

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

SERVICE

is a word you often see in advertising—with many it is only a word—here it is an actual fact. Service means to us just what it means to you. Service is something we practice as sincerely as we preach.

Bank of Union UNION, NEB.

Mrs. K. D. Clark of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union for a few days this week, a guest at her relatives and friends here.

Miss Banning was a visitor in Lincoln going to see Florence Davis, who is just recovering from an operation in one of the hospitals at that place.

Miss Addie Austin, who is employed in Omaha, was a visitor in Union and guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Austin, for over Sunday.

Miss Nellie Bramblet entertained the M. E. missionary society at her home on last Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance, a business meeting was held, which was followed by delightful refreshments at the proper time. All returned to their homes hoping to again meet with Miss Nellie.

Through the kindness of Supt. McDonald's manual training class, bird houses were made and disposed of by the two lower rooms, the money of which helps to increase the library fund. The little "toys" are more than delighted over their purchase and by these few lines wish to express their thanks to Supt. McDonald and to the members of the manual training class.

Those interested in the school library take this opportunity in thanking the classes of 1918 and 1919 for the money they so willingly contributed for such a noble cause. Orders have gone in already for some of the books and we assure you we chose books which we feel one and all will be glad to have in a school library. We know the classes could not have used their money in a better way. Again, we thank you.

Mrs. Mary Clinkenbeard of Des Moines, Iowa, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lynde's is reported as being sick at her home.

Misses Verna Harris, and Edith Frans, who are employed in the Sheldon Manufacturing company at Nehawka, and accompanied by Mrs. Merrit Pollard, were spending Sunday with relatives in Union last Sunday.

Mont Robb is taking an enforced lay off and is at home for a few days, on account of the switchmen's strike, which makes it impossible to ship grain and dangerous to purchase under the circumstances.

Lucian Banning, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Banning, was reported as being greatly improved and is progressing nicely at the hospital, when he was visited by Mrs. Banning and the children on last Sunday. Mr. Banning also visited his son last Monday afternoon and evening.

Charles Garrison was a visitor at Lincoln a few days ago, where he went to see Mrs. Garrison who is taking treatment at a sanitarium at that place and who is making some improvement. A number of her teeth are affected and will have to be extracted, after which her improvement is expected to be more rapid.

W. H. Marks, who has been visiting at the home of his daughter Mrs. Harry Graves at Central City, returned home last Saturday, and reports that the daughter who has been sick for some time, is still far from her usual health. The many friends of this estimable lady are extending their wishes that she will soon be well and strong again.

Will Ost was called to Nebraska City on last Monday to look after some business for the day.

Raymond C. Pollard and wife of Nehawka, were visiting with friends in Omaha last Monday afternoon and evening.

Hans Nelson, living near town, was a visitor in Nebraska City for a few hours last Monday returning home on the afternoon train.

John M. Chalfant and family were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters at Nebraska City last Saturday.

James Tigner, of near Union, was called to Plattsmouth last Monday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

J. H. Brown of near Murray was a visitor in Union last Monday morning having driven over to look after some business matters for a short time.

Roy Gerking living just over the county line was looking after some business matters in Nebraska City last Monday, going and returning via the Missouri Pacific.

Milton Irvin of near Nebraska City was looking after some business and visiting with friends in Union last Monday and Tuesday.

Last Sunday evening the electric current went to the four winds, and remained off the following day until near evening. Just what the trouble was, was not learned.

Mr. Davis the well digger, was busy sinking a well on the place of W. B. Banning east of town the first of the week, having just completed one at the T. E. Foster place.

Miss Leatha Porter visited with friends for over Sunday at the home of her former neighbors at Nehawka, returning home last Monday morning in time to attend school.

Mrs. O. W. Finney of Auburn was a visitor in Union for the past few days and the guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Vestal Clark and daughter, Miss Lyda, while there.

Hugh Anderson was looking after some business matters at Nebraska City, having gone there on the early morning train of the Missouri Pacific, and returned in the evening.

