A WOMAN'S BACK

The Advice of This Plattsmouth Woman is of Certain Value.

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains. Ofttimes 'tis the kidneys' fault. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Many Plattsmouth women know this. Ask your neighbor! Read what one has to say about it:

Mrs. Hettie Cummings, Chicago Ave., Plattsmouth, says: "I suffered so severely with my back at times, I could hardly get about. When I got down, I had to take hold of something before I could straighten. Sharp pains often caught me across my kidneys and for a minute I couldn't move. The pains were so severe, I couldn't rest well, my back ached so badly. I tried different remedies, but nothing did me any good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Three boxes overcame that awful misery in my back and made me feel like a different person."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cummings had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MYNARD NEWS ITEMS

Special Correspondence

Mrs. Wm. Wetenkamp and Grant occupy the Methodist parsonage.

Watch for the Mynard news items in each succeeding week's issue of the Journal.

Charles Barnard is the same old 6 and 7 and is doing nicely on the Silas Long farm.

Monroe Batman and family moved from the farm last fall and live in one of W. B. Porter's houses.

A. C. Carey is counted among the Mynard population and the family lives in the Frank Marler property.

The Misses Brown are still living in their home formerly owned by Wm. Murray. Both are teaching school and doing nicely.

Dad Schloeman holds forth in the little house close to the elevator and looks after the interests of R. L. Propst's holdings in the village.

Mike Rys, the congenial blacksmith, rooms in part of Mrs. Adam Meisinger's residence and has his place of work in the blacksmith shop of R. L. Propst.

Henry Johnson and wife, Laura, are living in the property recently purchased from Mrs. Henton, formerly of Mynard, but now a resident of Scottsbluff, Nebraska.

Art Jacoby continues along the line of trapping fur animals and he holds forth in the Ben Marler residence. But, understand, he does his own cooking and housework.

Ralph Wiles has sold the farm recently purchased from R. L. Propst. O. S. Cole was the purchaser. Ralph bought the Henry Eikenbary farm and will move onto it in the spring.

W. T. Richardson conducts a general store where you can buy most anything you are in want of. He is also the Mynard postmaster and sees that you get your mail promptly.

Jeff Salsburg has charge of the elevator south of Main street and Nelson Jean of the one on the north side. Both are doing a good business in handling grain. Jean also buys and ships live stock.

A number of changes have taken place in the precinct during the past year and the coming spring will see more as farms have been changing hands more frequently since the advancing price of land than before.

However, W. F. Gillispie has moved to the county seat and we understand he has erected one of the finest, up-to-date modern homes in the city. We are sorry to lose so worthy a citizen, but our loss will be the city's gain. Success to you, Bill.

Mynard is coming to the limelight along with W. J. Bryan. It has been many months since ye correspondent has said anything about our village. But we are here and here to stay. High cost of living cuts no figure—we are all happy and have plenty to eat and coal to burn.

And now we come to Uncle Lewis Crabtree, the wholesaler, congenial harness maker, whose leather is oak tan and full measure. Shorty Woodward is plying the harness needle and oiling harness as the business is very rushing at this time of year and Shorty understands the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Verner Perry and children of Blue Springs, Nebr., were guests at the Neihart home on Tuesday.

Mrs. D. A. Youtsey has returned from her visit with friends in Nova Scotia and Boston. She reports having had a splendid time. The elder seems more cheerful since her return.

Fred Muenchau was a visitor to Eagle on Monday evening for a visit and to attend to some business in connection with republican precinct chairman of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller and babe of Lincoln were visitors New Year's day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and the John Stark home. Mrs. Miller and baby remained for several days' visit.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Parriott, who is two weeks old, seems to have had an attack of the "sleeping disease" and has slept continuously for three or four days. This seems to be a peculiar malady and the victim comes out all right in time. Proper medical aid as well as feeding has been administered the little one and at the present time every indication shows that she will be all right again soon.

On Tuesday morning three car loads of hogs and one of cattle were shipped from this place to Omaha. Those making the shipment were Wm. Bornemeier, Paul Bornemeier, Carl Rickert, Wm. Rucker and Lorenz Aibers. These gentlemen accompanied the shipment. The hogs were a fine bunch and averaged 225 pound, a very even bunch. William Bornemeier had a bunch that came close to 300 pounds. This was a fine bunch of porkers and it did a fellow good to get a squint at them. Otto Stege also shipped some hogs and cattle in this shipment.

LOUISVILLE

Courier

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hennings are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at their home southeast of town on Friday, January 2, 1920.

Joe Spence and wife of Maywood, Nebraska, are here visiting with relatives. At present Mrs. Spence is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Valley, near Plattsmouth. They also spent a week in Lincoln visiting at the home of Mr. Spence's parents.

Mrs. Amelle Schoeman returned last Wednesday from Lawton, Oklahoma, where she has been for the past three months visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Frampton. She left on Monday for Auburn, Nebraska, where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Adam Rentschler.

Jim Terryberry and Chas. Gerlach returned Sunday from a trip to Texas, about three hundred miles west of Galveston. Mr. Terryberry says Texas is a great country, especially at this time of the year. All kinds of garden truck is at its best, flowers are blooming and children are running barefooted. It was quite a change to come back to the land of snow and close to zero weather.

