THE MIDNIGHT MAN!

There will be presented the sixth episode of the serial now running at the Puls hall, on next Saturday evening, and in addition three other reels of fine and interesting pictures.

The show will begin promptly at 8:30 and the charges will be the same popular prices—15 and 25 cents.

Remember, Saturday evening, May 15, sixth episode of serial and three other reels.

Puls & Company

Mrs. Adam Hill spent a portion of the week in Murray a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Puls.

L. H. Puls took two truck loads of hogs to Omaha for Omar Schliet-engineer last Monday, hauling them from Nehawka.

Charles and John Sans have been very busy during the past week in the construction of concrete walks for the different people of Murray.

F. W. Elliott of the Collins Oil company of Plattsmouth, was a business visitor in Murray last Tuesday, bringing a load of gasoline and coal oil.

Mrs. W. A. Royal spent last Sunday with her sister Mrs. W. A. Kennedy, and enjoyed the visit very much.

Mrs. John Farris was numbered among those who were sick during last week, but has since recovered and is showing nice improvement at this time.

The new house which is being finished for the occupancy of G. W. McCracken, is a very neat little cottage, and will make an excellent home for the druggist and his worthy family. Mr. Latta is to be commended for his public spiritedness in the construction of the building.

Shirts for Work and Ware!

If you haven't tried a Moore patent sleeve work shirt, you are losing a lot of comfort as well as wearing qualities. Without doubt the best work shirt on the market—good and roomy, and the cloth is close woven. Moore Patent Sleeve Work Shirt

Hiatt & Tutt,

MURRAY, : : : NEBRASKA

Robert Burr has been slowly improving for the past few days.

Mesdames Lucy Lyle and D. C. Rhoden attended the funeral of Mr. Adam Hill at Plattsmouth last Saturday.

D. C. Tucker of Alva, Okla., was visiting with friends in and near Murray for a few days the past week.

Robert Herold was a business visitor in Murray last Tuesday, representing the Henry R. Gerling company of Omaha.

Frank Hogue and wife were visiting in the county seat last Tuesday afternoon, where they were looking after some business matters.

Col. W. R. Young of Plattsmouth, attended the Holsen cattle sale, which was held in Lincoln a few days ago and made the purchase of a number of fine cattle while there.

Mr. Fred Hill will engage with L. H. Puls in the garage, and will also assist in the driving of the truck as well, they being one branch of the business in which Mr. Puls is engaged.

W. H. Puls and family and Wm. Puls, Sr., and family, were visitors at the home of Otto Puls and family last Sunday, spending the day very pleasantly and returning home in the evening.

Walter Tower, who worked with the Puls garage during the winter and who recently resigned a few weeks ago to accept a position in the west, is assisting at the garage for a few days before he makes his departure.

Mesdames H. L. Oldham and W. E. Dull, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Young, were in attendance last Saturday at the funeral of Mr. Adam Hill, who died last week very suddenly of heart failure.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. G. Long next Friday, at which time there will be an excellent program rendered and to which all the members are especially urged to attend.

C. W. Christy, of near Nehawka, was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, coming to look after some business matters and to take a load of lumber with his truck to his farm where he is having some building done.

Percy Fields of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murray and west of town last Tuesday, representing an Omaha firm in the sale of pianos and player pianos, and the way he was hustling after business, it looks like he was prospering.

C. Woodman and E. S. Henderson of Lincoln, have been looking after the sale of caride plants for farm lighting to the farmers of this vicinity. They are finding the work pleasant, but very strong competition by the firm of L. H. Puls, who is selling an excellent electric lighting system.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill, who have been in the west for some time past and who on his return stopped at Oklahoma, where he and his wife were visiting, hastened home arriving last Saturday, just in time to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. Adam Hill, who died suddenly last week.

C. F. Schmidtman was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, where he, with Mr. J. G. Wonderlich of Kansas City, who is emigration agent of the Northern Pacific railway, made a demonstration of the possibilities of the lands of Montana, showing the grains grown there. They departed later for Nehawka, where they also showed what the land of the northwest would produce.

