OVER THE COUNTY

LOUISVILLE Courier.

August Pantech and Charles Lau spent several days of this week cutting and sawing wood in the timber on Theodore Helm's land southwest of town.

Mrs. John Koop was called to Manley on Wednesday of last week, January 21, 1920, to welcome a little grandson who arrived at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bergman. Their many friends in this vicinity extend hearty congratulations.

George Schoeman's sale of the old Lehnhoff farm at College Hill last Friday was successfully carried out as advertised, being well attended and everything brought very good prices. Mr. Schoeman will move to Louisville into the former C. M. Seybert house on Cherry street, which he recently purchased and where his friends hope he will enjoy life and recover his health, the latter being the cause of his retiring from the farm.

Albert Kraft, son of Mrs. Anna Kraft, living in the country south of town, suffered a painful injury while skating on the sandpit Friday night, when he fell and fractured the bone in his right arm below the elbow, and also tore the ligaments of his arm. This happened the same night that Miss Endicott broke her hand, while skating, and as Dr. Worthman was out of town, Albert had his hand dressed by a Springfield doctor. He suffers considerably from it and will be laid up for several weeks.

H. P. Hansen came down from his farm near Neligh, Nebraska, Monday bringing a car of cattle to the Omaha market. Being so near, he just couldn't resist coming on down to see the folks in the old town. He said he struck a low market, receiving 11 1/2 cents for them, but at that price his yearling steers brought him better than $80 per head. He says hay is worth $20 per ton and alfalfa from $30 to $35 per ton. Mr. Hansen formerly lived at Cedar Creek and is well known in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stander have returned from their honeymoon trip to Oklahoma and for the present are staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stander, west of Louisville. Mrs. Stander was formerly Miss Isa Nichols, of Greenwood, and is well known in this locality, as she taught the College Hill school very successfully before her marriage. The young couple were visiting in Louisville last Saturday with relatives when Mrs. Stander received the sad news of her father's death at Greenwood and they cut their visit short and left for that place at once.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

Charles and Otto Fleischman shipped a car load of hogs to Omaha on Tuesday. Clyde Hoover shipped a car of cattle and Mr. Hoover and John Stokes accompanied the shipment. J. F. Hoover, the stock buyer, shipped a car of hogs to Nebraska City on Tuesday.

On last Saturday two real estate deals were put through by Ed Gustin, when he sold the Jack McCabe place in town to George Kunz. Mr. Kunz originally owned this place, which is known as the Ferguson place. We anticipate that George will put a fine modern residence on the corner lot this summer.

Wm. Hulfish, who has been janitor of the Elmwood school for the past twenty years, and who has been so faithful in his duties, resigned his position, taking effect Monday. Bill states his reasons for this act, but a good many are sorry to see him give up the janitorship. Wm. Brown has been appointed to take his place.

On Tuesday night at 11 o'clock, Grandpa Gillett died at his home in this city after a long siege of a number of months. Mr. Gillett had passed his 80th birthday. He was well known by all here and was a highly respected man in whom his neighbors and friends had the greatest confidence. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon.

On Sunday, January 25, 1920, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gonzales died at the home of Mrs. Gonzales' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, in this city. The little one had been sick for some time with eczema. She was born Christmas day, 1919. Funeral services were conducted at the Chas. Bailey home by Rev. S. W. Longacre. The quartet was composed of Cora and Helen Williams, Grace Rogge and Opal Turner, who sang very appropriately. Interment was made in the Elmwood cemetery. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of their host of friends in their sad hours of affliction.

NEHAWKA News

Henry Koop of Bertrand, Neb., was here this week visiting John Schwartz and wife and other relatives and friends. Mr. Koop has been away from home about three weeks, but leaves today for home. He was at one time a resident of this place.

Nelson Berger shipped a car of cattle to Omaha Monday and went up the following morning to see them sold. His mother and sister accompanied him where the sister took the train for Memphis to visit a sister, while Mrs. Berger remained to have dental work done.

John G. Wunderlich has purchased the Henry Gruber residence and two lots in Nehawka, and we understand is to make it his home. This is a rather desirable property and we are glad to know that Mr. and Mrs. Wunderlich, when they retire from the farm soon, will cast their fortunes among us.

Word was received here the first of the week that Floyd Fleming, who formerly made his home here was married in Omaha a short time ago. Mr. Fleming now has charge of the Douglas Quick Lunch restaurant in Omaha. His many friends here extend the newlyweds their heartiest congratulations and wish him success at his new occupation.

Anna (Murdin) Harris of Hanover, Kas. died at her home in that city Tuesday morning, January 27. The remains will be brought to Nehawka today for interment in the family lot in Mt. Pleasant cemetery. John Doughty, who has charge of the funeral arrangements here received no instructions in the telegram regarding the funeral services but expected further instructions later. The Murdins were at one time residents of this county at Factoryville and are well known to the pioneers of southeast Cass county.

W. W. Davis got his hand quite badly burned last Friday while working on a car at the G. H. Dennis carpenter shop basement and the idea that there was no danger with gasoline around an electric light was disproved. Mr. Davis had some gasoline in an open can to clean the car and as it was dark in the basement was using an electric trouble light which was hanging on the car and fell striking fairly in the gasoline. The cold gas coming in contact with the hot globe broke the globe and the flash ignited the gas which made a lively blaze for a time but on account of the cement floor no serious damage was done other than the injury to Mr. Davis.

Our fire company met Friday afternoon to revise the company and elect new officers. Nine new members were added to the company; two more will join, which will bring the company up to full strength with a membership of eighteen. The new officers elected were as follows: W. L. Hobson, president; C. H. Gibson, vice-president; V. E. Smith, secretary; A. H. Jones, treasurer; C. H. Gibson, chief, the latter appointing G. R. Binger as foreman. Among other matters that were taken up for the betterment and efficiency of the company was the plan of V. E. Smith to install a siren fire alarm. The boys should have the aid and support of the town in their new work and plans.

EAGLE Beacon

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wall have a little girl at their home, born last Friday, January 23.

Will Hudson left Wednesday for western Nebraska to look after business matters.

Orris Knapton, Art Gardner and Wallace Burns left this morning for western Nebraska, where it is said there is still corn to be shucked before spring work can open.

Eagle high school, with her colors flying high, defeated both Alvo basket ball teams Wednesday evening. Then the Eagle town team defeated Alvo 48 to 10. The boys' game was 20, Alvo 13; girls' game, Eagle 27, Alvo 17. Cap Renner was off the first half.

The Elmwood-Eagle game Monday night was also won by the home team by a score of 18 to 11.

A petition was circulated and generously signed last Saturday requesting the Missouri Pacific railway to provide an agent for the morning train, or at least a fire for the comfort of waiting passenger. Under present arrangements the agent does not go on duty till 7:45, and there is no means of knowing how late the train is until he comes.

The Bank of Eagle is remodeling the building to such an extent as to make it practically a new one. An addition will be built on the east which will give them much more room, an entire new front is to be put in and the highest quality of up-to-date fixtures will be installed. This will make it one of the handsomest interiors of any small town bank in the state.
