"The Bank where You Feel at Home"

HENRY A. TOOL, President J. E. GUTHMANN, Vice-Pres.
H. A. GUTHMANN, Cashier

You can get floor wax at all times of Max Dusterhoff.

W. J. Ran and wife were visiting for a short time with friends in Plattsmouth last Sunday driving over in their car.

Miss Beulah Berlich who has been attending the Duchesne college at Omaha for the past year returned home last week having completed the school year.

H. R. Neitzel of Boise, Idaho, and H. A. Githman of Murdock were visiting for a short time in Manly last Sunday while enroute from Murdock to Plattsmouth.

Edward Heeney of near Wabash was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Henry Heeney who lives some miles east of Manly, they driving over in their car last Sunday and also attending church in Manly.

Did it ever occur to you that the one way to keep your home inviting is to keep your walls smiling? This can be done by changing the walls with papers, harmonies, in colors and combinations. Call on us for suggestions. Max Dusterhoff.

Conrad Bismarck who has been attending the University of Medicine at Omaha for the past year is home for the summer vacation, and is jumping into the work on the farm and the way he goes at the work would signify he will also make a success of his chosen vocation.

Mrs. John Angwert and children were taken to Ashland last Wednesday by Mr. Angwert, they departing from there to West Point, where they went to visit at the home of Mrs. Angwert's sister, Mrs. John Kruger, after which they will visit for a time at the home of a brother, Mr. Geo. Hite and family near Oakland, before returning home.

Lawrence Earhart and Paul Murphy, who have been attending school at the Saint Mary's college at Omaha, for the past year are home again, and enjoying the real home cooking which ever appeals to the boy after he has been away for some time. And by the way there is nothing just like the good old fashioned home cooking.

The finest varnish that money can buy is Max Dusterhoff's.

Come in and ask for special prices on Rex barn paint—a strictly lined oil paint.—Max Dusterhoff.

Rev. A. Branchie is reported as not feeling the best, but it is hoped he will soon be able to be about again as usual.

Martin Bornemeier was looking after some business matters at Burlington, Colorado, where he is interested in some land shawing, spent a few days there during last week.

Miss Mable Rush who is employed in Lincoln, was a visitor for over Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rush of this city.

Albert Reickman and Walter Bornemeier, who have been attending school at Naperville, Ill., returned home last week, and are taking up their duties on the farms of their respective parents, between here and Elmwood.

C. L. Miller and son Emil, accompanied by August Paaska, and Charles Long were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday driving over in the morning and returning at noon, going in the car of Emil Miller.

Homer H. Lawton, who has been decorating the interior of the home of Mr. George Busil for some time past, completed the work and has made the place a thing of beauty. Mr. Lawton has just begun the outside painting at the home of Otto Miller north of town.

Ivan Worley who is a relative of W. H. Frost, was a visitor at their home in Manly for a short time last Monday coming from his home in Elmwood. Mr. Worley has just completed his course in engineering and will consider two good offers for employment, but will probably accept the one from Minneapolis, rather than the one at New York, having received a letter of offer from each place.

Edward Kelly was a visitor on business in Weeping Water last Tuesday, driving down in his auto. Sheehan and Heebner shipped a car of mixed cattle and hogs to the Omaha market from Manly last week.

Special Varnish for table tops, window sills, outside doors. Won't turn white under water. At Max Dusterhoff's.

Rudolph Bergman, the accommodating postmaster and business man, had us place his name among the readers of the Journal at Manly.

Dan Bomke and Theodore Harnes, were visiting in Omaha for a day last Thursday, driving over in their car and were looking after some business matters for a short time.

Charles and Edward Lau were busy this latter portion of the week getting the alfalfa on the farm of Ed Lau and having excellent weather they secured some fine feed.

Robert McClary and a crew of workmen are just now completing a bridge south of Manly on the Murdock road which will cut a day's time with a bad place in this stretch of highway.

