A SPLENDID YEAR OF WORK REPORTED

Superintendent J. H. Tams of County Farm in His Report Gives Result of Year's Business.

From Saturday's Daily.
That the Cass county farm is one of the best paying county institutions in the state is shown by the report of Superintendent J. H. Tams, which he has filed with the board of county commissioners and the result of the careful and business like administration of Mr. Tams is shown in the results achieved.

The expenses including groceries, clothing, shoes, implements, stock and all other expenditures for the year from March 1919 to March 1920 amounted to $1,793.64, while the receipts secured from the sale of all products from the farm totaled the sum of $2,156.50, which gives the farm a handsome cash surplus for the year aside from the stocks on hand at present that makes the farm a great paying investment.

Superintendent Tams reported on hand 1,300 bushels of corn valued at $1,690, 300 bushels of oats valued at $240, eight tons of hay valued at $160, meat and lard at $300, 70 bushels of wheat at $157.70 and flour to the value of $28.

During the year there were twenty residents at the farm, three of whom died and five removed from the farm and at present there are twelve residents at the farm.

The live stock of the farm is also a valuable asset consisting of five work horses, six milk cows, one shorthorn bull, eight young cattle, 17 Poland-China hogs, one male hog and in the neighborhood of 120 chickens.

RECORD OF FAM- OUS WAR REGIMENT

History and Roster of 355th Infantry Compiled by Carlisle Jones of Lincoln is Issued to Members

From Saturday's Daily.
The history and roster of the 355th infantry, composed of the greater part of the men from the states of Nebraska, South Dakota, and Iowa, has been compiled and issued by Carlisle L. Jones of Lincoln, a former member of the organization. This work is very complete and gives the history of the organization from the time it was called into existence until mustered out at Camp Funston, the home of the regiment in June 1919.

This infantry outfit was a part of the 89th division composed of the men of the middle west who were called in the first draft of 1917, and was known as the mid-west division during their campaign in France. The regiment was organized in September 1917, when the first men who were to form the basis of the regiment reached Camp Funston on September 6th and at once the long and strenuous training for active war service was entered upon by the soldiers, who but a few days before had been civilians. In the first contingents to reach Funston were a number from this city and county, and among these Emil Hild, Roy Holly, Carl Dalton, Albert Godwin, Fred Rutherford, James Cornik, Fred Neumann, Robert Will and of these Holly, Hild and Dalton completed their service with the regiment, the others being transferred to other outfits for service abroad and at home. On May 21, 1918 the first units of the regiment left Funston for the east and sailed on June 4, from Hoboken and arrived in England on June 16, where they spent a short time and reached France June 24, 1918 and at once entered the actual war training that in a few weeks would fit them for the contact with the enemy. The regiment received its baptism of fire on August 7-8 in the trenches east of Beaumont near the redoubtable Mont Sec, held for four years by the Germans. The regiment later took part of the St. Mihiel and Argonne offensives. The service costs in lives for the regiment during the service abroad 8 officers and 248 men killed and the total casualties of the regiment were 52 officers and 1,416 men.

URGED FOR DELEGATE TO REPUBLICAN MEET

Mrs. Frank H. Dunbar Being Urged by Friends as One of Nebraska Delegates to Chicago

From Saturday's Daily.
This city and county may enjoy the honor and distinction of having one of the delegates from the first district of Nebraska to the national republican convention which convenes at Chicago on June 3rd. Mrs. Frank H. Dunbar has been strongly urged by friends to permit the use of her name as one of the representatives of the party to the big political meeting and petitions in her behalf are now being circulated throughout the county. Mrs. Dunbar while not in the political game is well known throughout the county on account of her splendid work during the war in the interest of the Red Cross and the other measures of war work and is now still deeply engaged in looking after the home service work of the organization among the former service men. Unlike William Jennings Bryan, Mrs. Dunbar is willing to support any candidate that her party may endorse at the primary election and will see that the choice of the Nebraska republicans receives her support in the convention.
