Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Nickel left last Thursday for Diller, Nebr., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Nickel's uncle, Jake Lotmann. They returned home Tuesday noon.

Miss Dell Sutton visited a couple of days with her sister, Mrs. Tom Sutton, of Chappel, Nebraska, who is in an Omaha hospital, where she underwent an operation last week.

Among those going to Lincoln on Monday were Mrs. C. M. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Dale S. Boyles, Wm. Ault-house, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clapp, Sam Hardnock and Mrs. George P. Foreman.

The Senior class play, "Polly Lou," was given last Friday night at the high school auditorium to a crowded house and was a decided success. The proceeds amounted to the neat sum of $162.00.

E. G. Harlan and J. W. Hanks were Lincoln visitors Wednesday forenoon. They were accompanied home by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Harlan, of Lincoln, who will spend a week here with both families.

Mrs. George Philip Nickel
Catherine Eidenmiller was born in Hesse Darnstadt, Germany, November 5, 1847. When she was six years of age, she came with her parents to the United States, settling at Pittsburg, Pa.

From Pennsylvania she came with her parents to Tazewell county, Illinois, in 1864. Here she was married, in 1867, at Pekin, to George P. Nickel, and in the spring of 1875, with her husband, came to Cass county, Nebraska, settling on the farm which has been her home continuously since that time.

Here were born and reared her family of ten children, two of whom died in early life and two after arriving at maturity. Those living are Anna C., George P., Martin J., Louise, William and Nellie M. Nickel, all residing in the vicinity of Alvo.

Mrs. Nickel was baptised in the Lutheran church when a child and never united with any other church, but was an attendant at the church in Alvo as long as her health permitted.

About a year ago her health began to fail and in October of last year she took to her bed, where she remained continuously until she was released by death Monday, April 12, 1920, at the age of 72 years, 5 months and 7 days.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George Philip Nickel, who passed away in August, 1905. Her immediate relatives include John Eidenmiller and Miss Mary Eidenmiller and George Eidenmiller, of Portland, Oregon.

The funeral was held at Elmwood Wednesday afternoon, April 14th, conducted by Rev. E. A. Knight, of Alvo. Burial was made in the Elmwood cemetery.

The many friends of the bereaved family extend sincere sympathy.

Obituary—Paul Frohlich
Paul Frohlich was born in Germany, June 29, 1843 and died at Lincoln April 10, 1920, aged 71 years, 10 months and 10 days.

At the age of three years he came with his parents to this country, they locating near Niagara Falls, N. Y. Here his early boyhood days were spent and in 1869 he was united in marriage to Miss Rachel Soffin and to this union four children were born. In 1880 Mr. Frohlich, with his family, moved to Nebraska, locating near Eagle, but later moving to Alvo, where his wife died on March 16, 1907. Since that time he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Clyde W. Boyles, of Lincoln.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, April 14th, from the M. E. church in Alvo, being conducted by Rev. E. N. Tompkins, pastor of Trinity Methodist church at Lincoln and burial was made in the Alvo cemetery beside his wife.

The deceased is survived by his four children, Mrs. J. M. Robotham, Burlington, Colo.; Mrs. C. C. Bucknell, Alvo; George C. Frohlich, and Mrs. Clyde W. Boyles, Lincoln, all of whom were in attendance at the funeral. Their many friends extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives in their hour of grief.

Card of Thanks
We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our friends for their many acts of kindness and for the beautiful flowers sent us during the illness and death of our beloved father.—Mrs. J. M. Robotham, Mrs. C. C. Bucknell; Geo. C. Frohlich, Mrs. Clyde W. Boyles.

Installs Electric Pumps
R. W. Stewart, the enterprising pump dealer of Alvo, and withal a genial gentleman, last Friday installed the electric pumps on the farms of Charles Warner, Sr. and Charles Warner, Jr., some nine miles west of town, which are giving the best of satisfaction. Mr. Warner, Sr., was recently nominated for the legislature and will be a candidate before the fall election for the honor of representing Lancaster county in that august body of lawmakers. Mr. Stewart's business is constantly increasing due to the careful attention he gives to it.

