Hiatt & Tutt,

MURRAY, : : NEBRASKA

Wm. Troop and Clarence Brown were visitors in Omaha last Tuesday afternoon, where they were looking after some business.

Dr. Oscar Sandin was a visitor west of Murray at the home of James Earhart, where he was called to look after a sick cow.

G. M. Minford and family were visiting in Lincoln last Sunday, having driven up in their car and enjoyed the occasion greatly.

Jesse Chambers and C. Brown were busy this week at the home of Worth Chick, where they were finishing the new house of C. W. Christweiser.

Mrs. Adam Hill was visiting in Murray for the most part of the week, being the guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Patis.

Among those who have recently shelled their corn near Murray and had to haul the same to Plattsmouth were John Bodsheldt, Geo. S. Ray and Alva Long.

J. A. Scotten, the contractor, with his assistants C. R. Kennedy and Wm. Homann, have been busy this week on a barn on the farm of Mr. Otto Patis.

A. L. Baker was a visitor the fore part of the week at Lincoln, where he was the guest of his sisters and was also looking after some business matters.

James Kykendall of Plattsmouth was looking after some business matters interesting the Nebraska Gas and Electric company, of which he is the superintendent.

L. H. Patis was hauling corn with his truck for Gust Mannier, which had to be taken to Plattsmouth on account of the scarcity of cars on the Missouri Pacific.

Phil Lambert began the work of painting his house last Tuesday and is doing it at easy stages, as he is just getting accustomed to the work again since his accident.

C. W. Clarke, the proprietor of the Union Hotel accompanied by J. B. Roddy of that place, were looking after some business matters in Murray last Tuesday morning.

T. S. Barrows and family were visitors at Omaha last Tuesday having driven there during the morning to look after some trading and also to visit with friends for the day.

Taylor Wilson, the traveling auditor for the Missouri Pacific, was a visitor in Murray for a short time last Tuesday, coming in on the evening passenger and catching the local to Omaha. He was looking after some railroad work for the road.

Mrs. J. A. Walker and Walter Mannier shelled their corn last Tuesday and Wednesday, marketing the same at Plattsmouth and had the same hauled there in trucks. Among those assisting, being J. F. Wolf of Plattsmouth, having two trucks, L. H. Puls, Frank Marasek, Herman Richter and others.

Keep the Boys and Girl on the Farm
By giving them every city convenience in the way of a beautifully lighted home, as well as all the out-buildings, also furnishing power for all low voltage motors about the place. See the modern farm home in pictures and the conveniences of an Alamo Light Plant at the Murray picture show next Saturday evening, June 19th, one extra reel in addition to the regular program.

We were disappointed in not receiving this reel for last Saturday evening's show as advertised, but will positively be shown next Saturday evening. This reel is here now, do not fail to see it.

BANNING & NICKELS
Mrs. Clinton Totten, who is staying at the home of Bert Lloyd, has been reported sick and the services of Dr. H. C. Leopold of Plattsmouth, was obtained during the first of the week. Mrs. Totten is reported as being slightly improved.

W. G. Boedecker, cashier of the State Bank of Murray, accompanied by Mr. L. D. Hiatt, were visiting last Tuesday at Omaha, where the former was attending the bankers convention, while Mr. Hiatt was looking after some business at the wholesale houses.

Mrs. Louis Puls, who is the chairman of the committee for the supper at the library at Murray on Saturday next, with the committee will give an excellent supper and the occasion should receive the patronage of all the citizens of the community, both in town and the adjoining country.

Pretty Busy These Days
We dropped around at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Ray, southeast of Murray last week and there found one of the nicest and neatest kept lawns and yards that one would see in a days travel. Mrs. Ray was caring for the flowers about the place, making it appear at its best which is pretty fine. Mr. Ray is very busy in his alfalfa harvest which is sandwiched in between his corn plowing. He has some nine acres in alfalfa which he is expecting to give him some twenty-five acres of good hay. We can speak with knowledge as to the excellence of their strawberries and cream with the cake added, as we were given the rare treat of a generous supply of all while we rested for a short time under the grape vines which makes a cool retreat as they cover the back porch.

School Meeting Last Monday
At the school meeting which was held last Monday, there were two members of the board of education to be elected as Mr. W. G. Boedecker's term has expired and Mr. L. D. Hiatt has resigned. At the meeting Mr. Boedecker was re-elected and the other position was filled by Mr. A. Ganssmer.

Arrive Home After Nice Visit
Monday evening B. A. Root, who has been staying at the home of his son at York, for the past two months, returned home to Murray and on Wednesday morning departed for Omaha, where he met Mrs. Root, who has been in the east for the past several weeks, visiting with her children at Canton and Cincinnati, Ohio, Chicago; and also at Mannistee and Fremont, Michigan. While away

Mrs. Root has had an excellent visit and a good time. Mr. and Mrs. Root will in a short time depart for York, where they will join their son and take a trip through Estes Park and other places of interest in the west.

Missionary Society Meets
Messdames John Farris, Herman Wolforth and Wm. Gilmore assisted Mrs. N. Friedrich in the entertainment of the missionary society last Friday afternoon. Much good was derived by all who attended in the study hour, while the refreshments which were served were excellent. Mrs. Schaefer, mother of Mrs. Friedrich, and also Mrs. Friedrich's sisters were also in attendance.

Sells All Home Guard Rifles
During the time of the war, they were supplied to the company of home guards by Wm. Gilmore, some of which have since been sold and Lee Kniss, who had charge of the matter, went to Plattsmouth last Tuesday afternoon, where he settled for the same with the county commissioners who were in session at that time. The guns which were good ones were disposed of at eight dollars each.

Many Enjoy Excellent Dinner
At the home of Mr. Chester Mannier, last Sunday was tof Murray, were gathered a large number of friends who enjoyed one of the most excellent dinners imaginable. The occasion was the greeting of Mrs. Mattie Kemster of LaFayette, Ind., who is visiting for a week at the home of her brother, Mr. Chester Mannier. There were present at the gathering and enjoying the sociability.

Reels Were Delayed
On account of the failure of the reels to arrive the one thousand feet of special films which were to have been given at the show last Saturday evening they will be presented the coming Saturday, they having arrived this week.

Brightening Up Some
The Missouri Pacific station at this place is looking better after having a coat of paint and with the other building of the company, look the brighter and better for the application of the brush. We are congratulating the road on their enterprise in keeping their property in better condition even if they do not get the cars which is necessary to keep the grain from being hauled via trucks to the county seat.

Loses a Valuable Horse.
Chester Mannier is the loser of a valuable horse one of a team for which he but recently paid the sum of $550 for. The animal was sick but a short time and was attacked with a sort of colic from which the animal died within a few moments. Mr. Mannier, who is just starting in the farming business for himself, can ill afford to sustain the loss.

Community Spirit Growing
When the ladies of the Lewistown church gave a supper a short time ago, they were greeted with the largest crowd ever gathered at one of the Saturday night suppers and among them were many new faces, which was very gratifying as it is indicative of the growth of the community spirit and the matter of the getting together of the people, is making far better conditions in Murray. Let us see if the supper which is to be given at the library this coming Saturday cannot be the largest ever yet given.

Community Spirit Growing
When the ladies of the Lewistown church gave a supper a short time ago, they were greeted with the largest crowd ever gathered at one of the Saturday night suppers and among them were many new faces, which was very gratifying as it is indicative of the growth of the community spirit and the matter of the getting together of the people, is making far better conditions in Murray. Let us see if the supper which is to be given at the library this coming Saturday cannot be the largest ever yet given.
