly practical and highly enjoyable.

We will try and keep the Public informed on the road conditions.