Raymond Henry, living southwest of town was a visitor at Nehawka, and Union, looking for some repairs for his planter last Monday and failing to secure what was needed, went to Omaha for them last Tuesday and got home in time to begin the planting of his large crop of corn during the afternoon. He will expect, with good weather, to finish his seeding the first of next week.

G. W. McCracken of the Murray Drug company is finding a good demand for the stock of paints which he has just sent out, and can testify that many people are taking advantage of the prices which he is making in securing the paints which they are needing. With the closing out of this stock, it will leave but the one place in Murray where paint can be obtained, that of W. H. Puls, who carries a good line of excellent paints.

Many of the people of Murray were, visiting in the county seat last Tuesday, the occasion being the county conventions which were being held at that place. Among those who were in attendance were O. A. Davis, W. H. Puls, Dr. B. F. Brendel, Searle Davis and W. G. Boedaker. Arthur L. Baker was selected as committee man for the republican party but as he was too busy to get away he sent in his resignation, asking that someone be selected in his stead. Mrs. A. A. Young who has also been selected as a committee woman for the democratic party, was not able to attend on account of the after effects of the flu.

A. D. Rhoden was a visitor in Council Bluffs last Monday where he went to consult his physician. Mr. Rhoden, who was suffering from very poor health last fall is much improved and says he feels fine, but does not wish to over do himself until entirely well. He is farming only a very few acres of corn this year, having rented the most of his farm to his brother Carl Rhoden, who is farming it. Mr. A. D. Rhoden has five good work horses which he has no use for at this time on account of his not farming but little. He is offering them for sale.

J. G. Wonderlich of Kansas City was a business visitor in Murray last Tuesday, being interested in the sale of some land.

Last Tuesday Frank Schlichtmeier hauled with his truck, 70 bushels of corn to the elevator, which he thought was a very fair load.

Messrs. Fred Lutz and Cameron South Omaha market last Saturday had a car of fine hogs on the which brought very good prices.

C. N. Barrows and wife, who have been making their home for several months past at Milford, returned to Murray a few days ago and will live here for the present.

C. H. Boedaker is making some improvements on his home, in the way of new walks and also erecting a new porch, which is making the property more valuable.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Keil entertained at Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Virgin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read and family, and Mr. James Bayless and daughter, Mrs. Anna Vesper of Brewster, Neb. The day was enjoyed in social conversation and one of those good old country dinners was prepared by Mrs. Keil, which was enjoyed by all.

Murray Ladies Visit Arbor Lodge
Mesdames W. S. Smith, G. H. Gilmore, James A. Walker, Wm. Puls, L. H. Puls, W. H. Puls, Albert Young and W. R. Wood, Misses Margery Walker, Bertha Nickels and Alice Laughrigh, attended the district meeting of the woman's club which convened at Nebraska City, May 5. The program was excellent, containing many noted speakers. After the rendition of the program, as guests of the commercial club of Nebraska City, all the delegates and visitors were given an auto ride and taken to visit Arbor Lodge, the former home of J. Sterling Morton, and now the property of the state. This was a very pleasant trip, as the house and grounds are kept in excellent condition by the state, who are endeavoring to keep in mind of the citizens the institution of Arbor day, of which J. Sterling Morton was the founder. The home contains many noted pictures and curiosities, which were left by Mr. and Mrs. Morton. Many were the gifts of noted persons to these noted Americans.

Horses for Sale.
I have from one to five horses for sale, weighing from 1200 to 1600 pounds, all good work horses, and sound. Three mares, you can have your choice. Murray phone 2305 M 13-4w. A. D. RHODEN.

Will Build Walks to the School
The citizens of Murray with their time honored patriotism, are coming forward with the proposition of constructing good cement walks from the business portion of the city to the public school building, which has been pretty difficult to get to when the weather has been bad, and the roads muddy or wet, or even covered with snow. This is an excellent move on the part of the citizens and should be commended for their thoughtfulness.

