SERVICE

is a word you often see in advertising—with many it is only a word—here it is an actual fact. Service means to us just what it means to you. Service is something we practice as sincerely as we preach.

Bank of Union

UNION, NEB.

Rev. J. B. Taylor was a passenger to Omaha last Wednesday, where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Mrs. A. J. Stokes and son will move this week to the farm of C. W. Christy near Murray, and the place which has been farmed for some time past by Frank Hogue.

Miss Jessie Todd is reported as being sick at her home in Union, but it is hoped the illness will be of but short duration, and that she will soon be well again.

Misses Clarice and Amy Streight, of South Bend, were visitors in Union for a few days, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. McCowan, and also of their many young friends here.

Mrs. Mary Taylor and daughter, Miss Rachel, who are making their home at University Place, where Miss Rachel is attending school, were visitors with friends in Union over Sunday.

Fred Young, who has moved to the west, but who was here looking after some business matters, departed last Monday afternoon for Stratton, Colorado, where he will make his home in the future.

Mrs. Louis Straw, a granddaughter of Rev. and Mrs. Morrison, who makes her home at Syracuse, is reported as being very sick from the after-effects of influenza, and it is feared that an operation may have to be resorted to in order to relieve the affection on her lungs. Friends here who know her are hopeful that she may soon be on the road to recovery.

G. W. Cheney and family were visiting with friends in Plattsmouth last Sunday evening, driving up in their car.

Carl W. Stone and family, of Nebraska City last Sunday, driving over in their car.

Ray McMaken was a visitor in Union last Monday, driving a traveling man. On the trip they made Murray, Nehawka, Avoca, Weeping Water, Elmwood and Eagle.

Charles Bowdish was a business visitor in Avoca and Nehawka during the fore part of the week looking after completing the sale of some excellent lands which are located in eastern Colorado and have proven most productive of wheat.

Mrs. Geneva Kendall, who has been making her home at Milford for the past few months, returned the other day and will remain in Union for the present. While at Milford the good lady enjoyed herself very well, considering the fact that she was separated from her many friends here.

Wm. Pickering, formerly of Union, but for some time a resident of Carroll, this state, has been visiting in and near Union the past few days, returning last Tuesday evening to his home in the northwest. While here, Mr. Pickering was a guest at the home of his friend, Dean Austin, who accompanied him as far as Omaha when he enroute home, and tarried in the metropolis a few hours to look after some business matters.

Henry H. Becker was busy shredding fodder the first of the week at the farm of Robert Willis, L. W. Crawford departed for Hartington a short time ago, where he will make his home during the coming year.

A. L. Becker was a business visitor in Omaha last Tuesday, going up on the early morning Missouri Pacific train.

Ellis LaRue was a visitor in Nebraska City last Friday, where he attended a dance given by some of his friends.

R. D. Stine has been under the weather the past few days and has been confined to his home a part of the time.

C. W. Clarke, proprietor of the Union hotel, was a business visitor in Nebraska City for a few hours last Monday.

J. H. Brown, of near Murray, was a visitor in Union for a short time last Monday afternoon, coming to look after some business matters. John Frans, Frank Mead and John Finkle attended the dance in Nebraska City Saturday evening and report having had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gerkin visited with friends and acquaintances in Nehawka over the week end, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarroll.

Gust Minnier, who has made his home near Union for some time, moved to near Plattsmouth the first of the week, where he will farm during the coming summer.

Rue Frans and wife and Mrs. Jennie Frans, mother of the former, were looking after some business matters at Nebraska City last Monday afternoon, driving down in Mr. Frans' automobile.

Earl Merritt is doing some painting and decorating at the home of Charles Dycart, northeast of Union, near the home of Mrs. C. E. Frans, and wife. They spent the day together most pleasantly, recounting the time when they all lived in "Ole Virginia."

It is reported that a young man of the community made a hasty departure from Union a short time ago, fearing that some of his acts might bring down on his head something more than maledictions. It is that he was most fortunate in making his get-away.

Frank Boggs purchased a car at the sale on the Davis farm and has had the house to get warm, but the car is not yet in the hands of the owner with the intention of making it over into some useful article, that is unless he sells it at a handsome profit, and it is reported he can do that any time he chooses.

