

As Clean Cut as a Thoroughbred

The clean-cut businesslike design of the "Z" Engine results from efficiency in manufacture. A farm engine, to be efficient, must be properly designed—may also have graceful lines—free from geggaws.

Immensely strong in every part—weight where weight is needed. Every strain foreseen—every contact part case hardened—all parts carefully, precisely made by accurate machine work—therefore interchangeable.

Looks like a thoroughbred—is one. Delivers a steady flow of power—runs smoothly—operates economically. Unit assembly, precision methods, and efficient design make it the perfect farm engine. A mighty pleasing engine to look at. Come in and see it today.

Other "Z" features are: Runs on kerosene, coal oil, tops, as well as gasoline; built in Bosch high tension oscillating magnetos; more than rated power; every part interchangeable; long-lived endurance.

BURGLARS PAY VISIT TO THE GERING HOME

Parties Evidently Possessed of Thirst Force Entrance to Cellar and Make Off With Old Wine

From Wednesday's Daily.

Sometime during last night the Gering residence on North Sixth street was visited by highjackers, who forced their way into the cellar of the home and secured several bottles of rare old wine that had been in the possession of the family for the past fifteen years.

The entrance was secured by breaking the lock on the door and was evidently carried out by some one familiar with the situation and with the fact that a small quantity of the wine was stored in the cellar. The wine had been a gift to the family from relatives in Italy and had been at the home for the past fifteen years, being used during the sickness of members of the family and while but very few bottles were in the cellar the excellent quality and age of the wine makes the loss amount to considerable.

From the indications the authorities are of the opinion that it was the work of some one well acquainted with the premises and the location of the wine. It is thought that the entrance was made either very late at night or early this morning as members of the family were not aroused by the entrance of the night caller.

DEPART FOR STATE LEGION CONVENTION

Delegates From Hugh Kearns Post of This City Go to Hastings to State Convention.

From Wednesday's Daily.

This afternoon the representatives of the local post of the American Legion accompanied by a number of the membership departed for Hastings where the convention is to open tomorrow morning at the auditorium in that city. The delegates representing the post here are Aubrey Duxbury, Emil Hill, Henry Lutz and Edwin A. Fricke, while John Wichman, George Conis and Marion Duxbury accompanied the delegates and to enjoy the big state meeting.

At the opening session of the convention which will be held at order by State Commander Earl M. Cline of Nebraska City, the meeting will be addressed by National Commander Franklin D'Olier, who has during his term of office increased to twice its former strength the membership of the Legion.

The Plattsmouth delegates are instructed to urge on the convention the name of State Commander Cline for the national commander at the national convention and will endeavor to have the state delegates so instructed.

The pre-convention indications have pointed strongly to the naming of either Edward McDermott of Kearney or T. J. McGuire of Omaha as the next state commander.

VISITS WITH OLD FRIENDS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave O'Brien of Osmond, Neb., have been enjoying a visit at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Klimm near Murray, having come down from their home last week to attend the old settler's picnic at Union and enjoy an outing amid the once familiar scenes. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Klimm were in Omaha enjoying a picnic party at Krug park and had a very delightful time. The visitors returned to their home today.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien were former residents of this community, having made their home at Plattsmouth some twenty years ago and from this city removed to Osmond, where they have since resided. It is needless to say their visit was much enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Klimm.

KEEP POULTRY CLEAN

Enormous Baby Chick Loss Caused Annually by Lice

"I would not try to keep poultry without Dr. LeGear's Poultry Remedies," says Mrs. L. V. Rose of Cuero, Texas. "We have never had any of them fail to do even more than you claim for them."

Every year millions of baby chicks are lost because setting hens are not kept clean and free of lice. Dr. LeGear's Lice Killer quickly rids your flock of lice and vermin.

Through his advice and remedies, Dr. LeGear has helped thousands of poultry raisers during his 27 years' experience as an Expert Poultry Specialist. It will pay you also to take advantage of Dr. LeGear's advice just as Mrs. Rose did and increase your poultry profits. Get a can of Dr. LeGear's Lice Killer from your dealer. From Wednesday's Daily.

This afternoon E. H. Westcott departed for Los Angeles, California, where he expects to enjoy a two or three weeks' vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Westcott. The health of Mr. C. E. Westcott has not been the best of late and the members of the family in this city have felt some apprehension over the condition of the father and Mr. Westcott will take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy a visit in the California city with the mother and father. Miss Alice Louise Westcott, who has been spending the summer at Los Angeles with the grandparents, will leave for home on Wednesday, September 1st, in order to be ready to resume her school course at the opening of school next Tuesday.

TRAVIS IS RELEASED FROM LOCAL CUSTODY

Matter of Manufacturing Intoxicating Liquor May Be Taken up by Federal Authorities.

