ANOTHER OLD SETTLER GONE

Again our people are called upon to laud an old and highly respected early settler. Last Saturday afternoon the not unexpected news of the death of Noble Taylor was passed around. He had been ill at the home of Anna Burdick for some time and his death, though a shock to the community, was not a surprise. He was one of the early settlers of this community and was universally esteemed by all who knew him.

Noble D. Taylor was born at Barry, 3½ miles S.W. of July 10, 1846, where he grew to manhood. August 16th, 1862, he enlisted in Co. B, 148th Illinois Infantry, from which organization he was discharged October 1st, 1865, having served three years, one month and fifteen days. Returning to his old home until 1868, he came to Peru, Neb., and in 1869 to Cass county.

In 1870, he homesteaded in Otoe county, which was his home until death. Of his father's family there were fourteen children, all whom have gone before him except one sister, Mrs. Alma Siles, of Auburn, Mo.

In 1871 he was united in marriage to Miss Katie Walker. To this union there were born six children as follows: Amelia F., who died in infancy; Mrs. Nellie Paul, Globe, Ariz.; Mrs. Edna More, Everett, Wash.; Mr. Fay Taylor, Fresno, Calif.; Mrs. Lena Sutherland, and Mrs. Kate Schessor of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Edna More being the only one able to be in attendance at the funeral.

In 1881 he became a member of Mansfield Post G. A. R. at Palmyra and a number of old veterans attended the funeral, which occurred in Eagle Wednesday afternoon. The remains were laid away in the Eagle cemetery. Rev. John Davis conducted the services.—Eagle Beacon.

IT'S ONLY DOING MY DUTY, SHE SAYS

Wants Others to Know How She Regained Her Health and Happiness

Everytime I tell anyone about Tanlac, I feel that I am doing no more than my duty, for I can never pay the debt of gratitude I owe this medicine for the good it has done me," said Mrs. George P. Dilger, of 729 Chestnut street, Milwaukee, Wis., while telling of her remarkable recovery recently.

"About a year ago, I suffered a complete nervous breakdown," she continued, "and was in bed for three weeks. After I did get up I was so weak I could hardly get around. My nerves just seemed to have collapsed completely, even my children playing around me nearly drove me distracted and often I would break down and cry. The pains in my head were awful and I just hate to think of the agony they caused me. My digestion was so bad that the little I ate fermented and I could taste it for hours afterwards. I had sharp pains in my chest and around my heart and there was a continual burning in my stomach. My kidneys seemed to be badly disordered and I had a constant, cutting pain across the small of my back. My sleep was always restless and I would have terrible dreams through the night. I was weak and thin and finally got so I could hardly take care of my children, and I was so discouraged I almost lost heart.

"As long as I live I will always feel grateful to my friend who advised me to try Tanlac, for it is just simply wonderful what a change it has made in me. It was no time after I started taking it until my nerves began to get calm and now they are just as steady as can be and I like to have the children playing around me. I enjoy my meals because I can eat just whatever I please without the slightest trouble. I am free from headaches, my kidneys are in splendid condition and the pains have just about left my back entirely. Already I have gained ten pounds in weight and I am sleeping soundly every night. I am doing my housework now and it is a real pleasure because Tanlac has given me new strength and energy."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke and Company and the leading druggist in every town.

LOUISVILLE

Courier

Mrs. Roman Maier and her three children spent Sunday in the country with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mockenhaupt. The new Mockenhaupt home in Manley is nearing completion and before the summer is over they hope to be able to move to town. The work has been considerably delayed by the scarcity of workmen.

Miss Margaret Vogler of Kimball, Neb., who has been in this vicinity visiting her uncle, Peter Vogler and family and her cousins, has returned home. Miss Vogler is a daughter of Henry Vogler, of Kimball and is attending the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and came down at the close of her school year to make a short visit here before going to her home in western Nebraska.

W. F. Diers is the owner of a new boat that he will launch in one of the Lyman sand pits this week. Ed Schlarer and Chas. Rathbun are the builders and it is a model of architectural beauty. It is sixteen feet long and 42 inches wide at the center and three feet at the stern. It will carry a party of six to eight persons with perfect safety. Mr. Diers has had it built especially with a view of being difficult to overturn and will use it for fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stander have purchased a fine new home in Omaha where they expect to make their future home. Their many friends in the vicinity of Louisville and Manley regret the departure of this pioneer family, but wish them the best of health and happiness in their city home. They have been visiting their children in various parts of the country since they retired from the farm and have just returned from a trip to Colorado where they visited their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stohman celebrated their thirty-first wedding anniversary last Sunday at their home. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gabel, drove in from the country to have dinner with them. Mrs. Stohman was formerly Miss Theresa Thimman. They were married at the Lutheran church, the pastor, Rev. John Catenhusen officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Stohman have lived in the vicinity all their married lives and have a host of friends who join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for continued good health and prosperity.

The many friends of Frederick Stohman, one of the most highly respected pioneer farmers in this vicinity, will be sorry to learn that he has been obliged to return to the Methodist hospital in Omaha for treatment for his eyes. Mr. Stohman has had a great deal of trouble and suffering from his eyes and has undergone operations before which were very delicate, but apparently successful but in later months the same trouble has developed and last week he went to the hospital, accompanied by Mrs. Stohman and underwent another serious operation. He is doing as well as could be expected and his family visited him often and also his friends who wish to make his stay in the hospital as pleasant as possible. He will undergo another operation on the other eye in the near future and it is to be hoped that the result will be as satisfactory as the first one. Mr. Stohman bears his suffering with wonderful patience and forbearance and has the sympathy of the entire community.
