

JESS QUEEN SUFFERS INJURED SHOULDER

Schmarder Takes First Fall from Queen in Eleven Minutes—Queen Suffers Injured Shoulder

From Wednesday's Daily
The wrestling match last night between Frank Schmarder of Louisville and Jess Queen of Omaha was terminated after the first fall had been secured by Schmarder in eleven minutes with a body scissors and arm lock that forced the Omaha man to the mat, as Queen suffered a very severe injury to his right shoulder, the ligaments being torn and bruised so that it was impossible for the plucky lad to remain in the match.

In the fast preliminary between Lee Fickler of this city and Ray Garten of Harlan, Iowa, Lee was the winner of the fall in eleven minutes, the head scissors and wrist lock being used in the undoing of the Iowa lad. Both men were in good shape and made a nice exhibition of this manly sport.

The boys wrestle between Joe Schlater of this city and George Reihart of Louisville, resulted in a tie as both boys were still hopping to the match when the referee at the close of eleven minutes decided that the lads had given the spectators a run for their money.

A challenge was received at the match from Carl Woods, the Norfolk wrestler, who extended to the winner of the main event a challenge and this will be accepted by Schmarder for a later date.

MRS. J. E. VANDERCOOK DIES IN SOUTH

From Wednesday's Daily.
Mrs. J. E. Vandercook, who formerly was a member of the family of the Masonic Home in this city, but who went south accompanying L. A. Moore and family to Lutz, Fla., and who has been making her home there for several years past, died at her home there about March first this year. Mrs. Vandercook will be remembered as being greatly interested in the work of the W. C. T. U., while here being their president for some time.

STECHEER-CADDOCK MATCH AT PARMELE

Local Movie House Will Show Motion Pictures of Match in Addition to Washburn Film

The management of the Parmele theatre have contracted for the showing of the great world's championship wrestling match which was held in New York City January 30th. It is said that these are some of the clearest movies ever taken of an event of this kind, and have drawn great crowds wherever shown.

Messrs. Moore & Clويد have secured these at a great deal of expense, but will show them along with their regular Bryant Washburn feature, "Why Smith left Home," which, by the way, is a corking good comedy-drama, for their regular admission of 15c for children and 25c for adults.

This big double bill will be shown both Friday and Saturday, with two shows each night, and the Parmele will probably be taxed to its capacity both nights.

MORE MAKE FILINGS

From Wednesday's Daily.
The republicans of Nehawka precinct have prepared and filed a list of their delegates to the forthcoming county convention. John P. Stoll,

C. D. St. John, F. P. Sheldon, Ernest C. Giles, H. P. Sturm, J. W. Thomas, J. H. Steffens, have filed for delegates and Mrs. Edith L. Palmer as committeewoman for the party from that precinct. William Schneider has filed as committeeman and delegate from Eight Mile Grove precinct and T. J. Hennings and A. O. Ault as delegates from that precinct. In Mt. Pleasant precinct Cyrus Livingston has added his name to the list of delegates.

TOSSES CHAPEAU INTO THE RING

County Judge Beeson Decided on Urging of Friends to Enter Race for Re-Election to Office

From Wednesday's Daily.
County Judge Allen J. Beeson in response to the general demand of his friends over the county has decided to enter the lists at the forthcoming primary and election as a candidate for another term in the office he has so well filled for a number of years. The petition filed with County Clerk Sayles bears the signatures of over 600 of the voters of the various precincts of the county and the judge is well pleased with the very generous manner in which his friends have raised and prepared these petitions.

The filing of Judge Beeson leaves the race a two-man affair with M. S. Briggs as the candidate opposing the judge and the primary will be a preliminary heat as both candidates will have a shot at the main chance at the November election the law providing that the two highest men in the primary go on the ballot at the regular election.

The election of judge is non-partisan and the ranks of all political parties are open for the candidates to get in their best efforts in the campaign that will be soon stirring over the county.

DANCE VERY SUCCESSFUL

From Wednesday's Daily.
The K. K. G. club pleased a large number of the lovers of dancing at their dance on Monday evening at Coates hall, when the DeFord Jazzers of Lincoln came down to assist in the big dancing event. The remarkable success of these exponents of the new style of raggy jazz has pleased all of the young dancing set and the dances have all been very liberally patronized. George F. Dovey assisted as entertainer at the ball. To enjoy the occasion a large number of the young people came up from Nebraska City.

RIVER IS RISING

From Wednesday's Daily.
The Missouri and Platte rivers at this point are both showing an increasing volume of water following the opening up of the river and this morning the river showed a raise of three feet over yesterday. The Platte is now entirely free of ice, but a body of ice is reported as floating down the Missouri from the head waters and a slight gorge was formed yesterday above the mouth of the Platte. The channels on this side of the main Missouri river are filled bank full of water and a much further increase in the water will mean that a portion of the land on the bottom will be flooded.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Action was filed yesterday in the office of the clerk of the district court by Attorney C. E. Martin appearing for the plaintiff in the action, Grace Bell Stander, who is seeking to have the marriage ties between herself and Morris Lee Stander, sundered by the district court. The parties in the action were married at Council Bluffs in January 1919.

SENDS SOME VERY FINE FRUIT

L. A. Moore and wife who have been making their home in the south, for some time being located near Semper, Fla., where they have had a fruit farm, write to their friends here and have just sent a box of citrus fruits to their friends in Plattsmouth, among the members of the W. C. T. U., and also included some for the publisher of this paper.

The oranges and lemons, which are grown at their place are wonderful in size, and delightful in flavor and quality. We are pleased to know our old friends are prospering in the sunny south.

LEAVES FOR NEW HOME

From Tuesday's Daily.
This afternoon Paul Stadelmann departed for Omaha with the intention of making that city his future home and engaging in business there. Paul has made arrangements to carry on his work of selling papers and will have a stand on one of the principal streets of the metropolis, where he will be able to look after the needs of the public in the reading line. Since childhood Paul has made his home in Plattsmouth and has long been a familiar figure as he traveled over the streets in his wheel chair, disposing of his line of papers. Since the death of his grandparents, Paul has made his home at the Masonic Home in this city and leaves this shelter to do battle with the world in the line of business. That his brightest anticipations of success may be realized is the sincere wish of his many friends throughout the city and vicinity.

CELEBRATES NINTH BIRTHDAY

From Wednesday's Daily.
Yesterday was the ninth birth anniversary of little Miss Catherine McClusky and in honor of the occasion a number of her young friends were invited in to spend a few hours with the guest of honor and the afternoon spent most delightfully in the childhood games and enjoyments. A suitable luncheon with the traditional birthday cake was served at an appropriate hour that served to add to the delights of the members of the party.

PURCHASES NEW HOME.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Ralph Haynie, who recently purchased the new bungalow erected by Peters & Parker on Oak street, between 7th and 8th streets, has made a further investment in Plattsmouth real estate and purchased the John Rueland home just east of his new home. Mr. and Mrs. Rueland are expecting to remove to Los Angeles, California, as soon as the final arrangements can be completed and will join their son Roy, who is making his home there with his family. The new purchase will give Mr. Haynie a nice piece of property as it is well situated near the main portion of the city and only a few seconds walk to the business section. The matter was handled by A. C. Mutz, the real estate man.
