SERVICE

is a word you often see in advertising—with many it is only a word—here it is an actual fact. Service means to us just what it means to you. Service is something we practice as sincerely as we preach.

Bank of Union UNION, NEB.

Mrs. Etta Bryan, of Omaha, was a visitor in Union the past few days, stopping at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dr. W. M. Barrett.

Thomas Cronwell, of Grant, was a visitor in Union last Monday, where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Wayne Probst will depart for the western part of the state this week, stopping at Grant for a few days to look after some matters of business.

O. J. Shelly, a nephew of Attorney C. L. Graves, was a visitor in Union last Friday, looking after some business matters and visiting his uncle.

Mrs. Oregon C. Douce continues in a very serious condition, and while everything possible is being done for her she does not seem to be making the improvement desired.

Mrs. Albert Johnson, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Union over Sunday, a guest at the homes of her sister and brother, Mrs. Barbara H. Taylor and Bartlett Lynn.

Charles Tipton, of Palmyra, father of the Tipton boys, of Union, is reported to be showing some improvement from the sickness that has kept him confined to his bed for some time.

Mrs. Charles Garrison, who is at an Omaha hospital where she is receiving treatment following a recent operation, is reported as getting along nicely and hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Orville McQuinn, who is at the hospital in Omaha, is reported as getting along very nicely since the operation she underwent, and it is hoped that she will be able to return to her home by the end of the week.

Stephen Copenhaver, residing some twelve miles south of Union in One county, was a visitor in town last Monday, coming to call on relatives and look after some business matters and to take D. D. Rice home with him for a visit.

Ray Frans has his heart in the right place and has demonstrated it by refusing to use the north door of the office at the lumber yard because a robin has built its nest over the transom and the opening of the door would interfere with the home life of the robin and her brood of young ones.

Rev. W. A. Taylor was a visitor in the office at that place, returning home late Saturday evening. He is assisting in the care of his father, J. W. Johnson, who is visiting at the home of his son, S. M. Johnson, coming from Milford, where the elder Johnson has been making his home for some time.

John M. Chalfant, who is making his home at Burlington, Colo., arrived in Union last Friday, coming to visit his family and attend the commencement exercises of the Union schools, which his children are attending and to assist in moving the family to the west as soon as school shall have closed. They will make their home in the west in the future.

Gerald P. Lamreaux, of Nebraska City, a friend of Prof. E. A. Ward, was a visitor in Union last Sunday, being a guest of the Professor.

O. V. Virgin and family of Syracuse passed through Union last Monday on their way to Murray, where they will visit for a short time with relatives.

Lucian Banning, who arrived at home last week from Omaha, where he has been in the hospital, receiving medical treatment, is getting along nicely at present.

Among those who attended the convention at the county seat last week were F. H. McCarthy, C. L. Graves, W. H. Mark, Mont Robb, W. B. Banning and L. G. Todd.

Earl Merritt has been busy for the past few days painting at the home of Eugene Fitch northwest of Avoca, where he is finishing the outside of the house in excellent shape.

George Parks, of near Murray, was a visitor in Union for a short time last Monday, returning from west of Avoca, where he was engaged in preparing a house for the plasterers.

Attorney A. L. Timblin, formerly of Weeping Water and Nebraska City, is now located in Omaha, where he is practicing law, was a brief visitor in Union last Monday on his way to Nebraska City to look after some business matters.

J. M. Rowen, of Peru, was a visitor in Union last Friday, assisting in the loading of a saw mill, which he has recently purchased from Milton Clarence northeast of town, and which is being shipped to Peru for use in sawing lumber.

L. G. Todd was a visitor in Omaha last Friday, having a car of fat cattle on the market that day. While the price was very fair considering the condition of the market, the amount received was such that there was nothing realized in feeding the bunch.

Miss Grace Bogenrief, of the faculty of the Union schools, is the only teacher who will remain during the coming year. Miss Bogenrief has made an excellent instructor, as have all the others, and all will find good positions as school teachers are more plentiful than instructors.

Col. Thomas Majors, of Peru, passed through Union last Monday morning on his way home from looking after some business matters and visiting with friends at Lincoln. He spent a few moments in conversation with his friends Mont Robb and Attorney C. L. Graves during the time the train was waiting.

Mrs. J. A. Talkington departed a few days ago for Surprise, where she went to visit with her two daughters, Mesdames Charles Weaver and Howard Shrader, to say nothing of the little grandchildren, who were waiting with outstretched arms to welcome their grandmother. Although Grandfather Talkington desired to accompany his wife, he had to remain on the job at the Farmers store.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY PROVES A WINNER

"Aaron Boggs, Freshman," Ably Presented by Pupils of the Union High School Last Week.