Miss Verna Harris, who is employed by the Sheldon Manufacturing company in the office at their plant in Nehawka, was a visitor at her home in Union over Sunday. She was accompanied by Miss Adeline Crow, another employe in the Sheldon company's offices, who visited here over the week end.

The sale held by Mrs. Clara Davis on the Davis farm, with Will Carraher, as manager, proved very successful, there being a large sized crowd and spirited bidding. Consequently the property offered all brought good prices. The weather was far from being favorable for conducting a sale, and many had to go to the house to get warm, but more eager bidders stuck it out and vied with each other for possession of the property offered.

Will Teach Factoryville School

Miss Bessie LaRue, who is one of the capable young women of Union, has accepted the tender of the Factoryville school and last Monday began her duties as teacher at that place. Miss LaRue is a capable young woman and will make a success at school teaching.

Has Purchased a Fine Home

J. D. Cross, manager of the Farmer's Co-operative store in Union, has just purchased a fine home, the one residence was formerly the residence of Rue Frans, and which is one of the finest residence properties in this part of the state. Mr. Frans has purchased a farm and will in a short time move to the country.

Will Have Services Sunday

Services at the Methodist church Sunday will include Bible school and preaching services in the morning, while in the afternoon both the Junior and the Intermediate Epworth Leagues will meet. In the evening the Senior Epworth League will meet followed by the usual preaching service. All are invited to attend these services.

Made the Trip in Car

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Eaton and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Shrader, which latter couple reside near Nehawka, departed in their cars a few days ago for Arriba, Colorado, where they will make their future home. They had shipped their household goods and furnishings a few days before in a car from Nehawka, and expected to reach their destination before the arrival of the goods.

These two families expect to meet with prosperity in the west and being progressive, hard working people they will no doubt make an excellent success of their endeavors and do well out there. At least this is the wish of their many friends in old Cass county.

Made Merry with Friends

The people of Union met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cross, where they tendered a farewell reception to the families of Messrs. and Mesdames Ray and Carl Cross, and a most entertaining time was had. The evening was spent in games and social conversation, including the expressed wishes of all present that good health, happiness and prosperity might be showered upon them in abundance in their new home in the west. The climax of the evening came in the delightful manner in which the hosts served the delicious refreshment and which were greatly enjoyed by those present.

Visited with Friends in Union

Editor A. B. Rutledge, of the Nehawka News-Ledger, and senior partner of the publishing company, was in Union a few hours last Monday looking after some business matters and meeting his old friends here. Mr. Rutledge is a very genial gentleman and with his son, who is one of the popular young men about Union, as well as at the county seat and in his home town of Nehawka, is making the News-Ledger a live newspaper, as well as succeeding financially in the business.

Getting Ready to Farm

Len Thacker, who by reason of his broad acquaintanceship, doesn't need any introduction to the people of Union, where he and his wife have a host of friends, has moved to near Union and will farm the George Eaton place this summer. Mr. Thacker is getting things in readiness for his spring and summer work.

Attend the Basket Supper

While you are helping to provide a library for the public school, have a good time as well. You are now presented an opportunity to do so for its purpose of the drawing together of the whole community for the purpose of securing funds for this excellent cause, when a box supper will be given at the M. W. A. hall on Friday, March 5th, the proceeds of which will be used for the purchase of books for the school library. The ladies are requested to bring boxes and baskets, containing a sufficient supply of food for two, and the gentlemen are requested to lay aside a liberal sum for the purchase of the boxes.

A program will be given and an excellent time is in store for all who attend. Come, have some fun, and at the same time assist in securing some good books for the boys and girls to read. Yes, you may enjoy them yourselves as well, as they will be for general distribution through the community the same as books from a public library.

A Rather Dangerous Place

The crossing over the Missouri Pacific tracks at the foot of Main street is developing into a very dangerous place, and near fatal accidents have occurred in plentiful number there of late. Some damage has been done and by the most miraculous escapes have lives been spared. Last Monday a string of ~~one~~ either slipped away or were left standing over the street and it was hours before an engine was sent to remove them so people could cross the tracks over the highway intended for uninterrupted travel. It looks like an electric zong should be placed there or a flagman employed to give warning of impending danger from the approach of trains and thus protect the lives of those who might desire to pass over the tracks.

