SERVICE

is a word you often see in advertising—with many it is only a word—here it is an actual fact. Service means to us just what it means to you. Service is something we practice as sincerely as we preach.

Bank of Union UNION, NEB.

Miss Edith Frans visited at the home of Mrs. Merritt Pollard near Nehawka a couple of days last week, being a guest at the home of her parents.

Franc Devorak, of Sioux City, was a visitor in Union, the guest of his friend, Miss Mary Becker, over the week end.

County Commissioner C. F. Harris was looking after some business matters at Murray last Monday, having driven there in his car early that morning.

Mrs. Harry M. Frans was a visitor in Nehawka, a guest for the week end at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Merritt Pollard, returning home Monday morning.

Don Arries, of Plattsmouth was a business visitor in Union last Monday, having driven down from the county seat to look after some business matters here.

Thomas Walling, Jr., of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union last Monday, coming down to read the light meters of the customers of the Nebraska Gas and Electric company.

S. C. Keckler, of Arriba, Colorado, was a visitor in Union last Monday, coming to look after some business matters in connection with the transfer of some lands he has been selling.

George Stander and son, Russell V. Stander, accompanied by Col. W. R. Young, came down from Plattsmouth Monday, while on their way to Avoca, where they went to purchase some cattle.

Charles Bowdish was a visitor in Lincoln last Saturday, where he was looking after some business matters and on his return came via Murdock, where he had some business to transact with O. W. Gillespie.

Roy Gerkin and wife and Miss Edith Frans were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wolfe for dinner Sunday, and in the afternoon all visited at the home of Mrs. James Frans, the mother of the three ladies.

Mrs. Applegate of Omaha was a visitor in Union last Monday, being a guest of her numerous friends here. Mrs. Applegate said she expects to move to Lincoln soon, taking her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Dickson with her, as physicians believe a change of residence will benefit the latter.

Miss Jessie Todd, who has been sick at her home in the city for some time past is reported as being much improved and able to be up and about the house. Mrs. J. W. Kingsley and son Douglas, of Downers Grove, Ill., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kingsley.

Ralph Lindsay made a quick trip over the state last week, departing from Union Thursday in his car for Grant, where he had some business to look after. He returned Saturday evening, having been away but three days and two nights, which is pretty good time in which to travel across the state and back, to say nothing of stopping at the other end of the line to give attention to business matters.

Has Completed Business Course
Miss Edith Frans, who has been attending a business school in Lincoln during the past winter, returned home a few days ago, having completed the course. She will visit with friends here a short time before beginning work in her new position with the Sheldon Manufacturing company of Nehawka, as a member of the office force. Miss Frans is well qualified for the position she is accepting and will, we know, make abundantly good.

Intermediates Elect Officers
At a meeting of the Intermediate Epworth leaguers at the Methodist church last Wednesday afternoon, a very pleasant time was had when, among other features of the meeting there was held an election of officers for the coming year. The following officers were elected: Miss Letha Porter, president; Miss Edith Morton, vice-president; Carl Shavely, secretary and Lucian Banning, treasurer.

Loses a Bull Recently
Guy Stokes, who with his mother moved from their former home near Union to a farm in the Murray neighborhood, was in town on last Monday, being called here on account of the loss of a valuable bull, which he had left at the home of Matt McQuinn, while moving the remainder of his effects.

Weather Was Very Bad
Last Thursday evening Messrs. and Mesdames Wm. Baird and E. H. Wescott, of Plattsmouth, came to Union as per previous arrangements to give an entertainment under the auspices of the Senior Epworth league, in which they themselves are excellent workers. They gave the program which was greatly appreciated by those in attendance, but on account of the exceedingly severe weather, which was bordering on an old fashioned March blizzard, there were not as many in attendance as it was hoped there might be.

EXCELLENT WOMAN GOES TO REWARD

Mrs. Sarah Eaton Succumbs to Lingering Illness—Came to Nebraska in the Sixties.

Mrs. Sarah Eaton, wife of John Eaton, who has lived in and about Union for many years, passed away at her home northeast of town last Saturday evening, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Eaton was born in Missouri, but came to Iowa when a young woman and in 1864 was united in marriage to John Eaton, they coming to Nebraska soon afterwards and settling a few miles northeast of the present location of Union. They acquired, through residence and purchase a farm of some 240 acres. But it was located near to the treacherous Missouri river and ere long the stream began making encroachments upon the land and at the time of the death of Mr. Eaton several years ago there remained but about 15 acres of the original farm.

But it was all been eaten away by the river, whose waters roll in relentless fury where the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eaton once was.

Mrs. Eaton was known to a large circle of close and warm friends, all of whom admired the noble character possessed by this estimable woman and who now delight to honor her memory. Her father, Joseph Napier, was a Baptist preacher in the earlier days, and had a congregation at what is known as the Sciota school house, where he preached the gospel for many years.

The funeral was held at the Sciota school and the remains laid to rest in the quiet cemetery at that place, amidst the scenes which were part and parcel of her life, and where the every heart throb of the friends and neighbors is one of honor and respect to the memory of this good woman. Rev. W. A. Taylor, her personal friend and pastor, delivered the funeral message of cheer to the many friends who were present.

Is Also a Workman
Blair Porter, whom all know as being a handy man, has rigged up a blacksmith forge at his home west of Union, and now can do work for himself when it is needed, as well as for others should the occasion require it. Blair is a "good Indian" and in addition is a cunning worker or artificer in iron and steel.

