H. W. Tool was looking after some business in Both Omaha and Lincoln last Friday, making both trips the same day.

Orville Ingerson and Henry Wendt were in attendance at the dance which was given at Greenwood last Friday evening.

Special Varnish for table tops, window sills, outside doors. Won't turn white under water. At Max Dusterhoff's.

Varnishes are steadily advancing. Better come in now if you want to secure them at the present price. Max Dusterhoff.

H. A. Guthman and family were visiting with friends in Plattsmouth last Sunday driving over in their car for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Louis Bornemeier and O. J. Pothast, who were attending the picnic at Alvo last Friday evening, also drove over to the Lincoln for a short time in the evening.

Messrs. C. L. Miller and daughter, Mrs. Charles Long, were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters as well, at Lincoln last Friday.

E. L. Pothast and wife were visiting in Murdock last Wednesday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Pothast as well as looking after some business as well.

Rev. E. L. Koenig and wife with their children, were visiting in Murdock the guests at the home of the Rev. Brauchle and family, Mrs. Koenig being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brauchle.

Mr. Ray Boldan, and Chas. Rau, have just completed an excellent crib for the coming crop of corn at the farm of Ed Rau and which will be a great convenience to the latter gentleman.

Mrs. A. J. Tool was a visitor in Lincoln last Friday evening, going to attend the closing exercises of the Lincoln high school at which their daughter, Miss Margaret, has been attending the past year.

Victor Thimgan who has been at Naperville, Ill., where he with other friends, have been attending college, will arrive home on Tuesday of this week, the school closing and will remain in Murdock for the summer.

Matt Thimgan and wife were visiting with friends and also looking after some business matters at the capital city last Saturday driving up to that place in the morning with their car and returning in the afternoon.

Did it ever occur to you that the one way to keep your home inviting is to keep your walls smiling? This can be done by changing the walls with papers harmonious in colors and combinations. Call on us for suggestions. Max Dusterhoff.

H. A. Guthman who as well as being an expert banker and good business man, is a competent workman as well. He is just now completing the screening of his porch at his home which is an excellent piece of work.

Ray Boldan, the carpenter, has just begun the construction of some cattle sheds at the farm of J. Guthman, which will be used by the latter gentlemen in the feeding of the large numbers of cattle which he markets every season.

Wall paper is very difficult to get. We were fortunate in securing a fine line. The prices are constantly advancing. Better take advantage of present prices and a good assortment of the most exclusive papers. Max Dusterhoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wolf of Omaha, were visiting in Murdock for a short time and also at the home of relatives, the Lau's in the country and they enjoyed the visit as well as did the friends with whom they were guests.

Will P. Sitzman was a visitor in Murdock driving from his home in Weeping Water to visit with his former friends and schoolmates, H. A. Guthman and J. E. McHugh, but on account of the excitement prevailing on account of an air plane was not able to find them.

Mrs. C. H. Hess and little son, who have been visiting in Murdock and vicinity for some time past with relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. Mooney, the parents of Mrs. Hess, and Mr. Henry Hess, the father of Mr. Hess, returned a few days ago to their home near Bern, Kansas, having enjoyed a very pleasant time while here.

Rev. A. H. Schwab the pastor of the church at this place and Mr. August Panska, the lay member, who were in attendance at the conference of their church returned home last Saturday, after having enjoyed an excellent time at the meeting of the representatives of the different churches of the state.

Getting Much Training.

Walter Brain who is to wrestle with Young King at Murdock the coming Saturday evening, is getting much training, trying bouts with all the boys, and which is giving him excellent practice. Walter was over to Elmwood last Friday evening to post some bills of the coming event.

Working at Wabash.

Homer H. Lawton the decorator and painter, has been busy the past week at Wabash, where he has been doing some artistic decorating at the home of his mother of that place. Mr. Lawton is a finished workman and has all the work he can well handle in his line.

They Made Good Time

W. O. Gillespie and Will Merrill of Wabash, were visiting and looking after some land business in Colorado for a short time last week. They left Murdock with the car of Mr. Gillespie and made the trip to Arriba, in just 22 hours continuous driving, which is doing pretty well, as they could not have made it in that time on the train.

They All Catch Fish

Lacey McDonald and wife, Harry Gillespie and wife, with Mrs. H. V. McDonald, son Bryan, daughter Irene, Mrs. H. A. Tool, composed a jolly party who spent Friday night fishing at a point near Ashland on the Platte river, and all were successful in landing a number of fine fish. Harry Gillespie was particularly pleased in that he had four fine bass for his catch.

Attended the Lecture.

