"A few years ago, when visiting relatives in Michigan, something I had eaten brought on an attack of cholera morbus," writes Mrs. Celesta McVicker, Macon, Mo. "I suffered intense pain and had to go to bed. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and one dose relieved the pain wonderfully. I only took two or three doses, but they did the work."

Nuckolls County Board One of Several That Arbitrarily Reduced Total Valuation of Taxable Property

From Saturday's Daily.

Acting under authority of an opinion from Attorney General Davis department the state board of assessment and Secretary Bross of the finance department may meet Friday afternoon and direct the county board of Nuckolls county to reinstate the assessed valuation of property in that county which the board as a county board of equalization arbitrarily struck from the assessment rolls. Two opinions from the attorney general's office have been given, the last by Mason Wheeler, holding that county boards have no power of property within a county. Such boards are limited by law to equalization of values as between precincts and individuals. The state board alone has power to increase or reduce the total valuation of a county.

Nuckolls county is not the only county that has reduced total assessed valuations. It is likely the state board will ask counties that have done this to reinstate the amount stricken from the assessment rolls. The state board may either do this or restore the amount when it equalizes the assessed valuation of all counties in the state.

The opinion from the attorney general was given at the request of Secretary Bross of the department of finance. Under the code bill the secretary of that department is given considerable power in dealing with out county boards of equalization and assessors but his valuations are subject to review by the state board of assessment. For the first time there are two state departments clothed with assessing power. The secretary of finance is given power similar to that exercised in some other states by a tax commission, but the state board of equalization and assessment has the final decision on tax matters.

What the Law Provides.

The powers and duties of county board, the state board and the secretary of finance, are set forth in the following opinion by Assistant Attorney General Mason Wheeler given in reply to questions from Secretary Bross:

"In reply to your request contained in your letter of July 15, for an opinion relative to the action of the county board of equalization of Nuckolls county in attempting to arbitrarily revise the valuation of realty in the county by reducing the assessor's valuation 20 per cent in fourteenth precincts and 30 per cent in two precincts.

"The power of the county board of equalization was correctly stated in the opinion rendered by Judge Barnes of this department, June 18, 1920, to Mr. W. H. Osborne. The function of the county board of equalization is to adjust the valuation as between individuals, classes of property and precincts. It has neither power nor authority to attempt to raise or lower the general valuation of the county. Such is the function of the state board of equalization. The action of the Nuckolls county board in lowering the valuation of two precincts 30 per cent and the remainder of the county 20 per cent is clearly an attempt to evade the law as interpreted in this opinion.

"Both the state board of equalization and yourself as secretary of finance, have ample authority to nullify such action by the county board of Nuckolls county.

"Section 6447 of the revised statutes grants the state board of equalization power to increase or decrease the total assessed valuation of any county and by so doing may increase the aggregate valuation of all property in the state to an amount greater than that returned by the various county assessors, by giving notice to any county in which property is under valued and requiring said county to appear and show cause why its assessment should not be increased. After such hearing, the state board may increase the valuation of such county on a per centum basis to such a figure as will constitute a just and equitable assessment of all state property. Such notice should be served on the county clerk, county assessor and chairman of the county board of equalization, at least five days before the hearing.

The state board may adjust valuation as between counties without such a hearing, providing that the adjustment does not increase the aggregate valuation of the return from all counties.

"Section I, article IV, title I, chapter 199 of the laws of 1919, grants the secretary of finance power and authority.

"(1) Investigate the methods of local assessors and county boards of equalization in the assessment, equalization and taxation of all property.

"(2) To require any county board of equalization to make such orders as the secretary shall deem just and necessary to order and direct any county board of equalization to raise or lower the valuation of any classes of property and to do and perform any act or to make any order or direction to any county board of equalization as to the valuation of any class of property in any county which in the judgment of the said secretary of finance may seem just and necessary.

"(3) To exercise general supervision over county boards of equalization, with the power to require assessors and boards to assess all property at one-fifth of its actual market value under penalty of forfeiture and removal from office. Such proceedings on the part of the secretary are subject to review by the state board of equalization.

CASE IS SETTLED

From Saturday's Daily.
The case of William H. Betts vs. Lena Betts was closed in the district court today when in compliance with the mandate of the state supreme court, Clerk of the District Court James Robertson, paid over to W. H. Pitzer of Nebraska City, the attorney of Mrs. Betts the amount due her under the court decision. The supreme court in reviewing the case reversed the judgment of the lower court as to the granting of the divorce awarding the decree to Mrs. Betts but otherwise sustaining the lower tribunal.

DANCE AND

20TH INFANTRY BAND COMES FROM FORT CROOK TO PROVIDE MUSIC.

COL. BUCK AND STAFF ATTEND

Visitors Well Pleased with Pleasant Dance and Enjoy Stay as Bargains Circus Guests

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening was one of the most interesting that has been held during the Bargains Circus and a large number were present on the streets to attend the concert given by the 20th Infantry band of Fort Crook and the dance at the big de luxe dancing platform of the American Legion at Fifth and Main streets.