Americanization of the Theme
Last Wednesday afternoon, Mesdames Charles Creamer and Walter Sans entertained the ladies aid society of the Presbyterian church, at which there were a large number present. The matter of Americanism was very ably discussed by a number present, and a very interesting, instructive and entertaining afternoon was enjoyed by all present.

FIGHTING ON.

The famous American author Robert Louis Stevenson wrote: "For fourteen years I have not had a day's real health. I have wakened sick and gone to bed weary; and I have done my work unflinchingly." There are many sufferers who are getting in a similar way. But in many cases their condition could soon be made much better if they only knew of Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. This remedy removes the cause of many tormenting troubles by cleaning the intestines thoroughly, aiding digestion and restoring healthy appetite. Your druggist or dealer in medicines carries Triner's remedies in stock. Try also Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic, especially in convalescence, and in case of colds and coughs take at once Triner's Cough Sedative! Have you heard of Triner's Antipainin which has no equal as gargle, mouth wash and cleanser of wounds? Joseph Triner Company, 1333-42 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

NOTICE NEBRASKA ALUMNI

All graduates and former students of the University of Nebraska residing in Cass county are cordially invited to join the alumni association that has been formed in this city. A banquet will be held at Plattsmouth on Friday, May 21st, at which it is hoped to have all former students present. Plates $2 each. All desiring to attend please notify by Tuesday evening, Miss Pearl Scott, Plattsmouth, Neb.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price, $1.25.

LIFE OF A FORMER CASS COUNTY MAN

Who Passed Away at His Home at Coleridge, Neb., on Tuesday, May 4, at Age of Seventy Years.

James Hamilton Norris, or "Ham" as he was familiarly known, was born at Grafton, W. Va., September 12, 1849, died at Coleridge, Neb., May 4 1920, aged 70 years 7 months and 22 days.

He was the youngest of a family of nine children. In 1856, at the early age of seven, he moved with his parents to Red Key, Ind., where he grew to manhood.

On March 22, 1876, he was united in marriage to Barbara Alice Gibbs, at Powers Station, Ind. To this union were born four sons and two daughters. The daughters are Mrs. Estella A. Iowther and Mrs. Lottie D. Kloopping, both of Coleridge, Neb., and one son Earl E. Norris of Ogalalla, Neb., together with the wife, three grandsons, and other relatives survive to mourn the loss of the loved one. Besides the immediate relatives he left behind an unusually large circle of friends and neighbors, for he was highly esteemed and respected by all who knew him, the same being evinced by the beautiful floral offerings banked about the casket and by those who so kindly shared in the lonely vigils by bedside and assisted in laying the remains so tenderly away for the last long slumber.

February 6, 1879, he removed to Cass county, Nebraska, where he resided on a farm for thirty years, moving to Cedar county, Neb., in 1909, where he continued to farm for three years more. He removed to Coleridge in 1912, where he resided until his death.

Mr. Norris united with the U. B. church twenty-eight years ago. He was a kind and loving husband and father, a real home body, true to every instinct of the home life. To the world he was a moral and upright citizen in every way. To the church he was loyal and true, a worthy example to all. His life was indeed, an impersonation of his oft repeated words during his sickness: "Don't worry about me, I'm all right."

Although Mr. Norris had heart trouble for a number of years his last illness was very brief. He suffered a stroke of paralysis Friday morning, April 29, from which he was confined to his bed until Tuesday morning, May 4, when the angel of death came to relieve his suffering and transport his soul to its final reward. The funeral services were conducted by Ralph H. Long, pastor of the M. E. church, from the late home, and interment was made in the Coleridge cemetery Thursday afternoon, May 6, 1920.

UNDERWENT OPERATION

Carl B. Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graves of this city, underwent an operation on Tuesday forenoon at the Clarkson hospital for nose and throat trouble. He was resting easy that afternoon and if he continues to improve will be removed to his home in a few days.
