

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

Mr. Fred Dvorak was a visitor in Union, a guest at the home of Miss Mary Becker.

Ira Clark and wife were visiting in Plattsmouth last Monday afternoon, driving up in their car.

Dan Lynn was a visitor in Nebraska City last Tuesday where he was looking after some business as well as visiting with friends.

T. E. Hathaway recently visited with relatives at Panama, and were the guests of Frank Schlegel and family while there, driving over in their car.

Art Pearsley was a visitor at Nebraska City last Monday, where he went to make a purchase of barbed wire for the fencing of portions of his farm.

We are keeping in line with the decrease in the prices of lumber. See W. B. Banning at Union for figures and estimates of costs of building.—Banning & Nickles.

Joe Everett threshed his small grain last Tuesday and was pleased to have the work done and the bother out of the way, as he has not been feeling the best for some time.

J. B. Roddy of Omaha, was a visitor in Union for a day or so the first of the week looking after some business matters regarding the selling of some land which he is interested in out west.

Stephen Taylor, one of the progressive farmers near Union, has gotten his fall plowing completed and is now ready for the seeding of his fall grains, when ever the weather and the season are here.

Pearl Albin, who was kicked some time ago by a horse and who was extremely sore from the injury for some time is slowly recovering and will greatly improved is still somewhat sore from the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Yowell departed for Lincoln last Monday morning, where they will make their home in the future and where Mr. Yowell has accepted a position with the firm of Miller & Payne, as designer and window dresser in that establishment.

Some rejoicing was visible at the home of Oscar Hoback when last Sunday the stark brought a bouncing baby boy to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoback, which made them very happy. The young man and mother are getting along nicely. The father with careful nursing will probably pull through.

Charles Hill and two little nephews George and Fred Hill, sons of Joseph Hill, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Minnie Morrow of Ashland for over Sunday, going last Saturday and returning home Monday afternoon. They enjoyed the visit greatly and say the crops of that portion of the country is excellent.

Uncle B. F. Hoback, who has been sick at his home southwest of Union for some time, is reported, while slightly improved, to be in a very serious condition. It is thought that he will have to be taken to a hospital for treatment and it is hoped that he will soon be so improved that he may return home and again enjoy good health.

Louis Maughey and sister Miss Naomi, were visitors in Lincoln last Sunday and were accompanied, going in their auto, by Misses Angie and Nettie McCarroll and Mr. Leslie Everett, where all attended the Sunday session of the Epworth Assembly, and listened to the address of Billy Sunday. There were estimated to be at the gathering some twenty thousand people.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster and family drove to Omaha Monday and spent the day shopping and visiting. Miss Nettie Stanton was looking after some business matters in Omaha, going with the brother, R. E. Foster and wife.

Herbert Burbee was a visitor in Omaha and Plattsmouth last Sunday driving over in his car and spending the way with friends.

F. W. Elliott, the Collins Oil man from Plattsmouth was a visitor in Union last Monday delivering a tank of gas to some customers west of Union.

Misses Esther Larson and Crete Briggs of Plattsmouth, two teachers of the Omaha schools, were spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster southeast of Union, returning to their homes at the county seat last Sunday.

L. G. Todd, with his car drove to Lincoln where he attended the Epworth Assembly and spent the day with the family who are camping there during the session of the assembly. Mr. Todd was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bramlet and son and also Mrs. John Hansel.

W. B. Banning, who is doing considerable work on the state fair grounds at Lincoln in preparation for the coming fair this fall, was home with the crew which is working with him from Union, spending the day with the home folks and returning to their work Monday morning.

Wm. McCarroll who has been in the west for some time looking after the harvesting of some grains which he has near Bennett, Colorado, returned home last Monday morning. Mr. McCarroll tells of an abundant crop of wheat there and says that harvest will not be concluded for some ten days yet.

N. R. Kennedy and wife and son "Bud", accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Pickart and their little daughter Henrietta, all of Council Bluffs, were visiting in Union as guests at the home of C. W. Clark and Mrs. Vesta Clark and daughter, Miss Lida. The party drove down from the Iowa city in their car, returning home Monday afternoon.

Rev. W. A. Taylor and wife, accompanied by John Lidgett as driver, and Mrs. Dan Lynn, were attending the funeral of Mrs. Leonard Crawford, going to Plattsmouth to meet the funeral cortege, which arrived there in the afternoon and from there went to the Lewiston church where the funeral was held and the interment was made. Many others from and near Union were in attendance, going to Plattsmouth in their cars.

