ASKS REASON WHY; TIMELY QUESTIONS

Mrs. Annie I. White Says Bolsheviks Don't Just Exist—They Are Made Here at Home.

Plattsmouth, Neb.

May 6, 1920.

To the Editor of the Evening Journal.

Dear Sir: Will you allow me, through your paper, to ask a few questions that many others besides myself, would like to have answered. We have been paying our real estate taxes and listing our personal property, and consequently, feel as if we had been burglarized.

1. Who are the particular Pharaohs who are responsible for this excessive taxation and to whom can one apply to for relief or remedy?

2. Can the state, county or city, through over taxation, deprive people of the means of existence, and is there a fund being raised for the enlightenment of poor houses so that the widows, orphans and others so deprived, may find a refuge, as there will certainly be a great exodus to such institutions?

3. Is this taxation anyway, or just plain extortion?

4. Of what advantage is it to expend money on universities, schools, and other educational institutions, when such educational factors as books, pictures and engravings must be abolished from homes because of taxation?

5. Are clothes and shoes necessities or luxuries, and are we not taxed enough for them, when bought, without an added tax when worn out?

6. If we must pay tax on kitchen utensils, would our legislative body kindly show us an appetizing way to serve our food raw?

7. Is it consistent to evince such horror of Czarism in other countries and practice it in our own?

8. Can it be possible that we are so busy dusting the door steps of other nations and bemoaning the so-called down trodden condition of their people, that we are oblivious to the accumulating mud on our own doorsteps, and blind to the very real distress of our own down trodden, tax-ridden people?

9. Is not all this extortion, oppression, profiteering, etc., going to re-act most unfavorably on us, as on other countries? Are we inviting bolshevism and its horrors? Surely all the level-headed men have not been killed off in the war! I have asked any number of people the question "to whom shall we appeal for relief?" and have had the same reply from all, namely: "What's the use?" Well I know the answer to what's the use? It is Russia as it is at present.

WEeping WATER

Mrs. S. Ray Smith and little son came over from Plattsmouth Saturday evening for a visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Downing, Charlie Murphy returned Sunday morning from the western part of the state where he had spent a couple of weeks and bought a 160-acre farm near Madrid, and got his son, Frank, located and equipped on the farm. Charlie said he saw a lot of snow out there during his stay.

H. Gorder, secretary. We understand the only person signed up on the teaching force for next year is the superintendent.

Emery Ronne, who was detained on his visit here for several weeks on account of the death of his father, Mr. Fred Ronne, left Friday morning for Weiser, Idaho. Emery is an engineer on the railroad and felt like he ought to get back to work for the company. His wife remained here and will stay indefinitely with his mother until other arrangements can be made for company for Mrs. Fred Ronne.

Supt. H. B. Tibbels has accepted the superintendency of the schools at Syracuse for the coming year at 50 per cent increase over the salary paid here this year. Mr. Tibbels has made good at Weeping Water and has built up a particularly strong junior and senior high school system, but was not a candidate for re-election here. A new building is to be built at Syracuse and junior high school and a departmentalized lower grade system is in prospect.

We often talk about being surprised but the latest real surprise was perpetrated on Grandma K. D. Clark last Thursday, April 29th. It being her birthday her three daughter-in-laws, Mrs. Fred Clark, Mrs. C. W. Clark, Mrs. Vesta Clark, and three grandchildren, and her special friend, Mrs. M. H. Shumaker, came up from Union prepared to serve a sumptuous supper and the whole plan was kept from grandma until she returned from the store and found supper in readiness. The real funny part of it all was on account of the threatening rain. Mrs. Clark advised her grandson that he had better get home with the car before more rain should come, but he still lingered. How rude not to take his grandmother's advice. But all was well, the young man enjoyed the supper and drove the car home in safety. Mrs. Shumaker remained until Saturday morning.

STATE BANKERS ASK FOR INVESTIGATION

Of Irregularities Alleged to be Performed by Federal Reserve Bank Employees.

From Thursday's Daily. Attacking the administration of the federal reserve act, state bankers from seven mid-west states, included among whom is H. A. Schneider, of the Plattsmouth State Bank and H. K. Frantz, of Eagle, president of the state bankers' association, told the house rules and banking committees yesterday that federal employees by coercive methods were seeking to force state bankers into the reserve system.

The rules committee was asked to act favorably on the resolution of Representative King, republican, Illinois, proposing investigation of the administration of the federal reserve act, while the banking committee was requested to report an amendment of the act authorizing a charge for exchange.

H. Flood Madison, a state banker of Bastrop, La., testified that it was not an uncommon practice for federal reserve banks to accumulate checks against a state bank calling for twice as much as the last cash reserve of the bank under the state laws, and then to present the checks for payment at one time.

Describing similar practice, Representatives King and Reavis, republicans, Nebraska, said such actions were "the conduct of a highwayman."

A. L. Becker, of Union, was in the city yesterday afternoon for a few hours, looking after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Oris Schliebert and son, Herman and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schliebert, all of Manley, were in the city yesterday afternoon, looking after some matters of business.

SEARCHES FOR TRUFFLES

Postmaster D. C. Morgan, who is a great lover of the toothsome truffle yesterday secured the assistance of W. J. Straight and the two gentlemen spent several hours along the sandbars northeast of the city searching for their favorite food and reports have it that their largest find was a large quantity of dark rich gumbo which they found to be over their shoe tops. Their enthusiasm however, was not diminished and they will continue their efforts until they land a fine batch of the truffles.

RECOVER BALANCE OF NEHAWKA LOOT

Jewels Belonging to Nehawka K. of P. Lodge Are Uncarried Behind Donat Building

From Thursday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon D. Steffens, keeper of records and seals of the Nehawka Knights of Pythias lodge, was in the city in company with Henning Johnson of that place and the two gentlemen recovered the remainder of the lodge jewels which had been missing since the robbery of the desk of the keeper of records in the lodge room on April 20th.

The young man who had a hand in the affair in pulling off the robbery had come to this city shortly after the robbery and while here visited the soft drink parlor of Ed Donat and engaged William Weber, who was in charge at the time in conversation and offered to sell him a number of stamps which would total near ninety cents for a half dollar. He also offered Mr. Weber a number of K. of P. jewels which he wanted to sell and his possession of these led Mr. Weber to suspect that all was not as it should be and he refused the offer. The man then left the place and nothing more was heard of the matter until the return of the young man to Nehawka when he was questioned and a part at least of the facts in the case uncarried by the lodge officers. It seems that the young man had also offered for sale to one of the Nehawka members of the order who happened to be in this city the jewels, and on his return home the robbery was discovered and the party pulling it off was given the once over. He was finally induced to tell what he had done with the missing jewels and he stated he had left them hidden behind a pile of empty cases near the building occupied by Mr. Donat. A search yesterday disclosed the jewels reposing back of the near beer cases on the east side of the building of Mr. Donat, where the youthful robber had hidden them. Mr. Steffens departed for home with the jewels and the lodge is saved the expenditure of the amount that the new set would cost them.

Owing to the youth of the man and the fact that the only loss has been ninety-four cents in stamps there will be no prosecution against him by the lodge officers and in this he can feel very grateful as it has saved him a trip to the state reformatory.

Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water, was in the city for a few hours yesterday afternoon looking after some matters of business in the county court.

W. H. Shoemaker, wife and Miss Edith Thiele motored up this morning from Nehawka and while Mr. Shoemaker spent the day here visiting with his friends and looking after business matters, Mrs. Shoemaker and Miss Thiele spent a few hours in Omaha.
