High School Notes

Mr. Voss, inspector of high schools, visited the school Thursday. He presented to the school, two State University "cornhuskers". During the storm last week, the flag rope was destroyed. The flag will be displayed as soon as a new rope can be obtained.

A letter was received from Leona Davis the latter part of last week, saying she was very much pleased with her work in the Lincoln high school. She says, "my work is heavy, but am taking swimming with my gymnasium work, which is lots of fun but my head goes down too easily."

The school has selected its basket ball team, although it is a little late in the season but we are planning for a successful year in 1920-21. The following boys are on the team. Chester Sporer, r f (Capt.); Gustav Bouten, l f; Barney Smith, c; Carl Dietl, r g; Will Minford, l g; substitutes: Lester Long, Dick March.

Albert Griffin, Anna Morgan and Charles Sporer received the highest grades in examination last quarter. The State school inspector visited the school last Monday.

The third grade has been studying about the Dutch people and have arranged the sand table with windmills and tulips to represent Holland.

Those neither absent or tardy during the past month were: Ruth Homan, Kathleen Tison, Margaret Mrasek, Opal Homan, Hubert Lakue, Mrasek, Opal Homan, Hubert LaRue, Emma Emsings, Lyle Lawton, Charles Sporer, William Mrasek, Lorena Durman, Norman Davis, Ernest Eppings, Madge Homan, Albert Griffin, William LaRue.

Lorene Hatchett was absent from school Monday because of sickness.

The seventh and eighth grades are enjoying their study of Euclidean. We know spring is here for the boys are playing marbles every spare minute of their time.

Increasing His Sales Force

A. Gansemmer, proprietor of the "Service store" has just engaged Miss Nida Cook, as a sales lady for his business house, and who will begin her duties as such on Monday next. Miss Cook is a very clever lady, and will in a short time make a very valuable saleswoman for this very popular store. Mr. Gansemmer, who has much business to look after outside of the store, will thus, by increasing the sales force of the business, be enabled to look after the other business on the outside, which is demanding his attention. He will farm the Lloyd Gopen place north of Murray, which he purchased some time ago, and will have the assistance in that of Mr. Harry McCulloch, who with his wife, will live on that place.

Shipped One Hundred Hogs

Parr Young and father raised over a hundred hogs during the past year, which, with the assistance of a number of neighbors, they hauled to Murray last Tuesday, loading them into two cars and shipping them to the South Omaha market, where they sold at a price right near the top, setting their owners a handsome sum.

Is Making the Business Hum

Mike Rys, who purchased the blacksmith shop at Murray several months ago and who took charge of the work here about two weeks ago, is enjoying an extra amount of business such as he can scarcely handle. Mr. Rys is one of the ablest of blacksmiths, and is ever on the job looking out for the interests of his patrons and all can rest assured that may work left in his care will receive the best of attention.

Earl Jenkins Not Feeling Well

Green Piggot was a passenger to Omaha last Monday evening, going on an appointment to meet Mr. Earl Jenkins of Rosalia from Omaha. They expected to depart for an extended trip to the south, where they would look over some business matters in Oklahoma, and other points. When arriving at Omaha Mr. Piggot did not find Mr. Jenkins, and returned on the midnight train. On arriving home he found a letter which had been written by Mr. Jenkins, telling of sickness on his part which would prevent him from making the trip.

Free Lecture and Movies

Dr. J. A. Renwick, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Topeka, Kansas, will conduct services at the church in Murray on next Sunday morning, following the Bible school session at the usual hour. All are invited to the services.

In the evening there will be given a free lecture at the church by Dr. Renwick, illustrated with motion pictures. All are cordially invited to attend both the morning services and the illustrated lecture in the evening.

Joseph Staska Agent Now

Joseph Staska, formerly of Plattsmouth, but who has been making his home at Auburn, where he has been in the employ of the Missouri Pacific as operator, in company with Mrs. Staska, arrived in Murray a few days ago and was checked in, as agent of the company's business here by Taylor Wilson, traveling auditor, who has been conducting the affairs of the road since the departure of Cecil Pettit. Mr. Staska and wife will make their home at the station, living in the rooms above.

Mr. O. Wilken, formerly of Atchison, will be the third trick operator, having arrived with his family, but as yet being unable to find a place to live.

For regular action of the bowels; easy, natural movements, relief of constipation, try Doan's Regulax. 30c at all stores.

FOR EVERYBODY

A prominent physician writes in a recent article that there is perhaps not one man who would not need a thorough cleaning of his intestines from time to time, even if his still seems to be regular. That is why Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is a remedy for everybody. It cleans intestines perfectly. Its special virtue consists in its overcoming constipation without purging and therefore without weakening. Another remedy which you should have now at home is Triner's Cough Sedative. If you come to the theater or a concert, you find at once that coughs and colds are now in season. That eternal coughing spoils your enjoyment. If all such disturbers knew of Triner's Cough Sedative, they would not torment themselves and molest the rest of the audience. Your druggist and every dealer in medicines keeps Triner's remedies in stock. Joseph Triner Company, 1333-43 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.
