Third Liberty Loan BONDS!

The Third Liberty Loan Coupon Bonds, which had but a few coupons attached, have matured as far as interest coupons are concerned, the last interest coupon becoming due March 15th, 1920. All having these series of bonds, can have the same replaced with other bonds bearing interest coupons, and if any one having such bonds will bring them to our bank we will have the transfer made for you.

Yours for service,

Murray State Bank

Murray, Nebraska

Saturday evening the third episode of "The Midnight Man" will be shown at the Puls & Gansemer hall by the Puls Amusement company.

John Cohn, who lives three miles east of Murray, is reported as being on the sick list. We trust he will soon be able to be up and around.

B. A. Root has received a letter from Mrs. Root, written from Canton, Ohio, and which tells of her having a nice visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Wagner, at that place.

The Royal Neighbors served supper at the library Saturday evening and their efforts were well patronized. The proceeds from the supper are to be used in the interest of the flower fund.

Mrs. Wm. Royal came Monday to spend the summer with Mrs. Oldham and Mrs. Albert Young. The many friends of Mrs. Royal will be glad to know that she will spend the next few months with Murray friends.

The Missionary society met at Mrs. Walker's home, where with the assistance of Mrs. George Gilmore, they were guests of Mrs. Walker's hospitality. The society presented Mrs. George Nichols and Mrs. Albert Young each with a cut glass jelly dish. This is in accordance with a custom that has prevailed for the society to present its members with some remembrance when they are married or remove to some other locality to reside.

Mrs. J. W. Holmes of Plattsmouth, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Gilmore and attended the Missionary society meeting Friday.

George H. Decker, of Plattsmouth, representing the Standard Oil company's interests, was looking after business in and near Murray last Tuesday.

Chester Shrader, who is taking a business course at a commercial college in Omaha, writes to his grandfather, Henry C. Long, stating that he is getting along nicely.

John Eppings and wife, accompanied by their little two year old son, were visitors in Omaha last Tuesday, going to consult a specialist in regard to the health of the youngster.

Thomas Svoboda, of Plattsmouth, came down Tuesday to look after clearing some of the local telephone lines of trouble cases. Mr. Svoboda is an employe of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company.

Mrs. G. W. McCracken, who has been staying at Orient, Iowa, during the time of the construction of the new residence which they are to occupy, was a visitor in Murray over Sunday, being accompanied as far as Omaha by Mr. McCracken while on her way home Tuesday. During his absence business at the drug store was looked after by B. A. Root. Mr. and Mrs. McCracken will be glad when their new home is ready for occupancy.

A. L. Baker and Louis Hallas were attending a dance in the county seat Tuesday night and enjoyed the occasion greatly.

At the Murray hall Saturday evening was the 2nd episode of "The Midnight Man." 15 and 25 cents. A rattling good picture.

Miss Clara Lee Young was a visitor with friends and relatives here over Sunday, returning home on the afternoon train Monday.

Alcy Rhoden, who has been making his home in Council Bluffs, will again become a citizen of Murray, having moved back this week.

Oscar Nailer departed a few days ago for Leigh, where he has engaged to work for Bert Satchel of that place and will farm this season.

Walter A. Tower departed for Omaha a short time ago, where he expected to work for a short time and then go west to spend the summer.

Dr. B. F. Brendel and son, Dr. J. F. Brendel were looking after some business matters at the court house in Plattsmouth Tuesday morning.

Otto Lutz, who is farming west of Murray, was a visitor in Plattsmouth a few days the first of the week, returning to his work last Tuesday morning.

The third episode of "The Midnight Man" will be shown at the Murray hall Saturday evening. The prices are 15 and 25 over all, no war tax.

Miss Laura Puls, who has been making her home in Omaha, arrived in Murray last Monday morning for a visit with her parents, Wm. Puls and wife.

J. M. Venhorr, living southeast of Murray, is reported as being very sick at his home, and due to his advanced age is having a hard battle with the disease.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore and D. J. Pitman were visiting in Plattsmouth last Monday, being called there on the hearing of the estate of Mrs. L. S. White, who recently died.

Frank Marasek is making some decided changes for the better on his place just east of Murray. The blacksmith shop, which was a landmark, has been dismantled and the material used in the construction of a hay barn.

The Bank of Murray has had some trees set near the bank and the ground around them spaded in order that they might have a better opportunity to grow. The work was done by C. H. Boedecker and adds a great deal to the appearance.

Mrs. George Parks was a visitor in Omaha last Monday evening, remaining over night and returning Tuesday morning accompanied by their daughter, Willa, who has been at the hospital for several weeks and who is now feeling much improved.

Levi Rakes who formerly lived in this vicinity, but who has resided near Ashland for a number of years, was a visitor with friends in Murray during the past week, being a guest at the home of Mrs. L. H. Oldham and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hollenbeck, of Belmont, Iowa, who have been visiting for the past few days at the home of Wilson Gilmore and other friends in this vicinity, departed on Tuesday afternoon for their home in Iowa, going via Omaha, where they visited for a short time.

