SERIOUS ACCIDENT OCCURS LAST EVENING

CAR DRIVEN BY YOUNG MAN NAMED TOM DeWOLF CRASHES INTO BUGGY OF IVAN TAYLOR

PARTIES SUFFER INJURIES

DeWolf Has Right Shoulder Blade Broken and Mrs. Taylor is Badly Bruised and Shaken Up

From Saturday's Daily.
Last night about 10 o'clock a serious accident occurred on Washington avenue near the Heisel mill and which resulted in Tom DeWolf of Weeping Water having his right shoulder blade fractured and Mrs. Ivan J. Taylor suffering the effects of being hurled a distance of several feet and being very badly bruised and injured and the full extent of her injuries have not as yet been fully determined. Mr. Taylor, who was with his wife in the buggy was also very badly shaken up in the wreck.

It seems that both the buggy and the car were coming from the west down toward the main part of the city and at the time of the crash were in that portion of the avenue where there is more or less shadow caused by the trees along the roadway and from the statement of those near the scene of the accident both parties were driving at a very reasonable rate of speed.

The automobile came on Mr. and Mrs. Taylor without warning and the first intimation they had of the car was when the machine crashed into the buggy, knocking it against the curb and hurling Mr. and Mrs. Taylor clear out of the buggy for a distance of several feet and injuring Mrs. Taylor quite severely and also bruising up Mr. Taylor. The automobile was turned on its side and Mr. DeWolf pinned beneath the machine, suffering the fracture of the right shoulder blade and he remained in this position until passersby came to his rescue and released him from his position.

The accident brought Chief of Police Manspeaker to the scene and Mr. DeWolf was taken to town where the injured member was set and dressed and Mrs. Taylor was brought to the city for treatment.

In the car that was wrecked was found a small quantity of liquor and this figured to more or less extent in the eyes of the authorities who took Mr. DeWolf in custody, although the ownership of the liquor was not established at this time. The car was found to be owned by Ben Olive who was not present but was at the dance at the time.

When the car ran into the rear of the buggy the horse of Mr. Taylor was released and proceeded to run several blocks and was finally discovered near the residence of John F. Gorder, where it was secured and returned to the owner. Both the buggy and auto were almost complete wrecks and it will require a considerable amount to put them in shape again.

This is the second experience of Ivan Taylor with wrecks of this nature as he was the victim of a similar accident near the same spot several years ago.

EVIDENCE OF AUTO THIEVES' HANG-OUT

Marshall Charles Reichart of Louisville Uncarries Place Where Stolen Cars Were "Doctor" Up.

From Saturday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon in the woods near the quarry of the National Stone company at Louisville, a startling discovery was made by Marshall Charles Reichart of Louisville, that seems to indicate that this spot had been used by parties to "doctor" up stolen Ford cars.

The ground was littered with small parts of Ford cars of all descriptions and here apparently the parties had made the exchange of engines in the cars that they had stolen and to prevent the cars being identified by the owners. From the evidence one of the cars which had been overhauled had been that stolen from a man named Endicott at Ashland a few days before, while the other car which had been worked over was unknown to the authorities.

The place was an ideal one for this line of work and it is thought that the work of switching parts may have been going on for some time, until unearthed by the authorities.

The finding of the cache for stolen cars brings to mind the fact that a year ago a similar handout was located near Louisville on the Sappy side of the Platte, where the autos had been repaired and changed so as to avoid identification.

There was no one found near the place by Mr. Reichart and the parties had evidently thought that it would be safer to be on the wing rather than hang around the scene of activities.

Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water, was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business at the court house.

George Budig, wife and son, of Denver, arrived in the city last evening to enjoy a stay here with relatives and friends for a short time.