The gathering clouds in the early evening made the prospects of the open air dance seem rather poor, but the storm clouds rolling away made the evening one that was just suited for dancing and the excellent floor of the dancing platform was crowded to the utmost by the young and old alike, who enjoyed to the fullest extent the pleasures of the evening.

Preceding the dance the 20th Infantry band gave a concert at the dance platform and presented an excellent program of the standard and popular numbers that were received with the greatest of pleasure by the large crowd in attendance.

The band at the dance gave a fine program of the very latest dance hits and the splendid selections of the artists comprising the band made the evening one of rare pleasure to the jolly crowd that had gathered to assist the American Legion in their campaign for funds for the new home they are planning in the city and toward which the proceeds of the dance will go.

Col. B. B. Buck, commander of the 9th Infantry at Fort Crook, with members of his staff and their ladies were present to enjoy the occasion and with the others of the enthusiastic crowd enjoyed the dance until a late hour. Col. Buck and party while here were guests of the management of the Bargains Circus and thoroughly enjoyed their stay in the city.

This evening the Legion will give another dance at the platform and at which the Eagle orchestra will furnish the music and a royal good time is being anticipated by the young people of the city and the many from the country districts who will be in attendance.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs. When housework is torture. When night brings no rest nor sleep.

When urinary disorders set in. Women's lot is a weary one. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. Have proved their worth in Platts-mouth.

This is one Platts-mouth woman's testimony. Mrs. Charles Mason, 31233rd St., says: "I have had quite a bit of experience with Doan's Kidney Pills up to a couple of years ago. I used to have attacks when my back would be so lame and weak it bothered me a great deal to be around on my feet. My kidneys would be disordered at times, too, and I felt miserable and had no ambition. A member of my family who had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results advised me to try them and I did so with the best of results. In a short time I felt like a different woman. I got Doan's at Fricke & Co.'s drug store and use them occasionally when I get tired in my back and they always quickly relieve me." Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mason had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

TO FINISH HIS SPEECH

G. O. P. Candidate to Accept Nomination in Fewer Words Than Customary.

Marion, O., July 15.—Another full work day, beginning at 8 o'clock and stretching into the evening, was given by Senator Harding today of his speech of acceptance of the republican nomination for president. Tonight only the final touches remained to be added before the manuscript could be given to the printer.

The candidate put in one of the most arduous days in the two weeks since he returned to Marion, which itself has been the busiest period he has seen in years. He turned aside from the speech only once or twice to dispose of urgent correspondence, and he abbreviated his lunch period and hurried through the brief daily conference with his local managers.

The acceptance speech is expected to be shorter than most addresses of that character, occupying less than four printed columns. The senator hopes to have it ready by tomorrow night for distribution in confidence to the newspapers, and then after Sunday's rest he will turn his attention to other features of his campaign.

Marion began to dress up today for the notification. Foundations were laid for a long court of honor made of decorated wooden pillars and arches to stretch along Mount Vernon avenue, on which the Hardings live.

At Garfield park, where the notification ceremonies will be held, painters and carpenters are making over the county fair auditorium, while the city's whole commercial machinery, from hotels to sandwich stands, is overhauling on an undreamed of scale. Entertainment officials estimate that the number of visitors will exceed 50,000.

SPENT SAVINGS OF A LIFE TIME

Searched for Relief from Rheumatism for Two Years—Restored by Tanlac.

"It's a fact, I have not been able to hit a lick of work in two years, but since taking Tanlac I have been restored to complete health and am feeling so fine I am going back to my old job again," said Edward Canute of 2826 Girard avenue, North, Minneapolis, Minn., recently.

"About two years ago, the rheumatism got the best of me and laid me out completely and I had to give up all work. The rheumatism was all over my body, but it was worst in my shoulders, arms, back, neck and legs. My arms and shoulders pained me just about all the time and the muscles became so sore and stiff that at times I was unable to raise my hands to my head. Why, of mornings, it was all I could do to dress myself. My back hurt me so that it was agony for me to stoop down or even bend over. Sometimes my legs were swollen so I could hardly walk. In fact, every move I made caused me intense suffering. I could get no ease either standing up, sitting down or lying down and I don't remember getting a single good night's rest during the past two years. I was almost helpless and was in pain of some kind all the time and I knew I couldn't hold out much longer. Nothing I tried did me any good and I spent the savings of a life-time, but it was all money thrown away.

"When I commenced taking Tanlac I couldn't see how it could do me much good after everything else had failed, but I soon changed my mind for it was only a few days until I felt my pains easing up. In all I took five bottles of Tanlac, and it's a fact, I actually believe the rheumatism has left me for good, for I never feel a sign of it. The swelling has all gone from my legs and the stiffness has left my joints and muscles and I haven't a pain of any kind. I am stronger and more active than I have been in many years and I am feeling so fine I can't tell I ever had any rheumatism at all. I am going back to my old work again and I wouldn't take anything in the world for the good Tanlac has done me."

Tanlac is sold in Platts-mouth by F. G. Fricke and Company and the leading druggist in every town.

T. M. Scarbrough, wife and children departed this afternoon for Omaha, where they will visit with friends for a few hours.