Eben Peck Very Sick

E. E. Leach has been called to Eagle on account of the illness of his grandfather, Eben Peck, who is the father of Mrs. Mattie Leach. Although his advanced age is against him, it is hoped that he will soon be well again.

LATER—Mr. Peck passed away at his home in Eagle Monday evening, and the funeral is to occur Thursday. A more complete account of his life will be given in a later issue of the Journal.

Grand Daughter Has Arrived

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Swan are rejoicing because of the arrival at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Swan and husband, of the daintiest little bit of femininity, whose coming has gladdened the home of the parents as well as the heart of the grandparents. All connected are going nicely and notwithstanding appearances, Amanda Swan is expected to pull through.

Series of Special Sermons

Rev. J. B. Taylor of the Baptist church is inaugurating another of his special series of sermons, those this time touching upon the events at the Mount of Transfiguration. The first of the series will be delivered this coming Sunday morning and the culmination of the series will come on Easter morning, Sunday, April 4th. The subject next Sunday will be "Ascending the Mount," and the one the following Sunday "A View of the Master." Succeeding subjects in the order of their discussion will be, "A Talk with the Celestial Visitors," "The Awe of the Bewildered Disciples," "The Descent from the Summit," on Easter morning. All those who are interested in knowing more about the love and care of the Master, had better be in attendance at the Baptist church each week and get the benefit of this series of sermons in its entirety.

Will Hold Easter Program

Mrs. J. B. Taylor has in hand the matter of a program for the Easter services at the Baptist church and is preparing a delightful entertainment which will be given in conjunction with the regular sermon on Easter morning. One of the excellent features of the program will be the splendid special musical numbers and songs led by Miss Bessie LaRue, and provided through the courtesy of the young people of Union, among whom some very excellent talent is to be found.

Held Very Pleasant Meeting

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held an excellent meeting and program at the home of Mrs. J. B. Taylor Wednesday. A large number of the members were in attendance and an excellent time was had. The first on the program was an address by Rev. J. B. Taylor on the "Origin of the Bible," and which showed deep study in the subject on which he spoke. This was followed by a masterly address by Rev. L. Morrison, who spoke on "The Debt the Public Schools Owe to Christianity." In his reasoning, the logic of his remarks showed very profound research and an application of the facts to the question at hand. Superintendent McDonald of the public schools gave a very learned address on the subject of "Moral Education," emphasizing his remarks by applications of the effect on those who have come under the influence of good training and the results exhibited by those who lacked this requisite to good education. Miss Rabe and Professor Ward gave a beautiful instrumental recital, while Misses Crozier and Anderson sang a very pretty duet. The entire faculty of the public schools attended the evening program.

Will Hold Village Caucus

The voters of the village of Union will meet in mass caucus next Friday evening, March 5th, at 8:00 o'clock, for the purpose of considering the placing in nomination of eight candidates for village trustees at the coming spring election, and to secure some preference from the voters for the position of Clerk and Treasurer. All voters are urged to be present. The call has been signed by Mayor D. R. Frans and Clerk F. H. McCarthy.

PUBLIC SALE!

will be greatly missed by the patrons of the bank. He has been offered a splendid position in a bank at Peetz, Colorado, where relatives of Mrs. Wood now reside and where they visited last summer. Peetz is a flourishing little city and Mr. Wood feels that the opportunities for greater advancement justify the change. Their many friends in this vicinity wish them every success and happiness in their new home.

George Wood, who is now returning, has been at the head of the bookkeeping department of a large mercantile company in Montana, but since the death of his father a few years ago, he has felt a desire to be nearer his mother in her declining years and when the offer came to take his brother's place, he decided to make the change.

He needs no introduction to the people of Louisville, having lived here the greater part of his life. He is an expert accountant and the Home State bank is indeed fortunate in securing so experienced and popular a man to conduct its business affairs. He will move his family into the home of his brother when they leave—Louisville Courier.