J. A. Talkington and wife have recently moved into the home which was formerly occupied by Crawford, who recently moved to the northern portion of the state.

Mrs. J. D. Cross, who has been sick at her home for some time past is reported as being some better though still confined to her bed the most of the time, but hopes soon to be able to be around again.

Miss Lottie Renner of Eagle has been in Union for several days past assisting in the care of the children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Swanson, the latter being her sister. The children who have been sick are getting some better.

Mrs. Ida Freeman and Floyd Saxton were visiting in Lincoln for a few days, called there on account of the illness of the former's sister and the latter's mother, Mrs. George Saxton, who suffered what was feared to be a slight stroke of paralysis.

Joseph A. Bauer and wife, who have been spending some months in Florida, returned home last Wednesday, having driven from the south in a car, and enjoyed the trip home nicely, though they found a lot of very bad roads on the way home.

Frank Tipton and Albert Eaton, were among the ones who with the county quad truck, made the road through the drifts to the Platte river bridge from Union, and cleared the way for traffic. They surely had a tough trip but brought home the bacon.

Robert Willis, the enterprising auto man, has just added a new acetylene gas welding machine to his equipment, and is now ready for any work in that line which may come along. Mr. Willis endeavors to be up-to-date and is sparing no money or pains to be abreast of the times.

Mrs. J. W. Taylor who has been visiting with her many friends in and near Union for the past two weeks, returned a few days ago to Milford, where she is making her home at the soldiers and sailors home at that place. While in Union she enjoyed a very pleasant time with her many friends.

Warren Pearsley, who has been at the Methodist hospital at Omaha, for several days and where he underwent an operation, is reported as being some what improved, and it is hoped that he will soon be in the condition that he will be able to return to his home. The mother, Mrs. Pearsley, was up to see the patient last Sunday and reported him making satisfactory improvement.

J. M. Chalfant, who has been visiting in Union for some few days past, coming in from his home at Burlington, Colorado, returned to the west last Monday, having spent some time here looking after business and visiting with the family and friends. Mr. Chalfant reports the three boys from Union who are in the west all employed, they being John Finkle, Frank Wolfe and Albert Willis.

Rev. J. B. Taylor was called to Nebraska City for a short time a few days ago to look after some church matters, he having been intensely interested in the Inter-Church World Movement, and has been at many places in that cause. While he was away, the Rev. W. L. Gaultin of Lincoln was in Union to fill the pulpit at the Baptist church, but owing to the severity of the weather there was no services held. M. G. Stava was a business visitor in Union last Monday coming down on the train, and spending the day with his friends here. Mr. Stava is also a candidate for the nomination on the republican ballot for the position of county commissioner for the first district. He is sharing the votes with A. A. Wetencamp, who is also a candidate for the same place on the republican ticket. The successful man will try a bout with C. F. Vallery, who will be the nominee for the democrats.

'Mine Host' C. W. Clark, was a business visitor in Nebraska City for a few hours last Monday, spending the time between trains there.

Professor E. A. Ward of the public schools, was a visitor at the home of his parents in Plattsmouth last Sunday, where he spent the day. Misses Alice Crozier and Anna Altheisen, teachers of the Union school were guests at the home of Miss Crozier's mother in Weeping Water over Sunday.

Superintendent McDonald was a visitor at the capital city for over Sunday spending the time at his home at Wahoo, after looking after some business at Lincoln.

W. H. Porter who recently purchased the former home of C. E. Young, was moving into the same last Tuesday. Mr. Young moved to the farm of Mr. Finkle southwest of town.

Attorney C. A. Rawls was a business visitor in Union last Saturday having driven down in his Dodge car and after looking after the business which called him here, returned the same evening.

Mr. Clarke, the new section foreman on the Missouri Pacific, who supersedes Mr. Olson who shortly departed for Atchison, arrived and has taken up his work and is making his home in the company residence for the section foreman.

Mrs. L. Becker, who has been sick at her home near Union, is reported as being some better, and is being cared for by her daughter, Miss Mary Becker, who is at once an excellent nurse and cook, as well as being an accomplished saleswoman.