A. N. and Bert Crawford drove down from Coleridge last Sunday, arriving at Union in the evening and made arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. Leonard Crawford of that place, had died there a few days since, and then departed on Monday morning for Omaha to meet the funeral cortege which came from Plattsmouth via auto to the church north of Union, where the funeral was held. Account of which will be found in another column.

Threshing Nearly Completed
The farmers about Union are a thrifty set and going to get it their work in season, and if they have half a chance they will get their work along with those of other localities. The threshing in this neighborhood is practically completed, there being a few pieces yet to finish, which is expected to be completed by the end of the week.

Would Like to Know Whose Steer
There is a three year old steer in the corn field of Herman Ross north of town that he would like to have the owner come and get and pay for the damage which it has caused. The animal which seems to be wild, will run in the corn and is pulling the ears from the stalks and is so wild that one cannot designate the brand which he has.

Soldier Boys Will Give Dance
The soldier boys have completed arrangements for a dance to be given at the M. W. A. hall at Union on both nights of the Old Settlers reunion at which it is assured there will be an excellent time. The best of music has been secured and the best of order will be maintained. The public on these evenings who delight in dancing will find a place to spend a few hours in the pleasure

Committee is Working Hard
The committee of the Old Settlers Association of Union, have been making good use of the time in making preparations for the 32nd annual picnic which is to be held at the grove southwest of town on August 20th and 21st, Friday and Saturday of next week. The matter has been well advertised thus far and large bills are being posted in three counties, for further advertising the same. Entertainments have been secured and a program provided. See the large bills for the list of entertainments and other interesting matter which will be provided.

Two ball games will be had and many other amusements. There will be special music and readings by prominent artists in that line.

There will be addresses also by local and other prominent speakers. Go spend a day or two, meet your friends, run elbows with them and get a breath of inspiration from the outside world and you will have a broader view of this life, this country and its possibilities.

Caring for Sick Father.
Mr. Charles Renner of Eagle, the father of Mrs. H. L. Swanson, who underwent an operation some time ago and who, it was thought was recovering nicely, has not been doing so well of late, and the weakened condition of his system has developed cysts in his lungs, which have had to be tapped for the removal of the pus formed. It is hoped that he will soon be on the way to recovery and of dancing and will be sure that they will have a good time, free from roughness of course manners.

Advertising the Carnival.
A party made up of Wm. Ossenkopp, R. C. Meyers and H. Koop and accompanied by "Kid" Graves of Omaha who is training Andy Schmarader for an encounter, were in Union last Monday posting bills and advertising the Athletic Carnival which is to be held in that city on August 18th. The bunch were gentlemanly and met every one very courteously, and at the same time impressed all who came in contact with them, that they were representatives of a real live town. The event promises to be one of much interest and worth while traveling considerable distance to see.

Gave Grandpa Taylor a Visit
Last Sunday a number of the friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, who are making their home at Millford, went to that place in their autos, being equipped with loads of good things to eat and their arrival had a most delightful effect on the state of affairs. They made a very happy day for the aged couple of Union citizens who are making their home there for the time being. Those to go and assist in the making of a most agreeable day were Rev. W. A. Taylor and wife, R. E. Taylor and wife, S. M. Taylor and wife and their two sons Eliza and Alda, R. M. Taylor and wife with their son Howard, and Mr. Ebel Caldwell, who is visiting with the Taylors from his home in Iowa.

Received Severe Injury.
Mrs. J. C. Snavely, in the absence of her husband, who is visiting and looking after some business matters in West Virginia, went to look after the milking last Monday morning and was chased by a cross bull of a neighbors, and in her frantic haste to get away from the infuriated animal and into an adjacent corner, tripped and fell, endeavoring to catch herself, extended her arms and one hand caught on the barbed wire which slipping through her hand, lacerated the hand in a most severe manner. However she was able to regain her feet and get to the crib before the animal over took her. Neighbors came and drove the infuriated beast away and Mrs. Snavely was able to get to the house. The doctor was called and dressed the wound which was very severe and while still very painful the injury is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances. There were eleven cuts on the injured hand.

Boys Will Play Each Day
Arrangements are completed for two games of ball on the home grounds during the Old Settlers picnic on August 20 and 21. The first day the game will be between Dan Hart and Union and the last day, Saturday, it will be between Union and Julian. These games are expected to be good ones.