The good luck W. A. Scott and wife had while enroute home from their recent visit in Kansas, is attributed to the coal black cat they recently procured and which is now a bosom companion of "Smarty" their pet dog. "Nigger" sure did keep ill luck at a distance, they aver.

L. H. Puls, Ben Noell and Wm. Marsh were all busy during the fore part of the week giving the garage and adjoining residence a double coat of paint on the roof. They are artistic manipulators of the paint brush and as a result of their work enhanced greatly the appearance of the buildings.

John Robbins and family have been enjoying a visit from Mr. Frank Robbins and wife, of Spaulding, where they are engaged in the berry business, and on their return home last Tuesday, John and family accompanied his brother and wife as far as Omaha, where they all spent part of a day together.

Robert Good is reported to be getting along nicely at the hospital in Nebraska City to which he was taken after being struck by a Missouri Pacific train on a crossing near that place a few weeks ago. Mr. Good suffered a broken leg and other injuries, but as a result of excellent care is recovering rapidly.

Robert Patterson was able to return home from the hospital in Omaha a few days ago. Although he has not entirely recovered from the injuries he sustained as a result of the severe windstorm a fortnight or so ago, he is rapidly improving and considers himself mighty lucky that he got out as well as he did.

With the resignation of Walter A. Tower, who has been with the Puls garage for several months, the vacancy will be filled by a Mr. Wright, from the northern part of the state. He and his family are expected to arrive in Murray at an early date and will make their home in the parsonage of the Christian church, which is being put in condition for them.

Miss Clara Carlson, who has been employed as a nurse in this vicinity, was called to Omaha a short time ago on account of the stork having left a little baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coedel, causing much happiness in that family. Mrs. Coedel was formerly Miss Eda Marquardt, county superintendent of Cass county, prior to her marriage to Mr. Coedel, then in the employ of the Journal as a linotype operator. All concerned are doing nicely.

Charles Valley was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday, going up to look after some matters of business.

Harry G. Todd was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, being called there to look after some business matters for a few hours.

W. H. Puls and little daughter, Elsie, were visiting in Omaha last Tuesday, while Mr. Puls also looked after some business matters.

Glen Boedecker, of the Murray State bank, was a visitor in the county seat last Monday afternoon, being called there to look after some matters of business.

Miss Olga Minford was a weekend visitor at the home of her parents over Sunday, returning to the capital city the first of the week to resume her studies.

Fred Lutz, of west of Murray, accompanied by his family and Henry Zuckeweller and wife of Miller, So. Dakota, were visiting at the homes of L. D. Hiatt and Wm. Puls last Monday.

Fred Hill and family, who have been making their home in Long Beach, Calif., during the past winter, expect to arrive home in a short time having arranged to leave for here on April 20th.

H. G. Todd was dragging the roads between his place and Murray last Tuesday afternoon. If everyone would look after this matter the public highways could be kept in excellent condition most of the time.

T. J. Brendel and wife departed last Monday evening for Burt county, where Mr. Brendel went to look after the appointment of some agents for the Auto Insurance company, for whom he works. Mrs. Brendel went along for a visit.

Mrs. Ada Farris and Mrs. Wm. Sporrer will entertain the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church at the home of the latter on next Wednesday afternoon. All members and their friends are requested to be in attendance, as a good time is assured.

Phillip Lambert who is getting about with the aid of one crutch, is very anxious to get to work again, and can hardly contain himself without having a brush in his hand with which to apply a coat of paint to the residences about town where his services would be in demand were he but able to work.

For Sale Pure bred White Plymouth Rock eggs, $1.25 for 15.—S. P. Young.

Ladies Enjoyed Occasion Greatly Miss Etta Nichols and Mrs. Geo. Nichols gave a reception at the home of Henry C. Long and wife in honor of Mrs. A. A. Young, at which a large number of friends of this popular young woman attended and the afternoon was spent in very pleasant social conversation and also in the doing of fancy work as well. A delightful luncheon was served by the two adept hostesses, which added greatly to the pleasures of the afternoon.

Making Extensive Repairs The official board of the Christian church is making some extensive repairs at the parsonage, placing a new roof thereon, papering the interior and otherwise bringing it down to date by the addition of two porches. When the work is completed, the parsonage will present a much different appearance. J. A. Scotten and a number of workmen did the carpenter work and the decorating was in the hands of Jesse Chambers and Clarence Brown.

Enjoyed Splendid Time Saturday The Murray Community club, which never does things by halves, put over another splendid community meeting last Saturday evening, the pleasures of which were greatly heightened by a most enjoyable dance. A short program added to the occasion. Barney Smith sang a couple of pleasing solos and Charles Howard also sang an enjoyable solo. The occasion of the meeting was to give a farewell to Wm. LaRue and family prior to their departure for Burr, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. LaRue having accepted a position with the Missouri Pacific at that place.