The grain is moving slowly just at this time, on account of the extreme business of the farmers and the scarcity of the cars to market the grain. There were but two cars received during the week, one going to each elevator.

There was a wreck of the motor car of the Missouri Pacific and the train on that road last Monday a mile or so out of Louisville in which the motor car was entirely demolished, but as care was taken no one was injured.

Wall paper is very difficult to get. We were fortunate in securing a full line. The prices are constantly advancing. Better take advantage of present prices and a good assortment of the most exclusive papers. Max Dusterhoff.

Last Thursday, Jesse Landhalm and wife, with their little baby, departed for a trip to Burlington, where they were taking two new cars for the garage of Mr. Landhalm's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Landhalm, each driving a car.

Albert Miller, the time keeper for the extra gang on the Missouri Pacific, was a visitor at his home in Plattsmouth for over Sunday, returning to his work Sunday evening. Wonder what is the attraction at that place for the young man.

W. H. Frost of the Manly lumber company and A. H. Humble, the affable agent for the Missouri Pacific railway and their wives, were visiting in Lincoln over Sunday with friends, returning home Sunday evening in their car.

Claude Breckenfeld of Omaha, where he is employed with the Moline Plow company, was a visitor in Manly last week, being the guest of some of his sister and her band, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ran of the Bank of Manly.

The work of completion of the new home of C. E. Moeckenhaupt, has been delayed on account of the inability to get the plasterers back to work. The house is now waiting for white coat and then will be ready for the finishing touches of the carpenters.

James Murphy and wife and their son Edward Murphy, were visiting in Omaha last Sunday, being the guests at the home of Charles Wanner and Humphrey Murphy for the day. They returned home in the evening with the exception of Mrs. Edward Murphy, who remained for a longer visit.

Oscar E. McDonald of Murdock, and Henry Moeckenhaupt of Sterling, departed one day last week for Burlington, Colorado, where they were looking after some land in which they were interested. They remained away for a number of days and were well pleased with the country and its products.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel and wife were visiting in Lincoln last Friday, going on the early train and also looking after some business matters as well as visiting with their daughter. They returned home on the evening train. Mr. Wm. Weddell was conducting the business at the store while Mr. Neitzel was away.

Mrs. Catherine Earhart was a visitor in Omaha last Friday, going to be present at an operation under which her daughter went, for relief of appendicitis and was taken there by Mr. Charles Gerlich in his car. Miss Gertrude, who is just graduating from the Omaha high school, underwent the operation nicely and is making a rapid recovery.

Mr. Frank Frahm of Omaha, who some two years ago was a citizen of Murdock and has since been employed with his father in Omaha, has contracted with Max Dusterhoff, the painter and decorator, and is now again making his home in Murdock and assisting in caring for the immense business which Mr. Dusterhoff is doing in the painting and decorating line.

August Krecklow and son Louis, who have the position of operating the road maintainer between Murdock and Plattsmouth with headquarters at Manly, are making an excellent road, but have been handicapped with the grading gang and the bridge builders on the road, but with the conclusion of their work will be in a better position to keep the road as they desire it.

Last Sunday Henry Guthman, accompanied by H. R. Neusel of Boise, Idaho, who had been visiting in Murdock at the home of his brother L. Neitzel and other friends in the community, having lived here for a number of years, and been engaged in the banking business, went by auto to Plattsmouth, where they visited for a short time and Mr. Neitzel was enroute to a point in Wisconsin, where he went to visit and look after some business as well. Mr. Guthman remained over until Monday evening.

During the past week Frank Melvin has been doing some carpenter work at the home of Mr. Fred Stock. Myron D. Noble of Lincoln, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Pothast last Monday for a few hours.

J. A. Bauer and Ed Vanderberg were busy unloading a car of cement for W. H. Tool of the Murdock lumber yard last Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Loebbeck were passengers to Lincoln last Friday where they were both visiting and looking after some business matters as well.

