Make Safe Investments

The protection of principle should be the first consideration of every investor. But it's not always an easy matter for the ordinary investor to determine the safety of the issues offered him.

The character of an investment, however, is usually reflected in the concern which offers it. Investments offered through this institution warrant your confidence.

Safety—Honesty—Courtesy—Service

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gansemmer, A. L. Baker and Ben Neell, were visitors in Plattsmouth last Monday evening, where they were attending the DeFord jazz dance which was the feature of the evening.

Miss Anna Wagner, who is an attendant at the institution for the feeble minded at Glenwood Iowa, and where she is making an excellent nurse, was a visitor for the week end at her home east of Murray.

Contractor J. A. Scotten and A. A. Young, were passengers in Mr. Scotten's car for Plattsmouth last Tuesday evening, where they attended the wrestling match between Jess Queen of Omaha, and Frank Schmardeer of Louisville.

Harry Lohnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lohnes, was sick for a few days during the first part of the week at their home northwest of Murray, but is reported as feeling some better now, and it is hoped that he will soon be well again.

Mrs. Lena Lyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, whose home is at Sturgis, South Dakota, and who has been in a hospital at that place, where she underwent an operation as the result of a case of the influenza, is reported as being much improved, as she has left the hospital and returned to her home.

T. J. Brendel was looking after some insurance business at Nehawka last Tuesday, driving down in his car.

Col. W. R. Young of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, bringing his parents from the farm, and looking after some business as well.

Harry Puls is making good gains every day now, and with the rapid advance will be stout again in a few months. He had a hard tussle with pneumonia, but won out and is feeling pretty good over the result.

Dr. B. F. Brendel and O. T. Leyda, members of the board of the Christian church of Murray, were in Plattsmouth one day this week consulting with the board of that church in Plattsmouth relative to securing a minister for both the churches.

Walter Tower, the mechanic for the Puls garage has been kept from his work during a portion of the past week, on account of a troublesome ailment, which pre-empted a portion of one of his arms. He is now nearly back to normal, and rapidly improving.

Col. W. R. Young secured the services of Mr. Wilber and family who have been living west of Mynard, for Edie V. Cole, who lives in Brule in the western portion of the state, they departing for there Monday evening last. Mr. Wilber is getting one hundred dollars per month, with house to live in and two cows to milk.

Morton Bartlett who has been sick for so long, is now working most of the time, but has to go very slow under the doctors instructions. He is kept pretty busy though, with the custom of the shop, and the laundry and suits for cleaning and pressing which he sends off, and receives for the customers. He is gaining in strength all the time and it is hoped he will soon be himself again.

Harry Todd was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday afternoon, where he was called to look after some business matters.

Mrs. H. G. Todd who has been visiting for a short time at Lincoln returned home last Monday morning, and was met by her son Glen, with the auto.

Walter Tower and Morton Bartlett were visitors in Plattsmouth Tuesday evening, going to attend the wrestling match, which occurred at that place. They drove up in Mr. Tower's car.

Harold Hull, who is taking the enumeration for Plattsmouth precinct was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday getting some one who has moved away from the precinct, after the beginning of the taking of the census.

Mrs. B. A. Root, who has been sick at her home in Murray for several weeks is now showing some very good progress, and it is hoped she is now well over the troublesome influenza, which has kept her so closely in bed during so long a time.

Douglas, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tilson, is sick at his home with stomach trouble, which has been bothering him for some time. He has been kept at home for the past week, but it is hoped that he will soon be able to be out again.

Fred Warner has finished picking his corn, and notwithstanding the fact that it had stood in the field all winter, much of it went as high as forty-five bushels to the acre. Many have to take off their hats to this yield, as last year was far from being a good year for corn.

Alex Rhoden of Council Bluffs was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday spending the day with his parents and friends, as well as looking after some business matters. Mrs. D. C. Rhoden, his mother, returned to Council Bluffs with her son for a short visit with the family.

Henry C. Long last Monday departed for Omaha, where he visited with his grandson Chester Shradler, and his daughter Mrs. Robert Shradler. He had a hard tussle with pneumonia, but won out and is feeling pretty good over the result.

Alfred Gansemmer, who is superintending the store as well as the farm north of town, is kept pretty busy these days, and last Tuesday began cutting stalks on the farm for the commencing of the summer work.

Green Piggot is busy these days rigging a truck for his stump puller in order to make it portable, that he can take it more easily from place to place, as his work may demand it. He will, when he has it in the proper condition, pull some stumps and trees in a grove which occupies a good amount of land, on the farms of W. E. Jenkins, at Eight Mile Grove. After that he will be ready for what may be offered in his line.