Installs a New Engine
Wm. James, who lives a few miles south of Union, was a visitor in town last Monday, called here to look after the installing of a new engine in the car of Rue Frans, which was put out of commission last winter by a sudden and severe freeze. Mr. James, who is the Buick representative in this territory, brought a new motor with him and installed it in the car for Mr. Frans, returning to his home the following morning.

While in the city, he had us add his name to the large and growing list of readers of the Plattsmouth Journal, thus being assured of receiving all the news of Cass county in the future.

Marketed Hogs at Nebr. City
Albert and Ruben Hathaway shipped their hogs to the Nebraska City market last Monday morning, they being hauled by Roy Becker in his truck. Mr. Hathaway went along to look after selling the porkers. They found the roads in fair condition and were able to make very good time on the trip.

Makes Purchase of Two Farms
W. H. Porter, who has been in the west for more than a week, and who made the trip in a car which he disposed of while out there, returned home last Saturday, coming via the Missouri Pacific from Lincoln.

While on the way out Mr. Porter was storm-stayed for a day at York, but made the trip in nice shape, finding very good roads all the way out. He visited at Grant, Nebraska, and also at Holyoke, Colorado, meeting friends at both places and then continued on his way to Burlington, Colorado, where he remained a few days. The first man he met there was Jack M. Chalfant, who is busy with his tractors breaking prairie.

Mr. Porter purchased two quarter sections of land while there, getting them adjoining and some six or seven miles north of Burlington. He traded his car in on the land and declares he will purchase a new car, having got enough allowance for the old one to almost cover the cost of a new one. Mr. Porter is very favorably impressed with the country out there.

Col. W. R. Young Has Good Sale
Col. W. R. Young went to Talmage last Saturday, where he held a closing out sale of farm implements and stock for one Edward Mesigotus. There was a large crowd present to participate in the sale which was one of large proportions.

Mr. Young was well pleased with the results of the auction, he having achieved the distinction of getting the highest price paid anywhere this year for a span of mules, which topped the market at the fancy price of $810. The highest price heard of heretofore was a case in Iowa, where a team brought $500 even.

Methodist Church Notes
At the Methodist church next Sunday there will be all the regular services with the single exception of the evening sermon, that hour having been given over to the young people of the church, under the direction of Miss Crozier, superintendent of the children's leagues of the church. The time will be improved with songs and recitations by the children and addresses by Prof. E. A. Ward and other members of the faculty of the Union schools. A very enjoyable time is expected. You had better get there on time if you want a good seat.

Bakery and Food Sale
Mrs. J. B. Taylor will have charge of a bakery and food sale which the Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church will hold at the Farmers Co-operative store on Saturday afternoon of this week. Members of the church and others are being asked to contribute to this sale, by furnishing something or else baking some saleable dainty. The townfolks as well as those from the country are invited to patronize the sale and secure their good edibles for the Sunday dinner there, thus helping out the ladies and doing themselves a good turn as well.

Many Receive Prizes at Show
The medicine show, or what was best known as the "Indian show," which held forth in Union last week, gave out many prizes to the citizens of our village during the course of the various entertainments which they gave here.

The best prize was the diamond ring which was given to the most popular young woman, and which went to Miss Eva Hathaway, with a safe margin over her nearest competitor, and which is highly prized by this young lady.

One evening a prize of $5 each was awarded to the oldest man and oldest woman respectively who were present at the show. Dan Lynn was able to pull down the gent's money and Mrs. Chitester drew the five spot as the oldest lady present. In addition, Mrs. T. E. Hathaway received an elegant rocking chair as a gift from the show company.

The show is holding forth in our neighboring village of Murray this week.

Buy Cass County Land
Joe Everett, who recently purchased some land near Arriba, Colorado, has disposed of the same at a right smart profit and decided to locate permanently in Cass county, purchasing the D. A. Eaton place east of Union. Despite the hard times that are being made in western lands, Mr. Everett still thinks Cass county dirt pretty good property to hold onto.

Camp Fire Girls' Picnic
The Junior Camp Fire girls last Tuesday took a hike under the guidance of their chaperone, Miss Mary Becker, picnicking at the Gruber pond, where they ate their supper and had a most excellent time. The return trip was made at a late hour, and upon arrival home all the lassies were pretty tired, though happy.

Ralph Earnest Ross Arrives
Last Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ross, Ralph Earnest Ross arrived and gave his parents a vociferous and joyous greeting and his first appearance. The household is wreathed in smiles on account of the joy which this young man has brought. Ralph is a bouncing big boy and the pride of his parents. Here's to you, young man, and may you ever be a joy to the household of Ross.

Receives Call to Further Service
Rev. W. A. Taylor, who has ministered to the flock at the Baptist church at Wabash for some time, and whose term of service as supply pastor expired the 1st of March, received a letter from the secretary of the church board a few days ago, in which was expressed appreciation of the excellent service Rev. Taylor and his good wife have rendered during the time they have been connected with the work at that inland point. The services there are what is known as half time or alternate Sunday devotions.

In his letter, Secretary I. C. McCrory expressed the feeling of his co-workers on the board that Rev. Taylor continue his ministrations in their midst and stated that the congregation had decided to increase the salary of the supply pastor another hundred dollars a year.

Why Colds are Dangerous
You are often told to "beware of a cold," but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract flu and the pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough.

The quicker you get rid of your cold the less the danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take.
