WEST OF LOUISVILLE

From Saturday's Daily. County Highway Commissioner C. F. Vallery was out in the vicinity of Murdock yesterday looking over the roads and found a very bad stretch of road on the Omaha-Lincoln road between Louisville and Greenwood. This piece of road about seven miles on departed for Lincoln taking with in length has had little or nothing done on it, the residents of that portion of the county state, and to add to springs have opened up in the roadway and which makes a portion of it impassable. Mr. Vallery is preparing to take the matter in hand and have the water drained off of the road and a fill made that will put it in good shape as well as have this road given the long neglected grading up.

Engineer Had Rheumatism so Bad He Could Hardly Raise His Hand to His Head.

"I am in better condition today han I have been in several years, and it is all because of what Tanlac has done for me," said B. F. Cummins, a railroad engineer living at 1938 R street, Lincoln, Nebr.

"For a long time," he continued, I have suffered terribly from rheunatism, and although I tried many reatments and medicines that were recommended for my trouble, I could get only a little temporary relief. I suffered mainly with my arms, and the pains distressed me so much that I had become nervous and rest-$10 AND COSTS less. I couldn't raise my hands to my head without suffering agony. less. I couldn't raise my hands to and while running my engine would be in constant misery, so you can imagine the strain I was under, suffering like I was with the responpulling the train through on time.

"I had tried so many things in vain that it looked like I would never get rid of my trouble. Then Tanlac came along and it just filled the bill. It was so highly recommended that I decided to try it and to say I am delighted with the results is putting it mildly. It was not long after I began taking Tanlac that I began to improve and I have been getting better right along ever since. Why, already I feel like a different person and cheerfully recommend Tanlac to anybody who may be suffering like I was before I started taking it."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Ficke & Company and the leading druggist in every town.

BREAKING UP HOME.

Mrs. P. C. Stander was at Aurora last week taking care of her daughter, Miss Dorothy, who was suffering garet Snyder, of Hastings, formerly a teacher in the Louisville schools, was also down with the flu, so Mrs. Stander had two patients on her hands. From Aurora Mrs. Stander went to Marquette to visit with her sister, Mrs. Edward Seiver and family. Mrs. Seiver's daughter, Mrs. Ira Shanevfeldt, had her farm sale at that time as she was disposing of her cattle and farm machinery because of the recent death of her husband and two little sons with pneumonia, which sad events were mentioned in our columns at the time. The breaking up of this farm home and the sale following so closely was a great trial to the bereaved young widow and her many friends in Louisville and in Cass county truly sympathize with her.-Louisville
