YOUNG MAN GOES TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Con Lakoto Arraigned on Preliminary Hearing and Then to District Court Where Pleads Guilty.

From Friday's Daily.

This morning Con Lakoto, the young man who was discovered Wednesday night breaking into the store of H. Walatroub, was given a sentence to the state reformatory at Kearney, Neb., as the result of his crime. The young man has had a varied experience during his few years of life judging from what can be learned of his past and the present offense is not the first in which he has been engaged. He has had previous experience with the gentle art of burglary which caused him to draw a sentence in Douglas county but was later paroled to the Salvation Army and then disappeared to re-appear later in this city with the old habit of breaking into places still strong upon him.

He was brought before Judge M. Archer on his preliminary hearing and on the reading of the charge entered a plea of guilty and waived the preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court where he was placed on trial before Judge Begley and entered a plea of guilty to the charge preferred against him. The court after hearing the statement of the case sentenced the youthful burglar to the Nebraska state reformatory at Kearney and as he is only 17 years of age from his statement he will have several years to spend in the institution for youthful offenders.
