VERY QUIET AND PRETTY WEDDING

Mrs. Bess Draper United in Marriage Yesterday Afternoon to Mr. Claus Speck

From Thursday's Daily.
A very quiet home wedding occurred late yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Claus Speck Sr., when her son, Claus, was united in marriage to Mrs. Bess Draper, the marriage lines being read by County Judge Allen J. Beeson. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Both Mr. and Mrs. Speck are well and favorably known to a large circle of warm friends who will wish them well in their future years as they go through life as one. The bride is the sister of J. L. Russell and has been making her home with her brother and family. The groom has spent his life time in this city and is one of the popular and well liked young men of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Speck will make their home on Locust street in the residence property of the groom.

CELEBRATES 10TH BIRTHDAY

From Thursday's Daily.
Today was the tenth birth anniversary of Edgar Westcott and to assist him in celebrating the anniversary, has been the duty of the relatives of the young man. The festival occasion was dampened, not only by the rain but also by the fact that the mother of the lad is out of the city and has put the chief burden of the celebration upon the father and sister who are determined that this occasion shall be observed with more than passing interest. The cleaning up of the big birthday cake as well as a movie party are among the things planned for the birthday.

MRS. FRANK DUNBAR FILES AT LINCOLN

Name of Local Woman to be Placed on Ballot as Candidate for District Alternate.

Lincoln, March 17.—A voters' petition requesting that the name of Mrs. Frank H. Dunbar, of Plattsmouth, be placed on the preferential primary ballot, April 20, as a candidate for District Alternate to the republican national convention from the First district, was filed with the secretary of state this morning.

Mrs. Dunbar was active during the war in Red Cross work and at present is taking a prominent part in the activity of organizing home service work for the ex-service men. She is well known throughout Cass county, and while inexperienced in politics, has a large number of friends and admirers who have insisted upon her candidacy.

In filing the petition, Mrs. Dunbar issued a statement in which she said:
"In order to prove that we are capable of discharging our duty as voters, the women of Nebraska must take an active interest in the politics of our state. Participation in politics is as much an innovation with me as it is with the majority of women."
"I realize how great an honor it would be to represent the republican voters of the First district at the National Convention and I have accepted the filing made to place my name upon the republican primary ballot as a candidate for District Alternate from the First Congressional district."

"I hope that the republicans of Nebraska will instruct the delegation for Nebraska's own, John J. Pershing, whom I believe to be the best fitted man to lead our country to victory. Regardless of my personal preference, however, I will support at the convention the man for whom the electors of Nebraska instruct me to vote."

NEBRASKA MEN DRAW FARMS AT SHOSHONE

Also One Lincoln Woman Winner of Homestead—Carl Wheeler of Nebraska City Lucky.

From Friday's Daily.
Dispatches from Cheyenne appearing in this morning's papers state that of the 57 successful applicants for farms in the Shoshone irrigation project for which drawing was made at Powell, 31 were Nebraskans, including one woman, Ruth Franklin of Lincoln.

Entries closed last Friday, none but world war veterans being allowed to file. There were a total of 546 applicants for the half hundred farm units.

The Powell list of Nebraskans includes the name of but one man from this part of the state, Carl Wheeler, of Nebraska City, who was a member of the first contingent sent from Otoe county to the National Army Training Detachment quartered at the University of Nebraska. The list includes the names of eight Lincolnites, the others being largely from the central and western part of the state.

OLIVER MOROSCO'S ROMANTIC DRAMA COMING

"The Bird of Paradise," Richard Walton Tully's romantic drama of the Hawaiian Islands, produced by Oliver Morosco, will play an engagement at the Parmele theatre in this city on Thursday evening of next week, March 21th. This novel play, with its wealth of beautiful scenery, its native band of Hawaiian singers and dancers will be given by the same capable cast that is playing it in the larger cities over the country, it now being on its ninth successful tour.

The story of the play deals with the downfall of one white man thru the insidious influence of the tropics and the uplifting of another thru the pure influence of an American girl. Through it all runs the tragic love story of Luana, the pretty little Hawaiian princess, who thinks she can hold the love of her American husband with her lips and her arms, and failing to do so, gives herself as a human sacrifice to save her people from the wrath of Goddess Pele.

Mr. Morosco will present a new-comer in the part of Luana, in Miss Ann Reader, a young lady who has not yet passed her teens, but of whom great things are promised in the dramatic line. Others in the cast are Frederick Forrester, Guy Harrington, Agnes Cappelline, Taylor Carroll and the Hawaiian singers and players.

MORE DELEGATES FILE

From Thursday's Daily.
The names of Alfred Anderson, Carl D. Ganz, E. A. Knight, H. L. Bornemeier, James Greer and J. A. Shaffer of Alvo, have been filed for delegates for the republican county convention from Greenwood precinct and Mrs. Claire Bornemeier has been named as candidate for committee-woman. W. A. Armstrong has filed as committeeman and John M. Melford as delegate from Salt Creek precinct to the republican county convention.

EASTERN STAR MEETING

From Friday's Daily.
The Eastern Star enjoyed one of their most interesting and pleasant meetings of the season at the Masonic temple Wednesday evening, when eleven new members were received into the order. At the conclusion of the initiatory work the members of the order adjourned to the banquet hall, where dainty and delicious refreshments were served. The banquet hall was very charmingly arranged with the St. Patrick decorations of green and made a beautiful setting for the splendid evening that followed. A number of toasts were responded too by members of the party, Judge J. T. Begley, W. R. Young, E. P. Lutz and S. S. Chase being members of the Masonic order who were called on for short remarks while a number of the ladies also responded with appropriate addresses.

YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED IN OMAHA THIS MORNING

From Saturday's Daily.
This morning in Omaha occurred the marriage of Miss Esther Hawkenberry and James Persinger, both well known young people of this city, who decided to steal a march on their many friends and have the happy event consummated in the metropolis where the groom is employed at his trade of electrician. The wedding was a very quiet one and was attended only by the brother of the bride, Leonard Hawkenberry.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hawkenberry and well known in this city, where she is held in the highest esteem by a very large circle of warm friends who will join in wishing her many years of happiness.

The groom is the oldest son of Mrs. Stella Persinger of this city and is a young man of splendid character and one universally respected in the community where he has grown to manhood. During the late war he was a member of the naval force of the United States and has for the past two months been employed in Omaha.

To Mr. and Mrs. Persinger the best wishes of the friends will be extended for a long and very happy wedded life.

A tractor that will fit your farm—the Fordson

YOU can make your farm produce more—at less cost—and with less effort on your part—by using the Fordson tractor. Not only will it help you prepare your land and cultivate the crops, but it furnishes power for many other farm jobs.

The Fordson tractor is the result of long study of farming conditions and it has proved a success. Burns kerosene—easy to operate and care for—practically trouble-proof.

There's an Oliver No. 7 Plow for your Fordson

Just as the Fordson tractor gives ideal power, the Oliver plow means ideal plowing. It is scientifically designed for tractor service—and is backed by a half century of experience in making plows. It buries all trash and weeds at the bottom of the furrow—maintains an even depth of furrow—and is controlled from the tractor seat.

Come in and let us show you this remarkable farm team.
