not many, for one thing, outside the solid south, New York has a democratic governor, but he is a member of Tammany hall. The one outstanding possibility is James M. Con of Ohio. He is outstanding because he has repeatedly carried that republican state and has administered its affairs without scandal. Incidentally, he has taken one course which most particularly draws the finger of the logic in his direction. He s a wet, and would doubtless agree to the beer and light wines plans of the wets. But he has enforced the Ohio dry laws effectively. That will give democratic drys an excuse to stay in their party if he is nominated. Apparently, too, Cox has not

Bryan's hostility. All this makes Cox more nearly a logical candidate than democrats have a right to expect of these illogical times. He is fifty years old, a good presidential age. He was a farm boy, a fine political asset. His one perhaps fatal weakness is the career as printer and newspaper man which followed his abandonment of agriculture.-State Journal.

CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Europe Welcomes The Chandler Six

JOW and then you read something about "French style and line" in automobiles, or perhaps it's "the newest English idea." And some folks have gone across to get the newest suggestions.

Europe hasn't built automobiles for five years and Europe is crying for new cars and good cars.

America's style is Europe's style now.

The Chandler Six, popular in many other countries for years but kept out of Europe the past three years because of war-time prohibition of shipments, is welcomed everywhere in Europe now-welcomed for the excellence of its performance, and quite as much for the beauty of its styles of body.

The Chandler, represented in the British Isles by Messrs. H. G. Burford & Company, Ltd., of London, was exhibited by that old established English automotive house, at the great Olympia Motor Show, and was "quite the sensation of the show," says a London cable. "Three hundred and seventy Chandlers were sold in two days." Apparently England is greatly pleased with America's best style in
