Many Kinds of Business
Art Bornemeier, who some time ago went to Lincoln to engage in the real estate business, has gotten lots of business on his hands just at present. In addition to selling lands, he has his farm here and a threshing outfit, which would seem enough to occupy any one man's time. Not so with Mr. Bornemeier, however, for he has traded some land holdings in the west for a hardware business in Burchard, and has had to go there and look after the business until he shall be able to trade it for equities requiring less attention.

Spending Some Time in South
J. E. McHugh, manager of the Murdock Mercantile company, departed last Wednesday for Falls City, where he spent a couple of days with his mother, Mrs. Kate McHugh, as well as his brothers and sisters living there, after which he continued on his way to Excelsior Springs, Mo., intending to spend a week or ten days in that popular health resort town before returning to resume his work at the store.

Storm Extends Their Visit
H. A. Tool and family drove to Springfield last Sunday in their trusty car expecting to visit briefly with friends and then return home, but the weather was not conducive to the returning part of their program, so they were compelled to remain over night. Mr. Tool came home on the train Monday morning. Mrs. Tool and her daughter came in the evening and Dick remained until Tuesday morning to bring the car home.

Mrs. Burwell Improving Slowly
Mrs. J. H. Burwell, wife of Supt. Prof. Burwell was a passenger to Lincoln Thursday evening to see his wife and to consult with the physicians relative to the advantages of a trip south at the present time.

Spend Enjoyable Evening
The young people of the Wabash neighborhood and those residing between here and there had a very delightful gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McCoresy on last Thursday evening. They enjoyed themselves immensely with games, music and a fine program besides. At a suitable hour refreshments were served which also helped to liven the spirits of those in attendance.

Makes Purchase of Home
O. J. Pothast, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, has decided that it is best to have a home of one's own, and while he was figuring on the purchase of a lot and building a home thereon, his deal for a desirable lot fell through. Consequently he opened negotiations with Jesse Landholm for the purchase of the new home Mr. Landholm constructed last summer, and a deal has since been made. This is a very desirable place, modern in every respect and will make Mr. Pothast and wife an ideal residence.

NEHAWKA News-Ledger

Mrs. Alta Candy, of Atlanta, Ga., a sister of the late Mrs. Bert Lloyd, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for some time left on Thursday afternoon for Lincoln, where she will spend a few days before returning to her home in the south.

About fifteen members of the I. O. O. F. order at this place went to Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon where the annual district meeting was held this year. The towns of Avoca, Elmwood, Weeping Water, Louisville and Nehawka were represented. A big time was reported by the delegation from this place.
Herman Stoll, who moved from this place to Grant, Neb., a couple of years ago, held a public sale on the street here Saturday afternoon. The stuff sold was odds and ends in farm machinery and some live stock left on the place when he went west. The sale netted good prices for this time of year. Mr. Stoll returned to Grant Sunday afternoon.
B. J. Moore, who has been working as clerk in the Sheldon store for several months left Tuesday for Johnson, Nebr., where he has secured another position. During his short time in Nehawka he and his wife gathered a host of friends who regret very much to lose them from our midst. Their goods were taken to their new home this week by the Nehawka Transfer company via the auto truck route.

There's no use talking

American boys are hard on their clothes. Not much use to buy them cheap or ordinary clothes—they'll go right through them, and it takes two suits to last them where one good one would do the job.

That's why we want to tell you about—

Boys' DUBBELBILT clothes

If you buy your boy one of these suits you know it's going to hold him—it's got to because it's guaranteed for six months' service. Of course they cost you more, but they are double at every point where the strain comes, which means double wear. Ordinary clothes nowadays will cost nearly as much. These are $14.75 to $20.75 for good quality fabrics.