Miss Elsie Taylor was a visitor in Omaha last Saturday and while there made a visit to the people who are in the hospitals there from Union. Miss Elsie had expected to also visit with her brother C. H. Taylor, but thinking he would be in Union did not do so.

Last Friday night employed sawyer lumber in the mill which is located northeast of Union, and near the Missouri river, Frank Eaton got one of his hands in contact with a circular saw which was moving rapidly, with the result that the hand was badly mangled and one finger so badly injured that fears are entertained that he will be compelled to suffer its loss. It is hoped that he will be able to save the hand and as much of it as possible, and that he may rapidly recover from the accident.

Will Hold Food Sale.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold food sale this coming Saturday as is their custom of holding one on the third Saturday of each month until otherwise arranged. The former sale was a very successful affair and arrangements are made for a good sale this time. The sale will be at the Farmer's co-operative store, and the members of the church and the society, are urged to bring what contribution they can for the sale.

Regular Services at Both Churches.

There will be regular services at both the Methodist and Baptist churches the coming Sunday, as well as the Rev. W. A. Taylor will assist minister to the church at Wabash.

United in Matrimony.

A few days ago Oscar Reeves and Miss Leatha Mead, both well known to their hosts of friends in and near Murray, concluded they would marry, and accordingly had the ceremony performed last Saturday. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mead, living but a few miles from Union, while the groom is a sterling young man, the son of Charles Mead who has lived here for some ten or twelve years. The young couple both came to this community from near Bolivia, Mo. and since residing here have made many friends who are pleased to extend congratulations. The Journal joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

Married in the West.

News comes of the marriage of two former Union people, in the southwest, and which happened some time ago, but as there was not the necessary confirmation before nothing was given publicly regarding the union. The marriage, it is now reported, was consummated at Los Angeles, by Mr. Leroy Austin and Mrs. Oretta Dyer. Their many friends here are wishing them happiness and prosperity in their new state, and trust that they will like their home in the west.

Sees Brother After Forty-Two Years.

Some forty-two years ago, David Miller, then residing at the old home of his parents near Falls City, and Harvey J. Miller, now a citizen of Union, were living at the same place, and the younger brother David, went out into the world, and became lost to his family, and who had not heard from him for fifteen years. A few days ago Henry Perry of Thompson, a friend of the Miller family, came to Union to make Mr. Harvey J. Miller and family a visit. While here they talked about the missing brother, who has kept in correspondence with Mr. Perry. The suggestion was made that they would men pay David Miller a visit, who has farming near Anthon, Iowa. They arrived the next day, and all were surprised and pleased at the reunion after a period of forty-two years. Mr. Miller returned last week well paid for the trip, by the excellent visit he had with his long absent brother. Mr. Perry returned to his home in the west.

Suffered Injury to His Hand.

Glen, the young son of Geo. Edmisten, was taken to Omaha a few days ago, where he entered the St. Joseph hospital, where he underwent an operation for relief from appendicitis, and at that report was getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances. It is hoped he will soon be able to be home again and as well and strong as ever.

Will Write Name on Ballot.

A concerted action of the republicans of Union and near that town is to write the name of their favorite for the position of float representative on the primary ballot, Mr. R. B. Windham of Plattsmouth. To make such a move effective, an excellent organization is required. The friends of this gentleman are well pleased with the work which he did in the last legislature, and are anxious to see him returned.

Had an Excellent Time.

The Junior class had an excellent time at their meet at the high school last Friday evening, where they spent a few hours enjoying greatly the games and social fellowship, as well as having a bite to eat which added to the excellent evening spent together.

NEWS NOTES FROM ALVO CORESPONDENT

Miss Bertha Buekell spent Friday night in Lincoln.

L. Lauritson was in Omaha Monday transacting business.

Mrs. George P. Foreman was a Lincoln visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Rachel Stander left Friday for a week end visit at Aurora.

Supt. Kinsinger was on the sick list Monday, being unable to teach.