The Senior class play "Aaron Boggs, Freshman," which was presented by the Senior class of Union high school last Friday night with the assistance of a few Juniors, was a decided success.

Prof. Ward had charge of the play and the outcome showed ability upon the part of both the professor and the students; as well as a great amount of tireless effort to gain command of the "lines" and act them out so naturally. It was undoubtedly an clever performance on the part of amateurs as was ever presented upon the stage in Union.

The stage setting was extremely well adapted and one could scarcely recognize the old screens with the addition of pennants and flowers while real trees and fence added to the woodland scene, making an up-to-date campus.

Music furnished by the Nebraska City orchestra between acts was greatly enjoyed. The cast was particularly well chosen and everyone seemed made for the part they presented. Our Co-eds were pretty and clever, and we maintain that Union has a liberal share of pretty girls and some of them are Seniors and Juniors. Our Senior boys are all promising young men and appeared at ease on the platform, making first class college men.

The cast of characters in the order of their appearance, was as follows: Pepper Jervis, David Kendall; Beau Carter, Clarence Davis; First Student, Raymond Fahlander; Happy Jimmie Jamieson, Hubert LaRue; Second Hand Abee, Henry Pearsley; Elizabeth Maude Peony, Dolores Dycart; First Girl, Alice Todd; Loretta-Rea, Eula Frans; Cherry Carter, Margaret Swann; Lola Hunter, Flora Garrison; Evelyn Newcomb, Verna Morton; Epenetus P. Boggs, Amos Hughson; Aaron Boggs, William Pearsley; First Professor, Elza Taylor; Second Professor, Hollis Banning; Mrs. Pickens, Virginia Copenhaver; Mrs. Chubb, Alma Johnson; Casey Jones, Henry Pearsley; Mr. Chubb, Amos Hughson; Dollie de Cliffe, Ellen Chapman.

We can truthfully say that the play on the whole was a scream, and every member of the cast played his part well; in particular we might mention that Eddie captivated the audience with his cleverness, while Aaron was the best Freshman ever, but William always acts his parts like a professional. The leaders of the fashionable set of college Seniors were quite naturally "haughty and overbearing," while the wise and thoughtful Miss Hunter quite captivated all with her kindness to poor, lonesome Cherry, who soon forgot his Dayton sweetheart and the divinity, but of course what Freshman could resist the flattery of "Happy" Jamieson? We cannot wonder why the students all wanted to board with the Angel, but we must confess we admire the interest Pickens took in affairs in general, especially other people's and we wonder if her sarcasm would not eventually reform even Mr. Chubb.

Union high school is to be congratulated upon her Seniors this year, and we know the whole community wishes to express a feeling of pride over our young people, and a source of regret that many will be leaving us in a few months to take up higher education.—A friend of the U. H. S. Seniors.

STUDENTS GIVE PROGRAM AND BANQUET FOR MOTHERS

The children of the Union public schools, under the direction of the Misses Anderson and Crozier, gave a most enjoyable and instructive program and banquet last week. The affair was held at the Gym in the school building and thirty-three of the mothers of the city, as well as thirty-three pupils of Miss Anderson and twenty of Miss Crozier partook of the delicious three course luncheon, which included fruit, chicken sandwiches, minced eggs and pickles; ice cream, cake and mince. The serving was under the direction of Misses Elsie Taylor and Gussie Robb, assisted by Lola and Alta Frans, Virginia Harris, Cordelia Roddy and Alice Pell.

Lucian La Rue was toastmistress, and the program included the following numbers: "Welcome," Nola Banning; Response, Mrs. R. E. Foster; Solo, "Mother Machree" by John McCormick; "How Mother Helped His Appetite," Donald Harris; "She Doesn't Understand," Agnes Erwin; "Mother's Pride and Joy," Justus Anderson; Children's Chorus, "I Love You."

A Good Ten Acre Lot
W. H. Porter has a ten-acre lot on his farm, two miles south of Union which he has in alfalfa and last year, notwithstanding the dryness of the season, had 75 loads of hay from the land during the summer, besides pasturing 30 head of hogs thereon, which practically made them. The hay which he sold brought him $565, and a half car of the hay yet on hand. Sure it costs something to care for the hay, but Mr. Porter figures that he has some forty dollars per acre net from the land during the single year. He also thinks that no farmer can afford not to have at least from five to ten acres of this wonderful plant on his farm.

