lodge consolidated with Platte lodge in what is now the present effective organization. The lodge has at present a membership of 77 and a greatly renewed interest in the work that means for the growth of the order. The local lodge has at present a reserve of $6,596.37 in stocks and money.

Joseph C. Wurga gave a history of the activities of Mystic Encampment No. 31, which was instituted on February 6, 1889, with the following charter members: L. G. Larson, L. E. Kearns, L. Davis, B. C. Kerr, Frank Boyd, Thomas E. Williams, J. C. Eikenbary. Since that time 121 members of the order have joined and received this higher degree of Odd Fellowship and 31 now are embraced in the membership as others have passed away to their final degrees in the great hereafter or have removed from the city. cordially invited the members of the Odd Fellows to join the higher degrees of the order and to attain the fullest conception of the work of the patriarchs.

Mrs. Allen J. Beeson, in her usual dignified manner gave a most charming dramatic reading as a tribute to the memory of "mother" and one that gave the speaker the fullest opportunity of displaying her unusual talent in the art of elocution.

The history of Bud of Promise lodge No. 49, Daughters of Rebekah was given by Miss Marie Kaufmann, secretary of the lodge and detailed as complete as possible the progress of the lodge from the date of its foundation, September 26, 1888, down to the present time. This lodge has been a powerful assistant to the work of the Odd Fellows and at the present time is enjoying the prosperity that is being shared by the Odd Fellows in their growth. Of the charter members, one L. E. Kearns is still a member in the great organization.

At the conclusion of the reading of the history of the Rebekahs by Miss Kaufmann, a most delightful humorous reading was given by Miss Hazel Clugy, one of the talented young ladies of the city, and which was most heartily enjoyed by every one present.

A very complete history of the origin and purposes of Odd Fellowship was given by James H. Short, district deputy grand patriarch, and in which Mr. Short traced down through years since the early Roman conquest of the British isles the progress of the movement that was to be developed into the greatest of American fraternal orders. Mr. Short recited the differences in the English order that resulted in the formation of the Manchester Unity of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and from the membership of which came the American order. In the winter of 1818 Thomas Wilkey and John Welch arrived in the United States and learning that they each belonged to the Odd Fellows they at once instituted a search for other members of the order and through newspaper notices in the Baltimore American secured a meeting on March 2, 1819, at which John Duncan and John Cheatam were present and on April 26, 1819, Richard Rushworth joined them and the five members made application for the first lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the United States and named it Washington lodge No. 1, in honor of the first president of the nation. The grand lodge of Maryland and of the United States was instituted in 1821. It was in 1855 that the first lodge in Nebraska was founded in Nebraska City and since then the order has

ASKS ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE IN IOWA

Petition Filed in District Court Claims Marriage Performed in Iowa Contrary to the Law

From Wednesday's Daily

A petition was filed today in the office of the clerk of the district court by Robert Shrader of Murray, through his attorney Matthew Gerling, asking that the court set aside as null and void, marriage of plaintiff. The title of the action is Robert Shrader vs. Margaret Sprader, and in the petition of the plaintiff it is alleged that on May 31, 1919, the defendant started a suit for divorce against her husband, Raymond L. Morris and that on November 5, 1919, a decree of divorce was granted in the district court of Cass county to the defendant from Mr. Morris. It is further alleged that to evade the laws of the state of Nebraska covering the marriage of divorced persons, the plaintiff and defendant were united in marriage at Glenwood, Iowa, on January 24, 1920, and returned to Cass county, where they resided until the middle of April, 1920, when the defendant departed from the home of the plaintiff. It is also claimed that cruelty and desertion have made their married life impossible and the plaintiff petitions the court to set aside the marriage performed at Glenwood as null and void owing to the fact that the time limit set by the laws of Nebraska as to the marriage of divorced persons had not been complied with.

The main feature of the banquet was the enjoyment of the many good things that the ladies had prepared and nothing was omitted from the menu that might add to the enjoyment of the members of the party. County Judge Allen J. Beeson was requested to offer a few remarks by the toastmaster and responded in his usual pleasing manner on the good of the order and as the judge is very versatile his remarks brought forth a great deal of approval from the auditors.

The members of the party enjoyed a short social visit at the conclusion of the banquet and then departed homeward feeling that the Odd Fellows and the Daughters of Rebekah had more than fittingly observed the great anniversary of the order and that the committee in charge of the program and banquet had certainly won a high honor as entertainers.

REDUCED FARE TO STATE G. A. R. MEET

Good Only for Members, Auxiliary Societies and Their Families

Department Commander J. B. Strode, by Assistant Adjutant General Harmon Bross, is notifying grand army posts that a reduced rate of one and one-third fare has been granted by the western passenger association to the state encampment of the G. A. R. which is to be held at Fremont, May 17 to 19.