Miss Opal Cook returned Monday from Lincoln, where she had visited over Sunday.

Mrs. Leo Barry and children, of Kansas City, are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and children.

Carl Johnson and his brother-in-law, Ole Peterson, were in Omaha on Saturday, visiting with a sick friend.

Mrs. Chas. C. Bucknell was in Lincoln Sunday, called there by the death of her father, Paul Frohlich, Saturday night.

The Ladies Aid society met last Wednesday with Mrs. J. P. Rouse. About eighteen members were present at the meeting.

Frank Uptegrove, of Lincoln, came down Saturday to visit a few days with his mother, Mrs. E. L. Uptegrove and other relatives.

Mrs. Elmer Barrett and friend, Mrs. Hammond, of Havelock, visited Thursday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Armstrong.

The Mothers' and Daughters' council met with Mrs. Nannie Mullen last Friday. There was a large attendance and a fine meeting.

Ned Shaffer, of Kearney, came in Wednesday night, visiting his brother, J. A. Shaffer and wife until Friday afternoon, when he returned home.

Clarence Curvea visited his uncle, Morgan Curvea, who is in the hospital in Lincoln, last Tuesday evening, finding him greatly improved in health.

Miss Alta Litch came in Saturday from Grand Island and visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Litch. Miss Litch had two days' vacation for the purpose of visiting the Lincoln schools.

Paul Frohlich, aged 71 years, died Saturday night, April 10, 1920, at Lincoln, after suffering the past month. Mrs. Chas. Bucknell is a daughter of the deceased. An obituary will appear in our next issue.

Mrs. Katherine Nickel died Monday at her home after a lingering illness, having been confined to her bed since last October. She leaves three sons, George, William and Martin J. Nickel and three daughters, the Misses Lulu, Anna and Nellie Nickel.

Mr. A. E. Ensign, of Rising City, has purchased the C. D. Ganz grocery and meat market, having taken possession last week. Mr. Ensign comes to Alvo highly recommended as a good groceryman and he will be pleased to meet and serve the people. Elmer Rosenow is retained as clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Peterson came last week from their home in Oklahoma to visit their daughters, the Misses Carrie and Agnes Peterson, who are attending high school here. They will also visit Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Paul Johnson and her brothers, Carl Johnson, S. K. Johnson, R. F. Johnson and August Johnson and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Armstrong and son, Ivan, spent Saturday in Lincoln and when they returned on the "Jersey" that evening they found a merry party of young folks awaiting them at their home. The party had been cleverly planned by Mrs. Armstrong in honor of Ivan's 17th birthday, which occurred April 3.

The classmen and a few other school mates were present and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The Senior class will present the play "Polly Low" at the high school auditorium Friday night, April 16th. Admission 35 and 50 cents. There are fourteen characters and the play will begin promptly at 8:30. Between acts the class history, class poem, class prophecy and class will be read. Let us show our appreciation of the efforts of the young people by attending.

Methodist Church Items

Serious damage has been done to our church plans by the storms of the last two Sundays. But we hope great good has come to the country, so we will call it even.

We plan the usual services for next Sunday.

The Sunday morning theme will be "Legitimate Christian Ambition." Evening, "The Rural Community in Its Relation to the Commonwealth." Remember the Sunday school.

E. A. KNIGHT.

Two Jacks for Sale

I have two large jacks, one 6 years and the other 2 years old, which I am offering for sale. The younger one especially large. Their colts can be seen here. Address or telephone me. E. E. LEACH, Union, Neb.

Another Good Wrestling Match!

Frank Schmarder—175 lbs
—vs—
Toy Ray—168 lbs

Tuesday Night, April 20th
COATES HALL
—GOOD PRELIMINARY—
Al Renner, of Plattsmouth, vs.
Geo. Reichart, Jr., of Louisville

Tom Ray was defeated here a few weeks ago by Schmarder, and returns with blood in his eye, determined to down Frank this time.

This Will Be a Good One—Don't Miss It!