E. C. Twiss received a letter from his brother, Ull Twiss, at Cokeville, Wyoming, in which he states that the winter is most severe in that part of the country and the snow is unusually deep. He also stated that his son has arrived home from Siberia. He was a machine gunner and saw some real warfare. He was in a machine gun nest when all of his comrades were exterminated. As Ull explained it, "He fit like the devil in a hand to hand contest after his companions were all killed and came out alive."

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jameson and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis attended the wedding of their niece, Miss Pauline Davis, of Lincoln to Mr. Dan Kepler of Broken Bow, which occurred New Year's day at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Kate W. Davis at 1712 P street. A large number of relatives and friends were present including relatives from Ohio. The young people will make their home at Broken Bow.

R. W. Porter arrived Friday night with his emigrant car from Creighton, Nebr. Among other things in the car was a fine bunch of thoroughbred hogs which he expects to make a specialty of raising. Mr. Porter is the man who bought the Chris Miller farm just south of town and also bought the John Ruhga tenant house to move onto the farm. On account of bad weather the house has only been moved about a half mile, so Mr. Porter rented the Mennonite parsonage and moved into it until he can get the house moved the rest of the way and get it in shape to live in.

An oyster supper was given by the Merry-go-round Kensington at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heebner December 31st. The rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers and the dainty set tables appealed to one's appetite. The ladies all brought a bountiful supply of good things to eat and thus with Mrs. Heebner's generous share, we had a fine dinner. The day was enjoyed by everyone. Some very good music was furnished by different persons and the afternoon passed all too quickly. The ladies all enjoyed a little visit with Grandma Fleming, who, we are sorry to say, was unable to leave her room on account of illness. We want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Heebner and family for giving us the opportunity to spend such a delightful day. Those present were Mrs. Catherine Corbet, Mrs. D. C. West, Mr. and Mrs. John Wunderlich, Mrs. Peter Stoll and son, Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen and daughter Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wunderlich, Mr. Hans Stoll and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murdock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hansen and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Knabe and family, Mr.

and Mrs. W. A. Stoll and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Fitch and son, Mrs. Jesse Westlake and sons of Eagle, Miss Etta Schwartz, William Oberholte, Andrew Poulsen, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heebner and family and Pauline, Laverne and Sterling Ingwersen.

Claud Barrett expects to leave today for Texas to look after his farm interests.

Sergeant Harry Renner came out from Lincoln Saturday night to spend Sunday with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lanning left Sunday for California, where they will spend a couple of months enjoying the salubrious climate and orange blossoms. They also expect to visit relatives in New Mexico and other places.

The local town basket ball team was defeated by the Unadilla team in an interesting game at Barrett's hall on Monday evening. Although the Eaglites speeded up in the second half they were unable to overcome their opponents' 12 to 5 lead and the game ended with a score of 19 to 15 in favor of the visitors. Nehawka plays at Eagle Friday night.

Last Sunday night what might easily have proven a serious accident occurred at the O street crossing, three miles west of Eagle when the 11 o'clock passenger ran into a Chevrolet and smashed it up pretty badly. The car was occupied by Miss Ella Rockenbach and a gentleman from Palmyra, who, we understand, was taking her home from a visit to that town. For some reason the engine went dead with the front wheels on the track just as the train came along, and before the occupants had time to dismount struck the auto. Miss Rockenbach received some painful injuries but we are informed not serious. The train stopped at once and brought the young lady to Eagle and she was taken to her home the following morning.

Ernest Pautsch, who has been the manager for the past six years, tendered his resignation. Mr. Pautsch had previously been prevailed upon to continue to manage the business but he refused because of the amount of labor attached to the position.

After accepting his resignation Elmer Johnson was chosen to succeed him as manager. Mr. Johnson is a young man of business ability, and stands very high in the community and it is predicted that under his management the business of the concern will continue to prosper in the future as it has in the past under Mr. Pautsch's management.

A dividend of 15 per cent was declared for the past year. This in addition to a $43 surplus paid each stock holder some time ago. Not a bad investment—$48 interest on a $100 share. There may be more than one cause for this, but one thing is certain, good management had its share in the success of the concern. —Louisville Courier.

Miss Mary Becker and Fannie McCarrall were afternoon passengers to Plattsmouth Tuesday, to attend a meeting of the Eastern Star, at which Miss McCarrall was initiated into the lodge. They were guests of Mrs. Mary Allison for the night and returned home the following morning.

The American Legion of Honor meeting held at the auditorium Monday evening was well attended, 23 ex-service men being present. The evening was spent in organizing and in the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Walter G. Wunderlich, post commander; Hal A. Pollard and Fred O. Stoll, vice commander; James W. Thomas, adjutant; Marion M. Tucker, finance officer; Alfred C. Anderson, secretary. More meetings will be held in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ross, while visiting at the home of Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rough last Thursday evening, were given a serenade they are not likely to forget for some time. About forty of their friends rushed in on them and proceeded to entertain them by sounding every possible musical instrument imaginable, from a dish pan to a double barreled shot gun. After gaining admittance to the house, the serenaders were well paid for their efforts. There was an abundance of eats and everyone present is positive that the young couple have liberally paid their charivari dues, and all wish them happiness and success in years to come.