"Round trip tickets will be sold at one and one-third fare (with minimum $1) for the round trip from posts in Nebraska, for this occasion, upon presentation of identification certificates applicable for members of our organization and auxiliary societies and dependent members of their families only and the tickets will be good via same route in both directions. Identification certificates will be furnished upon application to the office of assistant adjutant general at the state house.

"Tickets will be sold on May 15-21, inclusive, with return limit of May 25, 1920. On date of departure from Fremont tickets must be presented to the ticket agent at that point for validation, without which they will not be honored for return passage. Tickets will be validated May 19 to 24, inclusive.

"One identification certificate will suffice for each member of the order, including dependent members of his or her family, and it will not be necessary to furnish separate certificates for dependent members of the family.

"These identification certificates will be signed at the G. A. R. office and sent to posts on request of adjutants. Prompt action is needed on the part of officers of posts and all allied organizations.

"Post adjutants will inform the assistant adjutant general at once how many certificates will be needed for that point. This count should include delegates from the post and the woman's relief corps with their dependents who plan to go. Identification card is not required, as heretofore for each passenger, but one will answer for the family. Circles of the ladies of the G. A. R., Camps of Sons of Veterans and their auxiliary, corps of Daughters of Veterans, will be supplied from their own headquarters. All applications for entertainment should be sent direct to George H. Wolz, Executive Director of G. A. R. encampment, Fremont."

TIME FOR COUNTY CONVENTIONS NEAR

County Clerk George R. Sayles Notifying Delegates Elected of the Date, May 11, at Plattsmouth

From Wednesday's Daily

County Clerk George R. Sayles is engaged in sending out certificates to the delegates elected to the democratic and republican county conventions which under the law will be held on the second Tuesday in May, which makes the date May 11th.

The law passed by the last session of the state legislature fixes the place of the county conventions as the county seat of the county so that both conventions will be held in Plattsmouth on May 11th at the court house at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The holding of both conventions at the same place and on the same date insures that there will be much political dope floating around on the occasion. The republicans of the county have almost all precincts represented by full—no, not more than 1/2 of one per cent—delegations while the democrats will have but a scattering group of delegates.

RETURNS FROM CALIFORNIA

From Wednesday's Daily

This morning Mrs. Frederick Engelkemeier and daughter, Miss Rose, returned to their home in this city after an absence of four months on the Pacific coast and in the south. Mrs. Engelkemeier and daughter spent the greater part of the time in the California cities and escaped the cold weather that has characterized the past few months in Nebraska. On their return they enjoyed visits with relatives and friends at points in Oklahoma for a few weeks. They report a most delightful outing and have enjoyed to the utmost the time spent in the west. Their relatives and friends are delighted to welcome them home and to learn that they have had so pleasant a visit.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE

From Wednesday's Daily

Petition for divorce entitled Lora Bokelman vs. Frank Bokelman, has been filed in the district court and in the petition the plaintiff states that they were married at Weeping Water December 25, 1908, and have since made their home in this county. Six minor children are named by the plaintiff who asks their custody.

LAD KICKED BY MULE SEVERELY INJURED

Wilbur Olson, Son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Olson, Gets in Close Connection with Animal.

From Wednesday's Daily

This morning Wilbur, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Olson, received a very severe injury as the result of being kicked by one of the mules belonging to the firm of E. G. Dovey & Son.

The young man had left home to attend school, but as he was late decided not to attend the morning session and visited the barn in the rear of the E. G. Dovey & Son store and saw engaged in playing with the mules which were in the barn at the time. There was no one with the young man and when he was kicked by the mule on the side of the head, he was knocked to the floor and remained there unconscious for two hours.

When he recovered his senses after the encounter with the mighty left hoof of "Springer," he discovered that he had been bleeding very profusely from the nose and ears, but was able to get up and go home, and did not say anything of the accident at the time. As he was lying down the mother began an inquiry and discovered the story of the kicking. A physician was called, but as far as could be learned, the young man was not injured dangerously.

LADS GET PICKED UP

From Wednesday's Daily

Last evening, Officer Henry Trout took into custody two young lads, who stated that their homes were in Omaha, and they are being held for the arrival of their parents from the metropolis. The boys were noticed by Officer Trout while they were apparently engaged in trying to dispose of a watch to one of the employees of the Russell cafe and the boys were called across the street and Mr. Trout asked them if they had a watch for sale and they produced one of the famous Ingersoll watches and attempted to ped-