School Notes The pupils of the grammar room planned and carried out a most pleasant surprise party Thursday evening in honor of Everett LaRue, who, the following night, with his parents, departed for their new home in Burr, Nebraska. With Misses Barker and Sans as chaperones and the high school students at guests, the merry party met at the hall at 7:30 and enjoyed a few hours with music and games and otherwise having a good time. A number of the older girls had prepared refreshments, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all present. All too soon came the hour of departure, at which time the guest of honor, in a few well chosen words thanked his friends for the pleasant evening they had given him and showed his appreciation for their thoughtfulness. While we are sorry to lose Everett from our school, yet we congratulate him on his success in his work at the new home.

Lorene Durnam was absent two days last week. We are sorry to lose Dorothy, William and Hubert LaRue from the primary room and hope they will like their new home at Burr.

The little folks are rejoicing over the new playground equipment, which has been set up. Last Friday afternoon the little folks had a party for the LaRue children. Frances Durnam visited the Primary room Tuesday.

R. R. LABOR BOARD NAMED BY PRESIDENT

EXPECTED TO TAKE UP STRIKE QUESTION AT WASHINGTON WITHOUT DELAY

CALLS CABINET MEETING TODAY

President Wilson Will Meet the Cabinet Tomorrow—U. S. Wants Striker's Names

Chicago, April 13.—Appointment today by President Wilson of the railroad labor board is looked upon by railroad officials and brotherhood officials here as being a long step toward settlement of the strike. They are now awaiting announcement by Attorney General Palmer of the government's attitude toward the "illegal" strike.

Officials on both sides reiterated that the roads are powerless to raise wages until the newly appointed board reviewed the requests now pending.

Washington, April 13.—President Wilson today called a meeting of the cabinet for tomorrow to discuss "the general situation." White house officials would not say that the "unauthorized" railroad strike had prompted the call, but it was understood that this would be the principal subject discussed.

This is the first cabinet meeting called by the president since he returned from his western trip last September. Since his illness he has seen only a few members of his official family.

The president has announced the appointment of the railway labor board as follows:

Representing the public: George W. Hanger, Washington, D. C.; Henry Hunt, Cincinnati; R. M. Barton, Tennessee.

Representing the employes: Albert Phillips, A. O. Wharton and James J. Forrester.

The board will be authorized to meet in Washington at once to take up the grievances of the railroad employes now on strike. The nominations went to the senate at noon today and prompt action by that body is expected.

Under the transportation act, the railroad labor board is the court of last resort in disputes between the roads and their employes. Its first work, after considering the present strike will be to take up the whole railroad wage question which has been pending for nearly a year.

The board is to establish permanent headquarters at Chicago and its members will devote all of their time to the work. They will receive salaries of $10,000 a year, each.

Mr. Hunt is appointed for one year. He is a former mayor of Cincinnati and a former member of the Ohio house of representatives. During the war he was a captain in the National army. Since 1915 he had been a member of the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Southern railway, a city owned utility.

Mr. Hanger has been assistant commissioner of the United States board of mediation and conciliation and as a member of that body has had considerable experience in handling labor disputes. He is appointed for two years.

Judge Barton is a former judge of the Tennessee court of appeals, and is appointed for three years.

Horace Baker who is appointed to represent the railroad executives for a three years term, is a former general manager of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific railroad.

J. P. Elliot of Texas, appointed for two years, formerly was general

"I have used Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic in my family again and again, and where various medicines did not help, these remedies brought the best results. Very truly yours, Mrs. M. Thier." This letter was written at Nazareth, Texas, on March 8, 1920. It does not need any comment. If you suffer from stomach troubles, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the very remedy you need, and for rebuilding your vitality and in convalescence Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic is the best remedy you can keep at home. In case of colds and coughs, try Triner's Cough Sedative and for rheumatic and neuralgic pains, lumbago, sprains, etc., buy Triner's Liniment! Your druggist or dealer in medicines has all Triner's remedies in stock.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-46 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

manager of the Texas & Pacific railroad, and subsequently was a colonel in the transportation corps of the American expeditionary forces.

Mr. Park is vice president of the Chicago Great Western railroad and is appointed for the year.

Mr. Phillips is vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. He is appointed for three years.

Mr. Wharton of Missouri is an official of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor and a member of the board of railway wages and working conditions of the United States Railroad administration. His terms is for two years.

Mr. Forrester is president of the Brotherhood of Railway Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employes. His term is for one year.

The Pennsylvania and New York Railroads were advised today by the department of justice as follows:

"Please send us at once the names of all your employes who are on strike, indicating the names of any of them who appear to be directing the movement in whole or in part."

CANDLES FOR ALL OCCASIONS

The Journal office has received a very large assortment of the fancy candles suitable for any social function and in all shades and colors that might be desired for any occasion. There are the tiny candles so popular for birthday celebrations as decorations for the cakes as well as the larger candles for use in candelabra and other decorative uses. The hostess who is expecting to entertain should call at the Journal and inspect these handsome candles whose use is becoming more popular every day.
