PLATTSMOUTH SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL

Senator Fall, who is running the Mexican investigation now under way at border towns, has been the leading sensational critic of Mexico. This was natural, since he came from a border state which suffered most bitterly from border disturbances. It may be that Senator Fall is at the same time judiciously poised in his attitude toward Mevico. But he has so long appeared in the light of prosecuting attorney rather than judge that this will be doubted. In consequence, the investigation now under way will not have the value it ought to have. If the senate