Received Five Dollars Each. The medicine show which is exhibiting in Murray this week, made a hit with two people last Monday, when they presented a package of their medicine and five dollars each to the presumably oldest man and woman in the audience. When they asked for a show of hands for the oldest, J. W. Berger hoisted his handy right hand, and was called by the medicine man, telling that he was 74 years of age. At the same time Mr. Puls sr., put up his hand, but like Zachus, a nurse was not seen, and Mr. Berger pulled down the money. Mrs. Wm. Marsh, who is 54 years of age, won the purse for the ladies.

Died at Murray Tuesday. The two-months-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murray, of near Murray, died at their home Tuesday afternoon, of an aggravated case of whooping cough. The little one had been sick for some time and every care had been extended with the best of nursing and medical attendance. Monday a nurse arrived from Lincoln and all was done possible for the little one, but of no avail. After much suffering in which it was hoped against hope that its life could be saved, it passed to that great beyond, where pain and sorrow would come; there it awaits the coming of the parents, whose hearts are sorely torn by the loss of their loved one.

Dr. J. McConaha in Missouri. Dr. J. McConaha, who for many years was the practicing physician living near Murray, and where he practiced medicine and raised a large family, died at the home of his son, Elmer McConaha, near Fulton, Mo., March 17th, of indigestion, at the advanced age of 81 years and a few months. The older settlers of Murray and vicinity will well remember this man and his family, who so long ministered to the sick of this community. Several years since they removed to Herman, north of Omaha and after a short residence there, went to Blair, but had moved to New Bloom-

Will Soon Resume Saturday Suppers. The nice arrangement of the ladies of the Murray community club, who for so long maintained the practice of giving a supper on Saturday evening for the benefit of the Murray library, and which was interrupted by the scourge of influenza is again soon to be returned and the remainder of the course of suppers given. Announcement will be made of the resumption through the columns of this paper.

Buys a Hudson Speedster. A Gansemmer has just purchased from L. H. Puls a new and very fancy Hudson speedster, which is a very fine car, one of the best and highest class of the good cars, and goes without doubt. Mr. Puls had gone to Omaha and driven the car to Murray for stock in the sales room and had only gotten it home when it was taken by Mr. Gansemmer. Mr. Gansemmer has acquired a fine car which he is well satisfied with, and Mr. Puls is compelled to go after another one for his salesroom.

Twigs Cause Wire to Burn. Last Sunday some green limbs of trees, which the wind caused a short circuit of two wires of the Nebraska Gas and Electric company, were responsible for the burning off of two of the service wires of that company near Murray. Mr. James Kukendall of the company was in Murray Monday and looked after the repairing of the injured lines.

Fractures Bone in His Foot. Last Saturday while assisting in removing an electric lighting plant from the basement of his father's cellar, Glen Todd suffered a fracture of one of the bones in his foot, by the slipping of the rope which was being used for the hoisting and catching his foot. Glen had a plaster cast built around the injured member, and with a pair of crutches for getting to and from his car and truck, went on with the work as though he had not been injured. This is the kind of pluck which builds empires.

Child Badly Injured by Horse. Ernest, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Valley, was very severely injured at their home near Murray last Saturday morning, by being kicked in the face by a horse which was loose in the lot, where the little fellow was playing. The foot of the horse striking the little fellow in the face, covering the mouth and cutting the flesh so severely that it required twelve stitches to close the wounds. Dr. Brendel did the dressing, and Ernest is getting along as well as could be expected from the nature of the injury.

Father Suffers Stroke of Paralysis. Mrs. L. D. Hiatt was called to Plattsmouth last Sunday evening by the sudden illness of her father, Mr. Fred Heinrich sr., who suffered a stroke of paralysis, while walking about his home in the south part of Plattsmouth. When he returned home near the noon hour, Wm. Heinrich found his father as he had fallen a few moments before in the yard and carried him into the house, where medical service was summoned and every care given the aged parent. Monday evening Mr. Heinrich was resting some easier and Tuesday Mrs. Hiatt returned to her home in Murray for a short time, to return again and assist in the care of her father.

Will Pull Some Stumps. Green Piggot is busy these days rigging a truck for his stump puller in order to make it portable, that he can take it more easily from place to place, as his work may demand it. He will, when he has it in the proper condition, pull some stumps and trees in a grove which occupies a good amount of land, on the farms of W. E. Jenkins, at Eight Mile Grove. field, Mo., where they have resided for some years. There, Dr. McConaha followed his profession and had only a short time given up the practice.

He was on a visit at the home of his son Elmer, when he was taken suddenly ill, and lived only 24 hours. The funeral was held and burial made at his late home at New Bloomfield. A daughter has written Mrs. C. R. Troop, telling of the death and burial. Dr. McConaha was over 81 years of age at the time of his death and leaves an aged widow and several children, with 24 grand children.

Thelma Pitman Doing Nicely. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Pitman returned home from Omaha last Saturday morning, where they had been for some time bringing with them their little daughter, who has been in the Saint Joseph hospital for some time, and where she had to undergo an operation. She is much improved and while the trip home made her very tired and sore from the jolting of the train, she is feeling much better now and is making very satisfactory progress.