The Methodist Church
We want to assure all the people of this community that they are welcome at all the services of our church. This includes the services of the minister, in all the matters of interest to the community. We cannot go everywhere at once, but we will go anywhere at once, if we are needed, and you will but send us the word. We are at the service of the entire community in our line, just as fully as your doctor. Use us. Sincerely,
E. A. KNIGHT,
Minister.

Fred Schiefert moved his stock cattle out on his farm southwest of town this week, purchasing six head of William Lau to add to his herd, which makes him fourteen head in all. His cousin, Andrew Schiefert will farm one of his eighties and he will farm the balance himself, assisted by his son, Melvin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Diers, of Fullerton, Neb., arrived Saturday for an over Sunday visit with the W. F. Diers family. They spent the winter in Florida and are on their way home after an extensive eastern trip during the course of which they visited many points of interest. They spent Easter Sunday in Atlantic City. The stork left two sweet little daughters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogler and Mr. and Mrs. George Vogler, south of Louisville recently, and the two brothers and wives are receiving the congratulations of their friends. At the Henry Vogler home, the little miss arrived on Thursday, April 15th and at the George Vogler home, she came on Saturday, April 17th.

Mr. Sunstrom has been with the company for a number of years and has been a most conscientious and faithful worker and his friends are pleased to know that the company has recognized this fact.

Richard Loberg has received word from his brother, Swan Loberg, of Clay Center, Kansas, saying that Mrs. Loberg is in a hospital in Kansas City for treatment for cancer of the stomach and is not making very favorable progress. She suffers a great deal but they are doing everything they can to relieve her sufferings and effect her recovery. The Louisville friends of the family will be sorry to learn of Mrs. Loberg's serious condition.

Probably the happiest boy in town just at present is Marion Ossenkop as their handsome new car has arrived and with summer at hand, he can see glad days ahead. The car is certainly a beauty, a Stutz, and is one of the best on the market. Mr. and Mrs. Ossenkop have been considerably tied down by business and with this fine car they will be able to get out a little more than they have heretofore and they are anticipating much enjoyment in the possession of it. They made a trip to Plattsmouth the first evening it arrived to visit Mrs. Ossenkop's sister Mrs. Frank Schlater and family.

P. Petersen, Louisville's veteran shoemaker and a highly respected pioneer citizen, passed his eighty-fifth birthday last Tuesday, April 20th. His daughter, Mrs. Claude Seiver, who lives with him, was unable to get the family together for a regular celebration, but she served a quiet family birthday dinner in honor of the occasion. Mr. Petersen was born in Denmark and came to America when a young man, locating first in Cincinnati. He came to Louisville in 1882 and has resided here ever since. His wife passed away in 1904. Mr. Petersen has never lost his grasp of the affairs of the world and keeps himself well informed as to what is going on around him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Domingo are expected home this evening from California, where they have spent the winter.

Dr. F. F. Brandel of Murray county physician, was in town Wednesday morning. He had been out to Sherman Frans' home west of town to see Mr. Frans, who is afflicted with what has been pronounced smallpox.