From Wednesday's Daily.

This afternoon the sheriff released from his custody James Travis, the gentleman who was arrested last Sunday in connection with the finding of a large amount of corn mash and a still at his home near the Missouri river ferry. Mr. Travis was fined $200 and costs in county court and this amount was settled yesterday and he was released from the custody of the sheriff and allowed to return to his home.

The matter of the conducting of the small sized distillery is being investigated today by the federal prohibition enforcement office, a representative of the department coming down from Omaha to inquire into the matter and to visit the liquor and mash secured by Sheriff Quinton in the raid.

That the mash is powerful stuff can readily be discovered by anyone approaching the basement of the jail where the products of the raid has been stored and it will be a time of rejoicing to Sheriff Quinton when the several barrels are allowed to be destroyed.

ANOTHER MOVE IN COLE MURDER CASE

Brings Action in Federal Court to Compel State Penitentiary Warden to Produce Men Condemned to Die

From Wednesday's Daily.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Alson B. Cole, Howard county murderer, was filed in the United States district court by Attorney John M. Priest. The court is asked to compel Warden T. Fenton of the Nebraska penitentiary to bring the body of Cole under its jurisdiction and to restore him to his liberty as a citizen of the state. This is the second time that an application has been made in the same court.

The new petition recites that through the errors of the Howard county district court the petitioner, Alson B. Cole, was not given a fair and impartial trial when had certain evidence been allowed submitted in his behalf he would have been a free man.

The petition charges that the county attorney and other lawyers interested in the state case deliberately refused to permit one Gladys Bishop to testify on behalf of the defendant.

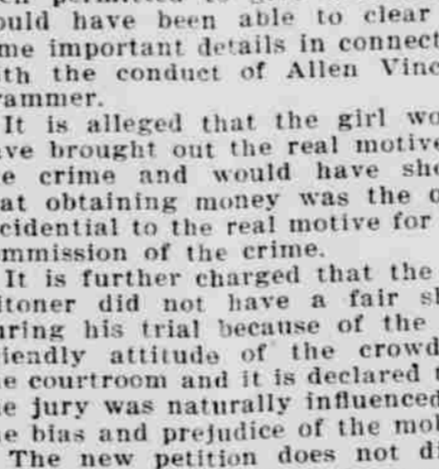

It is asserted that if the girl had been permitted to give evidence it would have been able to clear up some important details in connection with the conduct of Allen Vincent Grammer.

It is alleged that the girl would have brought out the real motive of the crime and would have shown that obtaining money was the only incidental to the real motive for the commission of the crime.

It is further charged that the petitioner did not have a fair show during his trial because of the unfriendly attitude of the crowd in the courtroom and it is declared that the jury was naturally influenced by the bias and prejudice of the mob.

The new petition does not differ from the old except as to the story of the girl mentioned. The district court of appeal dismissed the other petition for a writ of habeas corpus. State Journal.

PIONEERS OF NEBRASKA TO HOLD MEETING

Old Residents of the State Will Meet at Lincoln September 7th for Annual Pow-Wow, Etc.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The pioneer residents of the state of Nebraska are called to meet at Lincoln on Tuesday, September 7th, the call for the meeting having been issued by J. C. F. McKessen, secretary of the state association.

The meeting will be held at the Grand hotel, commencing at 10:00 o'clock and the opportunity of reviewing old times is one that will be much enjoyed by the old residents of the state.

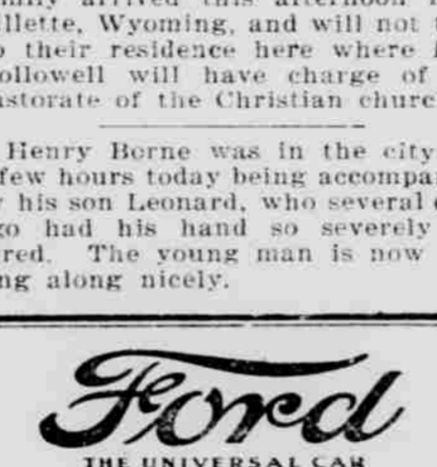

Those who have resided in Nebraska for the past thirty-five years are eligible for membership in the association and a very large number are expected to be in attendance.

Cass county has some of the oldest residents of the state and territory in its citizenship and a large number of the old residents of the county will undoubtedly be in attendance at the Lincoln meeting.

The pioneers' association will maintain headquarters on the balcony of the agricultural hall during the state fair.

Rev. A. G. Hollowell, wife and family arrived this afternoon from Gillette, Wyoming, and will not take up their residence here where Rev. Hollowell will have charge of the pastorate of the Christian church.

Henry Borne was in the city for a few hours today being accompanied by his son Leonard, who several days ago had his hand so severely injured. The young man is now getting along nicely.
