HARDING SEES GEN. WOOD SECOND TIME

Held Conference With the General During His Stay at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Senator W. G. Harding, republican nominee for president, stopped over in Chicago for several hours today on his first campaign trip outside Ohio and quickly paid a call on Major General Leonard Wood. Met at the station by the general, Senator and Mrs. Harding motored with him to his headquarters at Fort Sheridan and after a rest at the Wood home made a visit to the general hospital, where several hundred soldiers are under treatment for wounds received in the war. The candidate shook many of them by the hand and expressed his sympathy and hope for a quick recovery. The senator later drove to Deerfield, a suburb, to board his special train for St. Paul, where he will deliver an address to Minnesota state fair visitors tomorrow on agricultural issues.

A crowd gathered at the Dearborn street station gave the nominee a cheer when he left his train, but as his car threaded its way through the traffic of the loop district and sped out Sheridan Road few of those on the streets recognized him. He made no speech here, but early in the day he made his first rear platform address at Huntington, Ind. No formal reception or demonstration had been organized here, as it was said the nominee preferred to have his visit here devoted solely to his personal call on the general.

Today's meeting between the senator and General Wood was the second since the convention. Nearly a month ago, the general went to Marion to pay his respects and to pledge his support, and today they are understood to have renewed their discussion of politics to insure solid progressive support for the republican ticket. Neither of them, however, had any statement to make except to say that the call had strengthened the good relations existing between them.

At Huntington there were several hundred waiting for him, and after he had shaken hands with many of them he yielded to demands for a speech, which was cheered by the crowd, which included many railway employes.

THE BUSINESS OF BEING REAL FUNNY

And It Is a Business with Byron G. Harlan—To Appear in Recital Here Next Monday.

Byron G. Harlan's present function in this world is to entertain people with his delightful rendition of clever songs. But in spite of his amusing ways on the stage, Mr. Harlan is decidedly a serious "business man."

He didn't start to study music till he was twenty-four years old. Then he left his home and went to Chicago. He secured an engagement with an opera company and then appeared in "A Texas Steer." It was right here that Mr. Harlan's business ability came to the fore. So he started a company of his own and became a producer himself. Mr. Harlan believes firmly that a musical training is one of the best preparations in the world for the perfecting of the business mind.

And so Mr. Harlan has proved for he makes a serious business of being funny. The enormous success of Collins and Harlan as "America's Favorite Entertainers," is proof enough of Mr. Harlan's business sense. Collins and Harlan will give one of their inimitable performances at the Parmelet theatre in Plattsmouth on Monday night, September 13th. They promise to trot out all their funniest songs for the delectation of the residents of this city.

HAPSBURGS ARE IN DISTRESS

Geneva, Sept. 7.—Eighty members of the Hapsburg family are in great financial distress, former Empress Zita of Austria said to a visitor today in Prangins, where she and former Emperor Karl are living. Their incomes have stopped and they have suffered great loss through the rate of exchange. The exiles have been forced to seek employment in order to live, several archduchesses becoming governesses and others becoming maids. The archdukes are entering business as clerks.

GO-OPERATIVE STORE COMMITTEE

"Puzzled"

The average man today is literally puzzled about his clothes buying. It used to be that when he needed a suit or overcoat he went to his clothier or his tailor and picked it out without any hesitation. But now it is different. He has heard so many wild rumors about clothing prices going up and clothing prices coming down that he's puzzled to know whether to buy now or wait. Our advice to you is that if you need the clothes buy them now. We do not look for clothes to go higher, neither do we see any possible chance for them to be lower. You can buy some kinds of clothes will cost right around $50, and will continue to cost that till labor and other commodities come down. You'll not make anything by waiting.