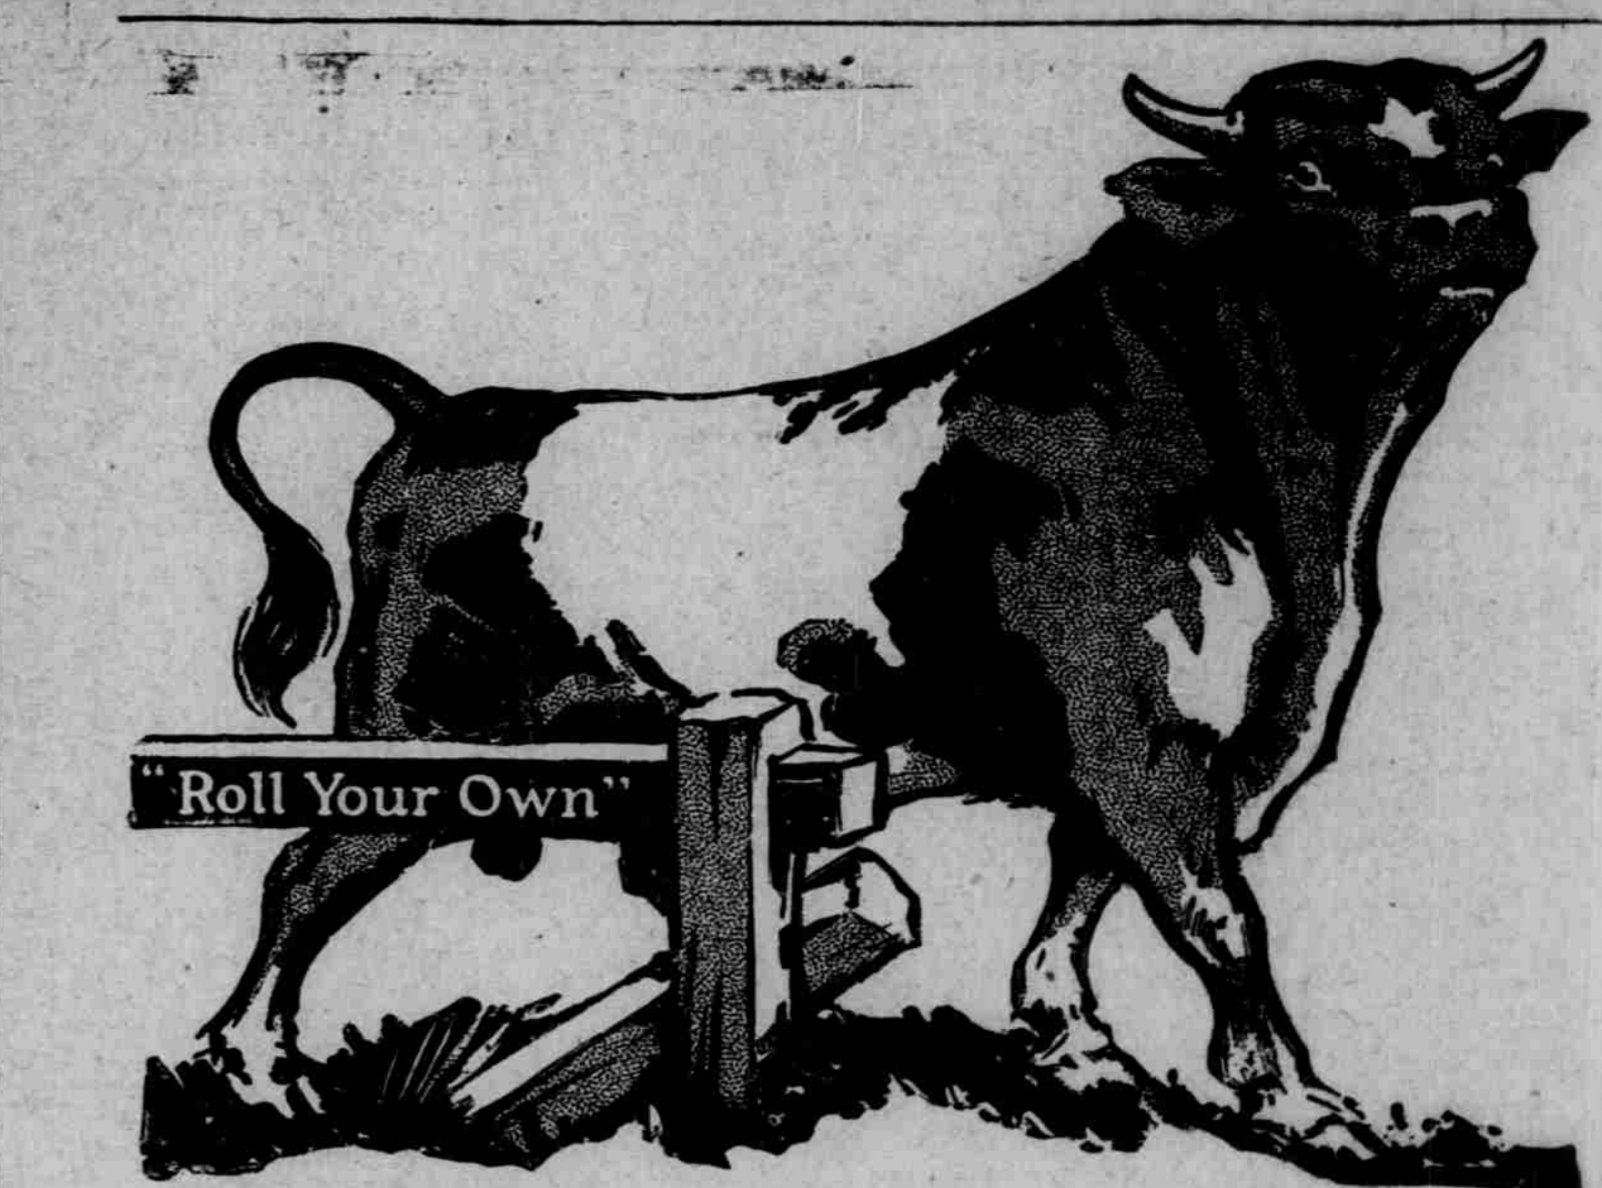

Mrs. Helen Wallick who had been over from Plattsmouth a few days looking over matters at the telephone office as district chief, returned to Plattsmouth Sunday evening via Lincoln, accompanied by her friend, Miss Lettie Foster who came over Saturday evening.

Harold Wiles was taken to a hospital at Omaha Thursday morning. He was accompanied by his father Isaac Wiles. Harold has been sick the last ten days and it was thought best that he go to a hospital. It is sincerely hoped that Harold's trouble will not be serious as he has had his share.

Word was received that Mrs. Dave Foltz of Omaha was in the Nicholas Senn hospital suffering from the after effects of the flu. For several days she was in a critical condition but word came from there Saturday saying she was improving slowly. Also her mother Mrs. Mary C. Dawson who is with her daughter, Mrs. James Philpot at Gandy, is reported very sick and the last word that came from there (Thursday last week) stated that she was no better.

County Commissioner Harris was in town Monday morning while on his way to the overshoot bridge three and one-half miles north of town. Mr. Harris has succeeded in getting the M. P. R. R. to lessen the grade of the approaches to this bridge, the work of which commenced Monday. A better grade over this bridge will be a great favor to the farmers in that community and even to all that go that way.

