COMMISSIONERS IN BUSY SESSION NOW

Monarch Engineering Co., of Falls City Awarded Contract for Bridge Work for the Coming Year

From Thursday's daily. The board of county commissioners at their session yesterday took up a number of matters of importance and among them the awarding of the bridge contract for the ensuing year. The Monarch Engineering Co., of Falls City, being the lowest bidder was awarded the contract for bridge work excepting the concrete work and the bond of the company for the faithful performance of their part of the contract was accepted by the board.

The bids for lumber for the year were found unsatisfactory and the commissioners authorized the rejection of the bids as filed.

W. H. Betts was appointed road overseer for Avoca precinct and the bond of the new overseer received and accepted by the board.

The matter of the recording of the discharge certificates of the former soldiers, sailors and marines was taken up with the county board who will investigate their authority in the matter and await an opinion from County Attorney A. G. Cole as to whether or not they can order the free recording of these instruments. The county recorder, Mrs. Edna Shannon, has been willing to do the extra work that would be entailed, but whether or not the statutes would permit the recording free or for a very low fee is a question that the county attorney will be called upon to pass.

The application of Matt McQuinn of Liberty precinct was heard by the county board, Mr. McQuinn being represented by his attorney C. A. Rawls, and the board will in accordance with its previous decision, have the bridge installed as soon as practical although the construction must await the turn as there are a large number of other bridges already ordered that must first be constructed. Mr. McQuinn has deposited a check for $100 with the commissioners as a guarantee on his part in paying the bill for the bridge when completed.

EAGLE Beacon

Will and Warren Trumble came in from Wild Horse, Colorado, Monday morning, having completed their spring work for the present. They say the great blizzard piled snow as high as telegraph poles in places, but crop prospects are very good.

Mrs. Bertha Shoffer, an early settler in this community, died at Lincoln and is being buried at Eagle as we go to press. At this late hour we are unable to secure any of the particulars of her life, but are promised an obituary for next week.

Mrs. Harley Smith received a long looked for letter from her son, Everett, last Saturday. He is in the overseas service and this is the first she has heard from him direct for more than five months. She was considerably worried about him, but the letter, dated the 5th of April, banished her fears and she feels quite relieved.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruhga and little daughter, Eunice, left Friday for their new home near North Platte. Mrs. Ruhga and Eunice have been visiting for the past few weeks with Mrs. Ruhga's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams. The people of Eagle will miss them, but wish them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Considerable excitement was occasioned at Eagle last Friday by the fact that a couple of girls from Lincoln had been arrested the evening previous for having purloined some millinery and other ladies wraps from the dance hall. They had made their get-away, as we understand it, and had got back to Lincoln followed by Marshal Hartsock and several others. They were located and brought back to sleep the remainder of the night in the place not built for ladies of refined tastes. Friday morning they were brought before his honor, Judge Peterson, and after more or less delay, were handed a fine of $10 and costs. The young men who were with them to pay the bill were unable to get their checks cashed and were compelled to return to Lincoln for the cash to set the fair ones at liberty.

OLD TIMER VISITS HERE

From Friday's daily. This morning Con Mahoney, an old time Plattsmouth man, arrived in the city for a visit with friends with whom he was associated in the years long gone. Mr. Mahoney was a resident here many years ago and is a brother of T. H. Mahoney, one of the old residents of the city. He has for the past winter been engaged in working in the shipyards at New Orleans and expects to remain for the summer in the north.

GIVE FAREWELL FOR FRIEND LAST NIGHT

Members of T. J. Sokols and Z. C. B. J. Lodge Give Surprise for Joseph Cizek, Who Leaves for Bohemia

From Friday's Daily. For some time Joseph Cizek of this city has been planning a visit back to the old home in Bohemia and matters were arranged for his departure on Saturday for the land of his birth, to once more feast his eyes on the verdura clad hills and fertile fields of Bohemia, from which country so many of our worthy citizens have come. To see that he was given a fitting start on his journey last evening the members of the T. J. Sokol and Z. C. B. J. societies arranged a surprise on Joe and it was certainly a surprise.

The guest of honor was invited by William Holly to go to the hall and assist in fixing some windows which Mr. Holly represented were in need of repair and Mr. Cizek of course agreed. On the arrival at the T. J. Sokol hall the building was found in darkness and the "victim" of the occasion was wholly unaware of the pleasant event awaiting him. As he entered the hall the lights were turned on, the band, stationed on the stage, struck up one of the popular folk songs of Bohemia. To say that Mr. Cizek was surprised is putting it mildly and he required several minutes to recover from the shock as the laughing voices of his friends greeted him. The guest of honor, however, entered thoroughly into the spirit of the occasion and until a late hour the hall was the scene of much merriment. A fine banquet had been prepared by the ladies of the two societies and which abounding with the good things to eat made the occasion one long to be remembered. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and in the enjoyment of a fine social time.

At the home going hour the members of the party joined in wishing Mr. Cizek a happy and pleasant trip across the sea to the old home. When Mr. Cizek came to America his native land was a state of the Austrian-Hungarian empire and he returns to a republic in his own people which has been the result of the war and for which the Bohemian residents of the United States have long hoped and prayed for.

Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and Mrs. Harrison Gayer of Murray, were in the city yesterday to attend the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

APPOINTED POSTMASTER

From Saturday's Daily. George H. Wood, cashier of the Home State Bank, received a telegram Monday from Malta, Montana, informing him that he had been appointed by President Wilson, postmaster of that city.

Mr. Wood returned to Louisville recently from Montana to accept the position of cashier of the Home State Bank which was made vacant by the resignation of his brother, C. E. Wood, who moved to Peetz, Colorado, to accept a similar position in a new bank at that place. He has lived in Malta several years and had taken the civil service examination for postmaster and sent in his application before the offer came from the Louisville bank. The position pays $2,700 and Mr. Wood's friends feel that it is too good to turn down without serious consideration.

He has the friendly backing of most of the prominent business men in Malta and his friends there are urging his return and he will probably decide in the near future as to whether or not he will accept the position.—Louisville Courier.

Looking into the Clothes Question!

Let's quit looking thru smoked glasses, count our blessings, and go ahead with a smile to fight through our problems. You'll find us ready to help you solve the clothes problem and solve it right. Will you consider this an invitation to call and see what we can do for you? We still have suits below the $50 mark and in some sizes quite a bit below. By Fall it's more than likely we will not be able to say this.

With Overall-Clubs, Old-Clothes-Clubs, No-Clothes-Clubs and what not, the clothes question is receiving its full share of attention just now. After all has been said and done, one sure thing remains and that is, we're obliged to wear clothes of some kind. Adam and Eve "got by" with the fig leaf style, but in this neck of the woods where Winter lingers in the lap of Spring all Summer, a man needs something more than a fig leaf, a bathing suit or B. V.

D's Wearing overalls over silk shirts will not solve the problem—it simply complicates it by creating a fad at the expense of the man whose occupation requires overalls. The only sensible thing to do is to keep our head, hold our tongue and saw more wood. The clothing man does not advise you to buy clothes you do not need, but unless you are a recluse or a hermit you need at least one good suit of clothes. If you haven't got them you should buy them—they're not out of reach and you gain nothing by waiting. With the average man it doesn't require any more hours of labor now to buy a suit than in the "good old times" when everybody was hard up and the tramp and the unemployed knocked daily at our back door. Then goods were cheap to be sure, but the money to buy them was mighty hard to get. More people are wearing good shoes and good clothes today than then. More people living comfortably now than then. There is more money in the hands of the average man now than then. Stop and think about this and see if its not true.