Union Wins a Ball Game.
This time Union won, and while they were pitted against an excellent team, were able to win by two runs. The game which was a spirited one from the beginning, was well matched and enjoyed by a large number of the Union people who were present to watch the game, as well as a goodly number of people from Murdock. This was a game in which everything went along smoothly. The Union boys speak well of the excellent way in which the visitors conducted themselves and on the other hand the boys from Murdock were well pleased by the treatment accorded them from the Union team. The end of the game showed Union with eight runs to their credit, while Murdock with but two behind had an even half dozen.

Raising Some Oats
One of the record crops of oats in this portion of the state is that sown by Lonnie Meade, who is farming the Jesse Pell farm north of Union. Mr. Meade has raised 797 bushels on a thirteen acre tract of land, which is a splendid record and one that will be hard to beat in this part of Nebraska.

Mrs. Hiatt Poorly
Mrs. Moses Hiatt, for many years a resident of this city but now making her home with her son, L. D. Hiatt and family at Murray, is now in very feeble health and her condition is gradually becoming weaker as the effects of her advanced years of life are felt. The old friends in this city and vicinity will regret very much to learn of the condition of this estimable lady and trust that she may feel more improved in a short time. Her son, L. D. Hiatt, has also been under the weather for a few days but it is not thought that he is in serious condition.

that the return to health may be one of permanency. Mrs. H. L. Swanson, daughter of Union, is at the bedside of her father at Eagle and ministering to his welfare.

Former Resident of Near Union Dies at Harrington—Remains are Brought to This City.
Yesterday afternoon the body of Mrs. Leonard Crawford, who for the greater part of her lifetime was a resident near Union, arrived in this city to be laid to rest in the cemetery at Lewiston near the old home. The death of Mrs. Crawford occurred at her home near Harrington, Nebraska, on Saturday, August 7th, following an illness of a short time from blood poison which had developed shortly after the birth of a babe ten days ago. The death came as a great shock to the husband and six little ones who will through the years miss the tender care and devotion of the wife and mother, and in their bitter grief they will have the deepest sympathy of a host of friends throughout the country where they have so long resided.

The funeral party was met here by a large number of relatives and former friends from the vicinity of Union and Murray, who accompanied the cortege to the Lewiston church east of Murray, where the last services were held. The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union conducted the service and spoke briefly of the life of the good woman gone to her last long rest, holding out to the family and sorrowing friends the promise of a better meeting with her whom they had loved and lost. Rev. Taylor spoke very feelingly from an acquaintance of a number of years with the departed and the members of the family, and his words of tender sympathy and helpful Christian thought softened the grief that the untimely death had brought to the family. The burial was had at the cemetery adjoining the church.

Ella Hostetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hostetter, was born near Louisville, Nebraska, on October 7, 1889, and lived there a number of years, later removing to near Union, where thirteen years ago she was united in marriage to Leonard Crawford. To this union were born six children, all of whom survive the mother, as follows: Leonard, aged 13; Eleanor, aged 11; Rene, aged 9; Ralph, aged 7; Thomas, aged 4 and a baby boy of ten days.

The family removed from their home near Union several years ago to Harrington, Nebraska, near where they have since resided.

MURRAY YOUNG MAN IS SEVERELY INJURED

Sandford Homan Has Pitchfork Penetrate Abdomen and Inflict Serious if Not Fatal Injuries

A very serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon at one of the farms west of Murray when Sandford Homan, a young man employed in that locality was severely injured by having the tines of a pitchfork driven into his abdomen and penetrating the liver. The unfortunate young man was delivering bundles to the threshing machine and as he was driving up with a load, the wagon overturned and the young man thrown out as well as the bundles. In the load was a pitchfork and from the particulars of the accident it seems as though the young man must have fallen on the fork as the points were driven deep into his body. The fork tines penetrated the abdomen and the injured man suffered untold agony while medical aid was secured. He was taken to Omaha last night and an examination disclosed that the fork had penetrated to the kidneys and very little hope of his recovery was entertained. At the hospital it was stated that if the young man could live through today his chances of recovery would be much brighter but the case was so severe that little hopes could be entertained.

The funeral party was met here by a large number of relatives and former friends from the vicinity of Union and Murray, who accompanied the cortege to the Lewiston church east of Murray, where the last services were held. The Rev. W. A.