The funeral of Mr. Fred Ronne who died last Thursday morning was held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the M. E. church, services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. F. Haskins. A large number of old neighbors and friends from the farm neighborhood attended to show their esteem for this fine old man. Pall bearers were Jim Terryberry, Thomas Akesson from the farm neighborhood, Wm. Pankonin and Theodore Harms of Manley and Wm. Jameson and Albie Hobson of Weeping Water. Miss Ruby Nutzman and John Sweeney were quietly married at Nebraska City Wednesday of last week. The bride is the daughter of the late Ernest Nutzman, Sr., and has resided near Avoca all of her life. She has been teaching in Springfield until the past year. She is a charming and amiable young lady and we are

The wedding was very quiet on account of the recent death of Mr. Nutzman, father of the bride. The young couple will make their home on a farm near Springfield, so we have been told. We join our readers in wishing them a prosperous and happy life.

to a message announcing the illness of her son, Oscar, who has just come from a stay of several months at the St. Joseph hospital, where he underwent a very severe operation. Oscar and wife have been at the J. D. McBride home on the South Side for the past few days and on Tuesday the young man was taken with a very severe attack of pleurisy that became so serious that it was thought best to call the mother. The last reports from his bedside however, state that he is doing very nicely and it is thought the attack will not produce any serious after-effects.