Returns to the Ministry.
The Rev. J. B. Taylor, who has been the pastor of the Baptist church at this place for the past year and who resigned a short time ago to accept a position with the Inter-Church World Movement, and at which he has been engaged for some time, has received a call to the ministry to the First Baptist church at Nebraska City with an excellent salary. Considering the fact that in accepting the call to Nebraska City, Rev. Taylor will be at home with his family instead of traveling all the time as with the Inter-Church movement, he has accepted the position and will take up the regular work with the beginning of June this year. He is ministering in the position of supplying until that time and also that he can look after the work with the Inter-Church movement until some one can be secured to take the place where he has been working. The First Baptist church of Nebraska City is one of the oldest in the state and is well equipped for the work which a pastor has to do. Rev. Taylor will make good in his new position.

Delivers Baccalaureate Sermon
Professor J. M. McDonald, superintendent of the Union schools, delivered at the Baptist church the baccalaureate address at the closing of the school year, and addressed before the large audience of the thirteen who are closing their high school course, with words of hope and inspiration, to a larger and greater service to themselves and humanity. Taking his subject's thought from the Golden Text of the Bible, John III, 16, "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." His handling of his subject was unique, and different from what is used by the clergy in their treatment of the like cases which comes before them. Compliments from every side come, as to his ideas, and what he had to say in regard to the general condition of things, as well as the future and the solutions of the problems which are confronting the people at this time and will continue to rise as the race advances.

Visiting in the West
Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Rice of Seven Mile Ford, Va., surprised their relatives in and near Union last Friday when they appeared on a visit to the Porters, and Mrs. J. C. Snavely. Mrs. Rice being a sister of Mesdames Blain and W. H. Porter, and Mrs. Snavely, they being accompanied by their little daughter, Miss Ada Rice, arrived from the east, being the only remaining relatives now living in Virginia. They will visit for some time with relatives here and at Lincoln and later going to the western portion of the state before returning home. Last Sunday the relatives all were present at dinner at the home of J. C. Snavely, which was a very enjoyable affair, and not alone the good fellowship was the predominant feature, but the reviewing of the times which had been spent in the hills of "Old Virginia."

Underwent Operation Monday
Mrs. Earl Merritt departed for Plattsmouth last Monday morning in response to a telephone call asking that she come to that place to be present at an operation which her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wayne Lewis, was to undergo that day. Later telephone advice told that the operation having been very successful, and the patient having recovered the shock nicely and was resting as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Attending General Conference
The Rev. L. Morrison, pastor of the Methodist church of Union, departed last Tuesday morning for Des Moines, where he goes to attend the general conference of the Methodist church, the first to be held by the society since 1892, or twenty-eight years ago, when one was held at Omaha.

They Furnished the Music
Misses Ella and Bessie LaRue, Miss Ora Clarke, and Mr. Ray Frans furnished the music at the baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening at the Baptist church, while Miss Gussie Robb presided at the piano. The young folks presented a number of very beautiful selections.

PUTTING A PREMIUM ON CRIME.

The words used by Judge Nott in general sessions on the increase of crime under prohibition constitute an impressive indictment of the buoyant zealotry that brought about these conditions, but the Judge's assertion that the law is not enforced in New York owing to official neglect of duty will hardly bear examination.

Prohibition is not enforced in this city because congress passed a law that cannot be enforced in communities where sentiment and custom are opposed to it. No other federal law receives so much official attention as the Volstead act. Besides all the private spies and informers and the regular and special agents of the national government, the whole police force has the matter directly in hand.

A law that cannot be enforced brings all law into contempt, and that is the case with the Volstead act.—New York World.

SELF-WHIPPING IN PHILIPPINES

Manila, P. I., May 17.—The practice of self-whipping in public to appease divine wrath, which flourished in certain countries of Europe centuries ago, still exists in the Philippine Island, although in a diminishing degree each year.

Advices from the provinces where educational advantages are not enjoyed show that the practice was indulged in during the Easter holidays this year.

Hundreds of Americans and other foreigners gathered at an open field a few miles from the center of the city to witness the weird performance, but only six appeared to do penance.

These beat themselves over the backs with heavy flexible, bamboo flogging rods. Later they walked to seven places in the field, denoting the seven points of the cross, where they were beaten by the master of ceremonies. When the lashing is completed they throw themselves into a pool of mud and as they come from the stagnant water their wounds are washed with pure water and healing medicines applied.