Doris Parcel, who was nine years of age last Friday, June 7, celebrated her anniversary by a trip to Murdock and also a visit at Lincoln in the afternoon.

Will Holka, northwest of town is a new reader of the Journal and will keep posted as to the happenings in and about Murdock as well as other parts of the county.

A. A. Lindell was a visitor in Omaha last Friday where he was looking after some business matters, going over the noon train and returning home at five o'clock in the evening.

Mr. D. F. Pickering and wife of Lincoln, were the guests in Murdock of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Pothast for a few days during the week. They and their hostesses enjoyed the visit greatly.

Miss Mary Edna Jones of Ashland, but formerly of Murdock, was a visitor in this city and the guest at the home of her friend Miss Margaret Angwert, for a few days during the week.

W. H. McCreary, who has been attending school at the state university for the past year, has after the close of school, accepted a position on the farm of Frank Buell south of Murdock.

Conrad Reike of near South Bend, was a business visitor in Murdock last Friday, driving over in his car and while here had the Journal man put his name on the list for this paper at the home of Mr. Reike.

George Buell shelled his corn last Saturday, which he delivered at the elevator at Murdock. The matter of getting cars as are desired to market the corn is a question in which many are interested.

Raymond and Arnold Scheifert from west of Manly, were visitors in Omaha last Thursday, where they were looking after some business, they making the trip in the new Dodge car of Mr. Orris Scheifert.

W. O. Kipple and wife of Kystone, who were visiting with friends in and near Murdock for several days and looking after some business also, having drove in with their car, departed overland for their home in the west a few days ago.

Wednesday evening W. O. Gillispie and Ivan Buskirk of Murdock, and Will Murrin of Wabash, who has been viewing the west in their auto, returned being well pleased with the trip and also glad to be at home again.

Diller Utt was a visitor at home last Sunday enjoying the stay exceedingly, visiting with his family and his many friends in Murdock. Mr. Utt, who is employed with the Express company at Omaha, returned and took the Metz car with him.

Mr. Raymond Fisher, who was a graduate at the state university as an engineer and who is located at Chadron, in the northwestern portion of the state, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool for a short time during the fore part of last week.

B. L. Clements of Elmwood, the undertaker at that place, was a business visitor in Murdock last Friday and was accompanied by Mr. E. E. Gustin, who is engaged in the real estate business in that town, who so had some business matters to look after as well.

Charles Bowdish of Omaha and S. C. Keckler of Arriba, Colorado, were in Manly last Friday for a short time looking after some business, having driven from Union and after having concluded their business here departed for Louisville, where they had some business also.

Miss Catherine Tool, who is engaged in teaching music since completing her course at the state university conservatory of music, has now two classes in music, one at Alvo and the other at Wabash. Miss Tool is well qualified to give instructions in this line and very fortunate are those who are able to secure her as an instructor.

Mrs. Theil, who lives just out of Murdock, has been ill for some time, and has been taken to a hospital in Lincoln by Mr. Theil where she is receiving treatment in the hopes of a restoration of her health. Mrs. Theil has suffered much from bad health and has many friends wishing that she may soon be restored to her natural health.

Were Viewing the West. Charles Murphy and wife have been enjoying the cooling breezes and the glorious scenery in the mountainous country of Colorado, and find them very pleasant. They were well pleased with the scenery as well as the richness of the lands there and speak very favorably of the growing crops in that district. On their return they stopped at Madrid to visit at the home of their son Frank Murphy and with Mrs. Murphy's sister, Mrs. Bergman at North Platte.

This is a Snake Story. This is the narrative of a big snake having a big meal on speck chickens. At the home of Geo. Mills, where they raise a number of chickens of the best variety and where they crop was unusually large this spring the chickens kept disappearing and nothing could be found of them. A few mornings ago the house dog was noticed barking furiously near a large cottonwood stump and the attention of the family was attracted and upon investigation it was found that the dog had cornered a very large snake. The snake was soon dispatched and a large swelling in its body aroused the suspicions of Mr. Mills who cut it open and out jumped a spring chicken large enough almost to crawl and it ran away evidently glad of its freedom. There were others also partly digested. The chicken which was able to run away after being liberated, after it had the experience of Jonah, had evidently just been swallowed.