Master Herbert and Miss Ruth Reeves, and Messrs. Charles and Fred Buell, attended the lecture of Miss Jessie Bragg, who formerly lived in the vicinity of Elmwood, but who has been doing missionary work in India for the past five years, and who was delivering a very interesting talk of her experiences in the east, last Friday evening at Elmwood.

Visiting at St. Louis.

The Rev. J. W. Peters and wife, with their little daughter, were visitors in St. Louis for the past week, where they waited on account of the closing of the St. Paul's college at which two of their sons were attending school, Arthur and Charles, the latter graduating this year while the former will conclude his studies there next year. They also attended the wedding of their son, the Rev. Wm. Peters of Sidney, Neb., who was united in marriage with Miss Ruth Dean of St. Louis. The young couple will make their home at Sidney where Rev. Wm. Peters has a charge, but will spend a month in Murdock visiting during the summer before returning to the west to take up their work. The Journal with their many friends extend congratulations and good wishes for the newly wedded young people.

Taking the Forecast

More than a year ago two people well qualified to judge of the coming actions of their fellow men in conversation, were speculating as to the probable marriage of a friend, but not strange they had different ideas. The gentlemen said that their friends would marry within three years, while our lady friends said never. The wedding occurred just sixteen months after the conversation and was of fifty dollars, which they made. Now the lady is half a hundred short, and the gentleman is smiling and looking for another bet.

Max Dusterhoff Secures Help.

Max Dusterhoff the decorator and painter and expert wood finisher, who has been crowded with work to the extent which he was almost swamped, has succeeded in securing two excellent workmen in Jacob Shields of Chicago, and Mr. A. B. Brauski of Longbeach, California. This placed Mr. Dusterhoff in position to handle his large business, and will be able to get to the work sooner than he otherwise would have. The excellent work done by this enterprising Murdock citizen is telling in the amount of work which comes to him continuously.

Catch Many Fish.

Messrs. Ernest Wolf, H. A. Tool, A. J. Tool, Lacey McDonald and Louis Hornbeck, went fishing in the Platte river last Thursday, remaining overnight and returning Friday morning, and were successful in securing a large amount of fish. While all are sports when it comes to fishing, they stood to have the best success, as they had in the crowd one of the most noted anglers of America, Arthur J. Tool. Mr. Tool is a past graduate in the art of winning the members of the funny tribe to nibble at his bait. Mr. Tool is free to acknowledge that he is the best informed angler in this community, and like the man from Missouri, will have to be shown, before he will accord the honor to any, barring no comers.

Accepts Charge in Omaha.

The Rev. A. H. Schwab, pastor of the Evangelical association, who has been the pastor at the church in Murdock for the past few years, and who, during the time has ever stood for the best interests of the town and community in which he has been thrown, was selected by the conference which has but a few days since closed its sessions for the position of the pastor of the church of this society at Omaha. Rev. Schwab in every way is well qualified for the new position which he has been asked to fill. He has made many friends in Murdock and community, as well as wherever he has gone and we are certain he will make good in his new field of work. The friends in Murdock will miss this excellent Christian citizen. The Rev. I. Lalphy who is the minister at Omaha, has been selected for the work at this place. This gentleman will find a very willing set of workers in Murdock to cooperate with and we are sure he will make a success here.

During the past week Frank Melvin has been doing some carpenter work at the home of Mr. Fred Stock.

Passes His 38th Milestone.

Thirty-eight years ago, a bouncing blue eyed baby boy was born at Plattsmouth to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McHugh, which they named Jerry Earl. He, like all the youngsters of that place, was one of the elements which made the teachers in the public schools, think there was something more in life, than the drawing of their salary, but nevertheless, he learned his lessons and the tithing, which he received in that old town, has proven very beneficial to him in the later days. In extending an appreciation of the excellent work which he has and is doing for the good of his adopted town, a large number of his friends gathered at his home last Friday, June 4th, to celebrate the passing of the milestone. Only a passing thought was given by him of this passing of the milestone of life, until on returning home from the store, he found his domicile, filled with a happy throng of his friends. Use the Sunlight It's Free

Sunlight is the world's champion disinfectant. It's on the job most of the time and it's just as necessary for the sleeping quarters of the hog as it is for bedrooms in the house.

Therefore, in planning your hog house, be sure to provide plenty of windows. See that every nook and corner gets its share of this reliable disinfectant. In this way you will also make sure of good ventilation.

Build a substantial hog house, for the hog needs protection more than any other animal on the farm. Make sure of good drainage and cleanliness.

We stand ready to give you any advice on the question of material. And our advice is just like the sunlight—it's free.
