Ora A. Davis was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, where he had some business matters to look after.

Miss Neva Latta will depart in a few days for Lincoln, where she will attend school for a few weeks.

Mrs. Jacob Minster was visiting at the home of Charles Carroll and wife during the fore part of the week.

Charles Carroll was a visitor in Plattsmouth Monday last, where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis and E. S. Tuttt visited with friends in Plattsmouth last Tuesday, driving to that city in the car of Mr. Davis.

Misses Violet Keil and Vita Cook were visiting in Plattsmouth last Tuesday and attended the class play of the seniors of the Plattsmouth high school.

Searl Davis, G. M. Minford and Alfred Gansemer were looking after some business matters at the county seat last Tuesday during their trip in the car of Mr. Davis.

Fred P. Busch and James Kuykendall were visiting in Murray last Monday for a short time looking after some business matters and also visiting with their many friends as well.

E. E. Moore of Union, who is an expert auto mechanic, was in Murray for a short time a few days ago to do some work on a car for a client of the firm for which he works in Union.

Hermann Smith of near Nehawka was a business visitor in Murray for a short time during the fore part of this week, overhauling the car of Daniel Clok, which he was putting in good shape.

Mrs. Elizabeth Young, who is making her home at Union with the family of J. M. Patterson and wife was a visitor in Murray last Sunday and the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Cook and children.

Leonard Austin and family who endeavor to keep pace with the times have had their name added to the list of subscribers of the Journal in the Nehawka delivery district, where they are now residing.

John Willes and wife, who have been visiting in the south and especially at points in Texas, returned the other day and were well pleased with what they saw in the south, saying it appeared to be an excellent country.

Henry C. Long departed last Tuesday for the western part of the state where he goes to ship his wheat to the Omaha market. Mr. Long has a large amount of wheat out at Holbrook, which he is desirous of getting to market.

While removing the dirt from the lister which he was using, J. J. Tomman had the misfortune to cut one of his hands badly, and had to have the same dressed by Dr. Gilmore and is rejoicing in the fact that it is getting along as nicely as could be expected.

Our old time friend Joseph Cox, who has been one of the foremost men for a number of years in Cass county, is staying at the home of his son, Frank Cox, southwest of Murray, and is not in the best of health. We are hoping that he will soon be himself again and able to be about as in former times.

Wm. Troop, who has not been feeling the best for some time, has been a visitor at Omaha, accompanied by his physician Dr. Gilmore, where they were consulting a specialist as to the best method to pursue in the treatment of his case which is peculiar. They were at the metropolitan last Tuesday.

Mrs. G. W. McCracken and little daughter Elizabeth, who have been visiting in Orient, Iowa, for several weeks, returned home last Saturday and just in time to have the pleasure of riding home in the worst of the storm of that evening. They expect to get into their new home some time in the next future.

A small sized young lady, with blue eyes and a very fair complexion and the most winsome smile that you ever did see, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flint Wilson and announced her intention of making that her home also, to the delight of the fond parents. Both the parents are doing well and happy, and the little lady is endeavoring to make life just what it should be for them.

Now Living in Colorado

Miss Nettie Connelly, formerly of Murray, but now making her home in Central City, Colorado, which is some forty miles west of Denver, writes very interestingly to her friend, Mrs. Joseph Cook and her daughter, Nita, as to how she likes the country there. Miss Connelly says she is getting along fine in the west and feels better than at any time in her life, but that she is not so heavy as when living in the east. She says there are many tourists making their home in the mountains during the summer.

Breaks Her Arm.

Mrs. Benjamin Hill stepped out in the yard a few days ago and slipping she fell catching one arm under her as she went down, sustaining a fracture of her wrist and a sprain on her arm, which placed this lady in such a condition that she could not work and caused her much suffering as well. The injury is mending as rapidly as nature can do the work, and it is hoped she will soon be able to lock after her duties again.

Bank Will Close.

The bank will be closed on Monday next, May 31st, on account of Memorial day and those who expect to have business on that day can arrange their matters accordingly.

Will Hold Memorial Service Sunday.

Arrangements have been perfected for the holding of memorial services at the Christian church on Sunday May 30th, with appropriate music and the proper observance of the day set aside for the remembering of those who have given sacrificing service for the good of the country. The theme of the discourse will be "Three Great Wars" and the lessons taught by each. The memorial address will be delivered by the Rev. P. S. White, who a quarter of a century ago, was a teacher in the public schools of Cass county. The speaker's grandfather fought in the Revolutionary war, his father in the Civil war and his son in the World war. The latter being in the 35th division. The speaker is eminently prepared to speak advisably on the lessons taught by these three great conflicts. Come and hear the sermon at the Christian church.

Ladies Aid Society Will Meet

The ladies aid society of the Christian church of Murray, will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Burr, southeast of town and will be entertained by the hostesses, Mesdames Robert Burr, W. Virgil and Charles Reed. All members of the society, the church and their friends are cordially invited to be in attendance. The meeting is to be held on Wednesday afternoon, June 2nd.

A Sunbeam in the Home.

There is joy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hostetter on account of the arrival a short time ago of the most charming little blue eyed baby girl imaginable, and who has won the hearts of all the household and there is more smiles for the acre about that place than it would be thought possible. This is a joy that makes the heart glad. Our wish is little Miss, that you make the hearts of all you know glad all your days.

Will Move to Elmwood

Mrs. Lucy Lyle, who has been the efficient and courteous manager of the branch office at Murray for the Lincoln Telegraph and Telephone company, has asked for a transfer from Murray to Elmwood and having been assured that such a change was agreeable to the company, has packed her goods and shipped them to the new home. The position which has been vacated thus has been filled by the appointment of Mrs. Mary Bartlett to the position, and Mr. Bartlett and family are moving to the telephone building. This also makes a place for another family to live in Murray and helps solve a difficult problem in that direction.

Ladies Aid Society.

The ladies aid society of the Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Burr on Wednesday, June 2nd. Mrs. Burr, Mrs. Virgil and Mrs. Charles Reed, hostesses.

WILL WITHDRAW FROM THE RACE

F. J. Libershal, Nominee of Democratic Primary, Will Not Make Race Owing to Business Affairs.

The democratic county central committee which is to meet in this city on Saturday, June 5th, will be called upon to fill the vacancy on the ticket for the office of clerk of the district court, as Frank J. Libershal the nominee of the primary will not be in the race for the position at the November election.

Mr. Libershal has since the primary election engaged in business in this city with August Bach in the firm of Bach & Libershal and does not feel that he is justified in making the sacrifice that will be necessary in making the campaign this fall, as it would necessitate a great deal of time away from his business interests.

There has been no one suggested for the vacancy and unless someone is desirous of dipping into the political game it will be up to the county committee to draft someone for the job.

STOMACH TROUBLES VER- SUS T. A. E. OF B. W.

The days when stomach troubles were feared as an almost invincible enemy are gone. They lose now always. Their powerful rival, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, takes the game away from them any time the opportunity offers. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine beats the stomach troubles and always wins the pennant because its taste is matchless. The best bitter herbs, roots and barks of eminent medicinal value have been selected for the formula of this remedy, and the result is that it never disappoints. It acts wonderfully in all cases of stomach disorders, constipation, poor appetite, headaches, etc. And Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic is another excellent remedy. It builds up the sagged health and stimulates the digestive organs to work. It is very valuable in convalescence. Your druggist or dealer in medicines has these remedies in stock for you.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-43 South Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.