FOR SALE

Six room house, 6th and Marble, with bath, electric light, gas, water, and sewer connection. Inquire of Geo. L. Farley. 31-d. It-w.

Eggs for Setting.

The best strain of White Orpingtons, setting of 15 $2 50 eggs $5, 100 eggs $8. Call or write Matt McQuinn, Union Neb. d&wt

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED

The petition of Harry P. Long of South Bend has been filed in the office of the county judge asking for the probate and administration of the estate of his wife, Eulalie Long, deceased. The court has granted the prayer of the petition and appointed Mr. Long as the administrator of the estate.

Your Money Buys the Best!

We are carrying the best line of Staple and Fancy Groceries, and at prices that will save all purchasers money. We have fresh vegetables and fruits in season.

We still have a very few hats left. Better get them before it is too late. Also a line of ties and cravats which large cities cannot duplicate at the price.

R. D. STINE
UNION NEBRASKA

A. PEDERSEN—BLACKSMITH!

I have purchased the Krecklow shop in Louisville and am prepared to do all kinds of Blacksmithing, Horse Shoeing, Etc.

Bring me your work. I guarantee satisfaction.

A. PEDERSON,
LOUISVILLE NEBRASKA

"That Baby Overland"

We have accepted the agency in Union and vicinity for the "Baby Overland," which you must see and ride in to appreciate. We also carry Oldsmobile Cars and Trucks and Reo Cars and Trucks. We have a number of good mechanics ready for any work that may be offered in the repair line. We also carry a full stock of tires and accessories for all makes of cars. See us for cars or repair work.

ROBERT WILLIS,
UNION NEBRASKA

Some Real Spring Bargains!

In order to reduce the heavy stock we are carrying at present, we are offering some extraordinary bargains in several lines of merchandise. Canned goods are being sold for less than you could otherwise buy them and they're all prime goods. We have a big bargain in lanterns at $1.10. See them. Work clothes at wholesale prices, as good as the market affords. We also have some extra bargains in paints, leads and oils, as low as the present wholesale prices. You know what that means. A fine line of breakfast foods bought so we can sell them right. You can also save money here on a cream separator or a Fairbanks-Morse gasoline engine. Headquarters for all lubricating oils, axle grease and hard oil, bought to sell right. If you drink java, get our special prices on coffee.

Here is a genuine opportunity to save money. Let us serve you. We guarantee complete satisfaction.

A. L. BECKER,
UNION NEBRASKA

Piles—Fistula—Pay When Cured

A mild system of treatment that cures Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases in a short time, without a severe surgical operation. No Chloroform, Ether or other general anesthetic used. A cure guaranteed in every case accepted for treatment, and no money to be paid until cured. Write for book on Rectal Diseases, with names and addresses of more than 100 prominent people who have been permanently cured.

DR. E. R. TARRY 240 Bee Building OMAHA, NEBRASKA

Drs. Mach & Mach, The Dentists

The largest and best equipped dental offices in Omaha. Experts in charge of all work. Lady attendant. Moderate Prices. Porcelain fillings just like tooth. Instruments carefully sterilized after using.

THIRD FLOOR, PAXTON BLOCK, OMAHA

House for Sale!

Six rooms; bath; screened in porch and all modern in every respect.—

Take your choice of frame, stucco or brick.

If you need more rooms, we can add them, and if less, we will leave them off.

You have postponed building that home long enough.

You're tired of the old home and its inconveniences. Now is the time to start your 'Home Sweet Home.' We furnish the material and specifications. Let us figure with you.

Frans Bros. Lumber Company
Union, Nebraska

30,000 Acres
LINCOLN COUNTY, COLORADO LAND FOR SALE!

We are making trips to Colorado every week. Come and make a trip and see the country. Special prices on farms to March 1, 1920. Prices $17.50 to $50 per acre, according to location and improvements. One wheat crop will pay for the land. Land already sown in wheat. Have 60 acres 3 miles east of Union for quick sale at $135.00 per acre. Good terms. Phone L. R. Upton, phone No. 39.

CHAS. BOWDISH,
Box 11, Union, Neb.