Lost Curtains for Auto. While driving from Murdock to Ashland, Mrs. Matt Thimgan lost some curtains for a Mitchell car. Finder will please leave at McCarthy Brothers store in Ashland or at Mr. Thimgan's at Murdock.

Schools Will Open in September. The board of education have secured teachers for the Manly schools, they being Mrs. A. H. Humbel as principal, while Miss Mary Current of Elmwood will teach the lower grades. The school has been arranged to open on the first Monday in September.

Strawberry Harvest Now On. While Manly does not have as many people as many towns, she has some people who surely know how to raise strawberries and do the same as well Thomas W. Keckler and Rudolph Bergman both have some ideal fields of this fruit growing. It requires many to assist in gathering the luscious fruit.

Injured While at Work. Last week while engaged in putting ice into his refrigerator at the market, Joe Johansen was injured by a fork which he had for the purpose, slipping out of the refrigerator and striking him on the arm, one of the fingers of the hand. The injury is doing as well as could be expected and is mending, but is keeping Mr. Johansen from his work during the time.

Becomes Citizen in Full. Last Monday Max Dusterhoff of Murdock, with a number of witnesses, was a visitor in Plattsmouth, where he secured his final citizenship papers and was also looking after some other business matters as well. He was accompanied by Joseph Watchenoch, who had application for his first papers and will, when the time expires, become a full fledged citizen. They were accompanied by W. H. Rush and E. W. Thimgan, the latter also making a business trip to Omaha.

Some Speeders Were Caught. The town of Murdock has an ordinance which forbids the driving over the streets at a rate of speed exceeding twelve miles per hour, and also regulates cutouts and lights. Some have been given a taste of the law and others also are under conviction. Just how the matter of handling the streets will come out remains for those who break the law to find out.

Have Located at Chappel. Robert Williams, who several days ago departed for the west in his car, has located at Chappel and there he will be engaged in business. Mrs. Williams and little daughter Edna, departed for that place a few days ago to join the husband and father. They have selected an excellent town for a home and we are trusting that they will like the place and are sure they will make a success there and they are clever people and Mr. Williams an excellent workman.

Kensington Meets With Mrs. Melvin. The Kensington club of the Royal Neighbors of America, met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Melvin and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon with that estimable hostess. They are more than pleased at the excellent way in which they were entertained. They looked after the business of the society and did much work in their line and were much pleased by the delightful luncheon which was served by the hostess.

Some of Them Got Away. The rural carrier and the lumber merchant took a few hours off last Thursday evening, going to the Platte river and some of the lakes along its border where they fished during a portion of the evening and had some good luck. Out of fourteen fish all of the black bass variety, who came to try a sample of the bait, Mr. H. W. Tool bagged four, and the ten went back to their haunts, telling how good the bait tasted and how near they missed being caught. Lacey did not have much luck.

Henry Klemme Very Ill. Henry Klemme, Sr., who has been making his home with his son Henry and who has been in very poor health was taken to a hospital in Lincoln by his son, where he will be treated for his health. It is hoped that he will be able to win back his strength, and enjoy buoyant health again. Mr. Klemme has not been feeling very good for many months and while he has been given every attention which the home can provide, he has not mended and he is now in the hospital in order that he may have expert treatment.

Mrs. Horace Reeves at Elmwood. Mrs. Horace Reeves, who has been troubled with an affection of her feet and limbs, is now at the home of her daughter at Elmwood, Mrs. Emily Gonzales, where she is being cared for and being treated for the malady with the hopes of restoring her feet and limbs to their normal conditions.

Were Over Thursday Evening. Harry Long and son Robert, who make their home between Murdock and South Bend, were over last Tues-
